Harry E. Maule

Run Silent:

Run Silent, Run Deep Edward L. Beach, 2016-10-15 Universally praised for its powerfully authentic depiction of submarine warfare Run Silent Run Deep was an immediate success when published in 1955 and shot to the top of best seller lists nationwide In 1958 Hollywood adapted the novel for the big screen starring Clark Gable and Burt Lancaster The New York Times said of the novel If ever a book had a ring of reality this is it combat passages rank with the most exciting written about any branch of the service The Saturday Review called the book a classic and many reviewers compared its author to such greats as C S Forester and Erich Remarque Today these accolades still ring true for Edward L Beach's gripping first novel of American submariners confronting a formidable Japanese navy in a vicious battle to control the Pacific Beach's taut and dramatic narrative told with the intimacy of a confession deals with two strong headed men Edward Richardson the commander of the USS Walrus and his executive officer Jim Bledsoe Bound together by wartime duty the two are divided by jealousy pride and love for a beautiful woman But long after the details of this famous novel fade from memory what remains with us is a startling realization of the way it really was in the silent service during World War II Unlike many war novels here is a story that deals with war from the perspective of command With fidelity Beach creates the anguish agony and triumphs of command decisions Commander Richardson embodies all that is fine and human in an excellent naval officer This is a monument not to the misfits and the mistakes but to those men who rose to greatness under the sometimes unbearable tensions of action

The Boy's Book of New Inventions Harry E. Maule, 2021-01-01 IN THE preparation of this book the author has tried to give an interesting account of the invention and workings of a few of the machines and mechanical processes that are making the history of our time more wonderful and more dramatic than that of any other age since the world began For heroic devotion to science in the face of danger and the scorn of their fellowmen there is no class who have made a better record than inventors Most inventions too are far more than scientific calculation and it is the human story of the various factors in this great age of invention that is here set forth for boy readers Preface Shifting the Balance, Grades 3-5 Katie Cunningham, Jan Burkins, Kari Yates, 2023-10-10 In this much anticipated follow up to their groundbreaking book Shifting the Balance 6 Ways to Bring the Science of Reading into the Balanced Literacy Classroom authors Jan Burkins and Kari Yates together with co author Katie Cunningham extend the conversation in Shifting the Balance Grades 3 5 6 Ways to Bring the Science of Reading into the Upper Elementary Classroom This new text is built in mind specifically for grades 3 5 teachers around best practices for the intermediate classroom Shifting the Balance Grades 3 5 introduces six more shifts across individual chapters that Zoom in on a common but not as helpful as we had hoped practice to reconsider Untangle a number of misunderstandings that have likely contributed to the use of the common practice Propose a more science aligned shift to the current practice Provide solid scientific research to support the revised practice Offer a collection of high leverage easy to implement instructional routines to support the shift to more brain friendly instruction The authors offer a refreshing approach that is respectful accessible and practical grounded in an earnest commitment to building a bridge between research and classroom practice As with the first Shifting the Balance they aim to keep students at the forefront of reading instruction Escape from the Deep Alex Kershaw, 2009-04-14 Their submarine was dead one hundred and eighty feet below the surface of the Pacific Ocean Somehow they survived They were tortured and beaten Somehow they survived Alex Kershaw has done it again as he brings to life World War II s greatest submarine survival adventure James Bradley author of Flags of Our Fathers and Flyboys In the early morning hours of October 24 1944 the legendary U S Navy submarine Tang was hit by one of its own faulty torpedoes The survivors of the explosion struggled to stay alive one hundred eighty feet beneath the surface while the Japanese dropped deadly depth charges As the air ran out some of the crew made a daring ascent through the escape hatch In the end just nine of the original eighty man crew survived But the survivors were beginning a far greater ordeal After being picked up by the Japanese they were sent to an interrogation camp known as the Torture Farm When they were liberated in 1945 they were close to death but they had revealed nothing to the Japanese including the greatest secret of World War II With the same heart pounding narrative drive that made The Bedford Boys and The Longest Winter national bestsellers Alex Kershaw brings to life this incredible story of survival and endurance E. Pluribus Unum Marvin V. Blake, 2019-03-15 E Pluribus Unum From Many One is an epic story 1861 1876 chronicling the lives of two individuals One a black man Jason Ruth born into a life of perpetual slavery the other was a white woman Rebecca Billings the daughter of Henry Billings master of the Rosewood Plantation born into a pampered life of privilege as a member of the Southern aristocracy Two people one black the other white whose preordained statuses in life were at diametrically opposite ends of the South s Antebellum society Two people with absolutely nothing in common yet two people whose lives were inexorably linked due to the lust of Rebecca s father Henry Billings for his black slave Ruth Jason s mother

Henry Billings's coupling white master with his black female slave a common and socially accepted practice in the slave holding South resulted in the birth of Mandy Jason and Rebecca's sister While Jason and Rebecca are not related by blood Jason who had been born before his mother Ruth caught the eye of the massa and Rebecca each shared a deep and enduring love for his and her only surviving sibling their common link their sister Mandy The novel tells of Rebecca's life while raising a child of mixed blood in the South during the Civil War and during Reconstruction It tells of Jason's life as a member of the Massachusetts 54th Infantry Division and his service as a member of the United States Army's 10th Cavalry Buffalo Soldiers The novel examines three coexisting nineteenth century American cultures the recently defeated South's response to the post Civil War's era of Reconstruction the former black slaves who are attempting to adjust to life as freedmen and the noble nomadic hunter gatherer society of the Plains Indians fighting to defend and to maintain their way of life Zero Hour Clive Cussler, Graham Brown, 2014-06-03 It is called zero point energy and it really exists a state of energy contained in all matter everywhere and thus all but unlimited Nobody has ever found a way to tap into it however until one scientist discovers a way Or at least he thinks he has The problem is his machines also cause great earthquakes even fissures in tectonic plates One machine is buried deep underground the other is submerged in a vast ocean trench If Kurt Austin and Joe Zavala and the rest of the NUMA team aren't able to find and destroy them and soon the world will be on the threshold of a new era of earth tremors and unchecked volcanism Cognitive Remediation for Brain Injury and Neurological Illness Marvin H Podd, 2011-11-04 The purpose of this book is to teach psychologists with a neuropsychology background about cognitive remediation the evidence in the research literature and how to develop and conduct a treatment plan and evaluate the effectiveness of the interventions The approach is illustrated using the computer assisted cognitive remediation program developed by the author NeurXercise Twenty nine different cases are presented in depth following the outline presented in the earlier portions of the book Treatment planning emphasizes Luria's concepts of alternate functional systems and double dissociation Pre and post treatment neuropsychological testing results are presented along with ecological validity and generalization to daily functioning The cases are presented by etiology and each section concludes with what can be learned about that etiologic process from the cognitive remediation results This section includes blast injuries which are still being characterized in the literature as well as effective treatment of patients with head injury stroke post neurosurgical sequelae co morbid disorders subcortical disorders attention deficit disorder and learning disabilities The book identifies the most commonly used neuropsychological test instruments for evaluating cognitive deficits discusses their input and output characteristics and does the same for the NeurXercise computer based exercises so that the connection between testing and treatment is easy to see and develop In addition to discussing this in the appropriate sections of the book these are summarized in the appendixes as a reference for correlating test findings and appropriate exercises for remediating deficits

helped Orson Welles shape Citizen Kane to his success as a director and producer of musical blockbusters of the 1960s Robert Wise had a long and illustrious film career Unlike contemporaries such as Alfred Hitchcock John Ford or Howard Hawks however Wise's films lack any clearly discernible characteristics to signify his work There are few striking camera angles or visual flourishes that might distract from the primary obligation to present the story And like Hawks Wise never specialized in one or two genres but brought his directing skills to all manner of films His work as a director resists auteur categorization and that is a chief reason why some critics have been unduly negative in their consideration of his work In The Films of Robert Wise Richard Keenan examines the nearly forty features that represent the director's career from Curse of the Cat People in 1944 to A Storm in Summer 2001 the only television production Wise ever directed Keenan offers a reappraisal of Wise's films so that the true quality of his work can be better appreciated Keenan argues that if there was a flaw in Robert Wise as a director it was that he lacked the ego and temperament of the artist which was not necessarily a flaw at all Indeed Wise was a conscientious craftsman who saw his work not primarily as a vehicle for his own ideas and visual style but as an opportunity to present narrative that quite simply engages informs and entertains It was this perspective that helped produce a number of memorable films over the years including the gritty noir Born to Kill the one two punch of The Set Up and Somebody Up There Likes Me the sci fi prophecy The Day the Earth Stood Still and the gripping indictment of capital punishment I Want to Live classics all Wise also won a pair of Oscars for two of the most memorable not to mention successful musicals of all time West Side Story and The Sound of Music Drawing on more than 30 hours of interviews with Wise as well as additional interviews with a number of his collaborators Keenan offers a welcome reassessment of the director's work In his analysis of each film Keenan reveals both Wise the craftsman and the artist In doing so The Films of Robert Wise finally confers upon this underappreciated director the recognition he deserves

Blueprint to Bluewater, the Indian Navy, 1951-65 Satyindra Singh, 1992 The Dawn of the Sacred: The Mawoakin

Conspiracy Morrison Fuller, 2025-01-01 13 000 years ago isolated on the Itabacan Archipelago the Itabayiti civilization is thriving With every resource imaginable at their fingertips they have spent the past thousand years building massive pyramids to observe their ancestors in the night sky enormous ceremonial courts for festivals and ball games and towering walls to protect them from the Storm Spirit's wrath They are a seafaring people with sturdy reed boats that can withstand the most powerful of waves which they utilize to explore beyond their great wall And they are a technologically and philosophically advanced people who are beginning to toe the line between spiritualism and empiricism However though life goes on and farmers continue to farm fishermen fish and unions are made and families combined wicked forces longing to return to their ancient and feared lost traditions conspire in secret to murder Itabacan's ruler and destabilize the established order Unluckily for them two young boys who constantly seem to be in the wrong place at the wrong time appear to thwart their devious plan Or have they Add to this a strange object spotted in the night sky political unrest and a mysterious figure who seems to confound both Itabiyiti spirituality and reasoning and The Dawn of the Sacred The Mawoakin Conspiracy becomes more than a mythic genre entry Matched with its strong emphasis on family community and the all too familiar growing pains that accompany a young boy s transition to manhood Morrison Fuller s debut novel appeals far beyond the expected audience 100 More Great Books Bonnie A.
