Jean Lau Chin, Joseph E. Trimble, 2014-09-02 Although leadership theories have evolved to reflect changing social contexts many remain silent on issues of equity diversity and social justice Diversity and Leadership by Jean Lau Chin and Joseph E Trimble offers a new paradigm for examining leadership by bringing together two domains research on leadership and research on diversity to challenge existing notions of leadership and move toward a diverse and global view of society and its institutions This compelling book delivers an approach to leadership that is inclusive promotes access for diverse leaders and addresses barriers that narrowly confine our perceptions and expectations of leaders Redefining leadership as global and diverse the authors impart new understanding of who our leaders are the process of communication exchange between leaders and their members criteria for selecting training and evaluating leaders in the 21st century and the organizational and societal contexts in which leadership is exercised Out of the Shadows David K. Wiggins, 2008-02-01 The original essays in this comprehensive collection examine the lives and sports of famous and not so famous African American male and female athletes from the nineteenth century to today Here are twenty insightful biographies that furnish perspectives on the changing status of these athletes and how these changes mirrored the transformation of sports American society and civil rights legislation Some of the athletes discussed include Marshall Taylor bicycling William Henry Lewis football Jack Johnson Satchel Paige Jesse Owens Joe Lewis Alice Coachman track and field Althea Gibson tennis Wilma Rudolph Bill Russell Jim Brown Arthur Ashe Michael Jordan Tiger Woods and Venus and Serena Williams From Brighton Beach to Madison Avenue David C. Wiener, 2018-08-08 Unlike any accountant most people ever meet David C Wiener rose from humble beginnings in a Jewish neighborhood of Brighton Beach to the heights of accounting success by carving out a niche in the advertising industry in midtown Manhattan He moved from accounting to financial assessment to negotiating deals with an ever widening array of companies His uncanny ability to size up in an instant a situation on all levels not only financial and economic but all aspects related to it his disarming sense of humor and his no nonsense approach make him the perfect deal maker This book lifts the curtain on the stage of advertising agencies from the 1970s to the present and shares life lessons on how to succeed in business and in life Extreme Dreams Depend on Teams Pat Williams, 2009-07-22 Pat says though the vision of one person can change the world no one can carry out a vision alone Extreme dreams depend on teams and lack of teamwork is often how big dreams go unrealized Using examples and anecdotes from history and contemporary life Pat shows how the greatest world changing events came to be as the result of the passion of single individuals In each case a team was assembled with people equipped in the various areas needed to bring the vision to pass Pat addresses team assembly dynamics and pitfalls to give readers guidance they can immediately apply to their own circumstances Everyone is looking for ways to be more successful in life Pat Williams serves up a book packed with practical help to get readers where they want to be Integrating the Curriculum Through Active Processing James Pelech, 2025-05-30 The purpose of the book is to present a different perspective on curricular theory This book extends knowledge in the Education fields of Curricular Theory and Learning it does this by directly blending the concepts of Active Processing and the Integrated Curriculum
