Riad El-Ghonemy,2009-12-16 What can we do to unlock the unrealised potential of the hundreds of millions of rural poor and landless workers The ever topical central theme in this collection of essays is the mixed role of government and the institutionally regulated market in tackling rural poverty and land distribution inequality Drawing on over half a century of M Riad El Ghonemy s academic and field experience in developing countries across Africa Latin America the Middle East and South East Asia this is a comprehensive record of the late twentieth century study of and struggle against rural inequality seen through the eyes of one of its foremost observers Containing a balance of in depth field studies and El Ghonemy s personal observations from 1952 onwards this volume provides the basis for discussion and debate on a range of developmental issues Foremost among these is the appropriate approach both to explain the factors underlying developing countries rural backwardness and to enable them to achieve the Millennium Development Goal of halving the incidence of poverty and hunger by 2015 The compelling argument made here is that redistributive land reform combined with non farm intensive employment opportunities and investment in education within rural areas are necessary to tackle persistent poverty effectively Anti Poverty Land Reform Issues Never Die is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students learning rural development and institutional and development economics M Riad El Ghonemy is Senior Research Associate at the Department of International Development University of Oxford and Research Fellow at the Department of Economics the American University in Cairo and Emeritus Professor Ein Shams University Cairo He is the author of several publications including The Political Economy of Rural Poverty Routledge 1990 Rural Poverty and Agrarian Reform in the Philippines Rehman Sobhan,1983 FAO pub Consultant report on rural area poverty alleviation particularly through agrarian reform in the Philippines looks at trends in economic growth and income distribution examines dynamics of poverty incl Underemployment low wage rates external linkages etc examines trends in development policies and rural development strategies Bibliography and statistical tables Agrarian Reform in Contemporary Developing Countries Ajit Kumar Ghose,2010-11-29 Initially published in 1983 in association with the International Labour Organisation

ILO this book is about the meaning relevance and process of agrarian reform in contemporary developing countries It includes seven detailed case studies one each on Ethiopia Peru Chile Nicaragua Iran Kerala India and West Bengal India In all the cases serious contemporary efforts were made to implement agrarian reform programmes and the case studies focus upon selected aspects of this reform process origins basic characteristics problems of implementation and immediate consequences Each region differs considerably in terms of socio economic and administrative conditions but when the reform efforts are placed in their respective historical contexts several common themes emerge which are dealt with in detail In all cases it is clear that agrarian reform is essentially a political process requiring major social movements and that piecemeal reforms will not solve the grave problems of growth distribution and poverty in the Third World
