Running A Thousand Miles For Freedom:

Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition) William Craft, 1969 Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom William Craft, 1999-01-01 Husband and wife William and Ellen Craft's break from slavery in 1848 was perhaps the most extraordinary in American history. Numerous newspaper reports in the United States and abroad told of how the two fair-skinned Ellen disguised as a white slave master and William posing as her servant negotiated heart-pounding brushes with discovery while fleeing Macon, Georgia for Philadelphia and eventually Boston. No account though conveyed the ingenuity, daring, good fortune and love that characterized their flight for freedom better than the couple's own version published in 1860, a remarkable authorial accomplishment only twelve years beyond illiteracy. Now their stirring first-person narrative and Richard Blackett's excellent interpretive pieces are brought together in one volume to tell the complete story of the Crafts.
