Rigolosi, 1986 Sharing the Journey: Literature for Young Children David Yellin, 2017-05-12 This wonderful resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children's literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children. Specifically focused on infants through the third grade, Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations, instructive commentary, and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years. Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children's literature. Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection. Genre chapters include poetry, fantasy, and realistic and historical fiction. A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction.

Significance: the Struggle We Share John H. Brennecke, Robert G. Amick, 1971 Sharing the Journey Robert Wuthnow, 1996-07-01 A look at how support groups have affected American society argues that although support groups provide a warmth and security that holds society together, they can lead to an unhealthy self-absorption and a trivialized sense of what is sacred.

Pastoral Prayers to Share, Year A David Sparks, 2010 So what are we about as pastoral prayerers? We are about bringing ourselves individually and as a faith community into right relationship with God. What about a Revised Common Lectionary-based book of pastoral prayers for clergy and lay leaders that provides responsive prayers for each Sunday of the year, including proper David gets asked this question often when people recognize him as the author of the three volumes of Prayers to Share. So acknowledging that the pastoral prayer is often overlooked and undervalued and that clergy and lay leaders may be hard-pressed for time to compose a fresh pastoral prayer each week, he has put together a unique and comprehensive collection of prayers that can be adapted to present circumstances and used in a variety of settings. The prayers are responsive, written for one or two leaders and a congregational response. They all allow for the inclusion of local and worldwide current events and individual and congregational concerns. David usually uses the weekly Gospel reading as the broad theme for the prayers and divides them into four easily identified sections: world suffering, church ourselves, The how to use section covers preparing to offer pastoral prayer and offers 12 ways to do pastoral prayer, such as two-leader congregational response using people and objects to dramatize a theme, using part of a hymn for a lead or a response using silence for effect. Each week offers specific suggestions for two or three prayer formats. Other features include Thematic Index, Scripture Index, Icons in the margin to enable quick identification of prayer sections, and alternate suggestions. Data CD with text files for Year A.

2013 Easter Journey: Encounters with Jesus Danielle Baird, Carol Nowlin, 2012-11-09 The following Bible studies were created by Waiting for Water and a team of volunteer authors from across the country. They are designed for use by small groups meeting weekly throughout the Lenten and Easter season. Your group may choose to participate in the full ten-week journey or end your Easter Journey observation on the seventh week at Easter. Group members may find it helpful to read through each week's Bible study beforehand and jot down their answer to the questions in the space provided.
