Running to the Edge Matthew Futterman, 2019-06-04 Gripping the narrative is smooth and immediate almost effortless in its detail if occasionally breathless like a good fast run The New York Times Book Review Visionary American running coach Bob Larsen assembled a mismatched team of elite California runners the start of his decades long quest for championships Olympic glory and pursuit of the epic run In the dusty hills above San Diego Bob Larsen became America's greatest running coach Starting with a ragtag group of high school cross country and track runners Larsen set out on a decades long quest to find the secret of running impossibly fast for longer distances than anyone thought possible Himself a former farm boy who fell into his track career by accident Larsen worked through coaching high school junior college and college coaxing talented runners away from more traditional sports as the running craze was in its infancy in the 60's and 70's On the arid trails and windy roads of California Larsen relentlessly sought the secret sauce of speed and endurance that would catapult American running onto the national stage Running to the Edge is a riveting account of Larsen's journey and his quest to discover the unorthodox training secrets that would lead American runners elite and recreational to breakthroughs never imagined New York Times Deputy Sports Editor Matthew Futterman interweaves the dramatic stories of Larsen's runners with a fascinating discourse of the science behind human running as well as a personal running narrative that follows Futterman's own checkered love affair with the sport The result is a narrative that will speak to every runner a story of Larsen's triumphs from high school cross country meets to the founding of the cult favorite 70's running group the Jamul Toads from national championships to his long tenure as head coach at UCLA and from the secret training regimen of world champion athletes like Larsen's protégé American Meb Keflezighi to victories at the New York and Boston Marathons as well as the Olympics Running to the Edge is a page turner a relentless crusade to run faster farther      Burns's Standard reading-books James Burns (publisher.),1867      Long Run to Glory Stephen Lane,2023-09-05 On the morning of August 5 1984 four of the greatest marathoners of all time lined up for one of the most important and long awaited races in history By then they had dominated their competition for at least five years upending a century s worth of preconceived notions of what marathoners could do By decade s end they had lowered the world record a total of 13 minutes won 27 major marathon titles and swept every Olympic and World Championship held in the 1980s And in their careers only once did all four American Joan Benoit Norwegians Grete Waitz and Ingrid Kristiansen and Portugal s Rosa Mota square off in the same race at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics in the first ever Women s Olympic Marathon Such was their talent that Benoit the world record holder entered the race as the underdog She d had knee surgery in April and no one least of all Benoit herself was certain she could hold up for 26 miles against her three rivals Waitz the former world record holder was the favorite she had destroyed the field at the 1983 World Championships and had never lost a marathon she had finished Kristiansen who had beaten Waitz twice in the summer of 1984 albeit at shorter distances was considered the fastest woman in the race she held world records at 5 000m and 10 000m and would break Benoit s marathon record in 1985 Mota had beaten Kristiansen at the 1982 European marathon championships and was already earning a reputation for raising her level in the biggest races This is their story and the story of the first women s Olympic Marathon      Poultry-keeping in India Isa Tweed,1921      The Marathon Method Tom Holland,2007-04-01 Get Ready to Run A complete guide to training for a half or full marathon in sixteen weeks this book follows the format of Tom s previous book The 12 Week Triathlete with simply the best advice on how to run your fastest race while staying injury free Whether you are a first time marathoner trying to set a new PR or looking to qualify for Boston this book is for you TRAIN LESS AND RUN YOUR BEST Some worry that running a marathon will involve hours upon hours of training each week Others fear that they will become injured Some veteran marathoners have followed other training plans and experienced both but Tom s approach is much different His philosophy of train less run your best will amaze you whether you are running your first marathon or fiftieth Exercise physiologist and sports performance coach Tom Holland an elite endurance athlete himself and sub 3 hour marathoner who has run in more than fifty marathons three ultramarathons and a dozen Ironman triathlons around the world will teach you how to properly gear up and train in the sixteen weeks prior to your half or full marathon So when that starting gun sounds you ll be equipped with invaluable tips and techniques that will put you in position to run the best race of your life The Marathon Method provides you with everything you need to know including Easy to understand advice on nutrition hydration and gear Customized training plans for beginner intermediate and advanced runners Advice on the mental side of running and how to make your mind go that extra mile Strategies to avoid hitting the infamous wall Tips on pacing injury prevention strength training flexibility and much more      All the Year Round ,1864      Send Out Your Light Sandra McCracken,2021-09-28 In the middle of Psalm 43 God offers us a dynamic invitation Send out your light

Prolific singer songwriter Sandra McCracken believes we each have the opportunity to hear and answer this invitation This book is written in three parts part one is the becoming the creation how God makes us and gives us an identity Part two is the disorientation of loss displacement and the dark night of the soul Part three is reorientation how God brings us through the darkness and illuminates our path with Scripture sending us out to take his light to others This has been the shape of Sandra McCracken s life Through it all songs and Scripture have been there to light the way helping her respond to God s call How will you respond to God s call to send out his light Running to Win the Race Jesten Peters,2012-07-23 In Jestens study from Bible college to seminary and serving in local churches and ministries for over forty years she has observed many Christians who have not been able to grow in their faith and walk with the Lord This book is a call back to the basics of Christian life Jesten begins by laying a foundation of the Word precept upon precept and line upon line which she calls connecting the dots Jesten also covers how we can get our hearts and minds ready to receive the Word And finally she teaches on taking the keys of the Word and applying them in our everyday lives Running to Resurrection Clark Berge ssf ,2019-10-30 At the age of forty five unfit and overweight Clark Berge a professed Franciscan friar took up running In his younger life he had struggled with alcoholism and with his sexual identity Running became cathartic not just for his body but for making peace with the lingering shame of a troubled past facing unresolved questions and coming to a fuller acceptance of who he was As the elected leader of a worldwide religious community Clark had the opportunity to run in widely differing urban and wild places from the English countryside to a South African shantytown to remote Pacific islands His running adventures opened up larger spiritual insights into the nature of religious life social activism contemplation life on the margins solitude and community fear and fortitude simplicity and living in harmony with creation This unique memoir of running and religion explores Christian spirituality with a disarming honesty and depth Running to Duncan's Field W.B. Cannon,2017-02-15 Student and teacher Owner and pet Frank Boxer and Duncan Cannon are both teachers Boxer an English teacher of seniors at Pines Environmental High School and Duncan Frank s sixteen year old dachshund whose life and fast approaching departure from this world teach Frank far more than he ever expected This is the poignant and yet intriguing story of a dog a teacher and an oppressive education system that keeps them both fighting for love for life and for each other emotionally spiritually and in every other way in which dogs and humans connect Duncan and Frank s journey both through the natural parks that beckon them and through the re creation of the most important nation on earth the Imagine Nation will pull you in and tug at your heartstrings long after you have turned the final page Call this an educational love story if love means never having to say Sit down or Play dead So first take your own dog for a long walk and then settle in with Running to Duncan s Field to experience the warmth love and strength of the bond between a man and his beloved dog
