human centred view of the universe and thus the fictional modes that had been rooted in religion or myth The result for fiction was a radical skepticism on the part of the protagonist who now appeared as a reflective self critical passive figure lacking the dynamism of the epic hero or religious seeker One response to the scientific worldview was the naturalism of Zola and his followers in which the action of characters is determined by social or biological forces Kaplan however focuses his study on such novelists as Flaubert Joyce Conrad Faulkner Lawrence and Hemingway who dramatised the isolated individual consciousness in contention with the world and with the ambiguity of their own motivations The Solipsism of Modern Fiction deals with several related topics that grow from one source the crisis of knowledge in modern intellectual history The effects of solipsism and of moral passivity the split consciousness that divides action and understanding the perspectives of primitive naturalism and stoic naturalism the variations of the comic mood and the example of tragedy are all themes that are dramatised in Kaplan s readings of Madame Bovary Light in August Ulysses Lord Jim and other exemplary modern novels that associate themselves with the problem of self criticism knowing and acting Written by one of the outstanding literary scholars of our time this book will inspire new generations of readers and writers D.H. Lawrence: The Thinker as Poet

F. Becket,2015-12-17 D H Lawrence The Thinker as Poet addresses a particular body of language and thought within Lawrence s oeuvre where the metaphorical the poetic and the philosophical are intricately enmeshed Lawrence emerges as a writer who pulls metaphor away from its merely rhetorical moorings his distinctive style is the hallmark of one who thinks not analytically but poetically about the birth of the self the body unconscious complex kinds of otherness and about metaphor itself as a mode of understanding Look! We Have Come Through! Lara Feigel,2022-08-18 Her intensity and intimacy are engaging Blake Morrison Guardian A lovely urgent serious book Tessa Hadley Refreshing and unexpected Daisy Hay Financial Times Brilliantly interweaving literary criticism biography and memoir Look We Have Come Through is a captivating exhumation of an author and a compelling manifesto for exposing ourselves to difficult and dangerous views Lara Feigel listens to birds outside her window their circling strident calls and thinks of D H Lawrence It is the spring of 2020 and as the pandemic takes hold she locks down in rural Oxfordshire with her partner her two children and that most explosive of writers Proceeding month by month through the year she sets out to start again with Lawrence to find vital literary companionship to use him as a guide to rural living and even unexpectedly to child rearing to find a way through his writing to excavate the modern world she feels he helped bring into being Tracing the arc of Lawrence s life and delving deep into his writings she confronts his anger his passion his tumultuous vitality In the process she faces some of today s most urgent dilemmas from secular religion to the climate crisis from sex and sexuality to feminism s ideas about motherhood And as she watches the seasons change alongside Lawrence Feigel finds the rhythms of her own life shifting in unexpected ways

Time and the Novel Patricia Drechsel Tobin,2015-03-08 Formalist criticism of the modern novel has concentrated on its spatial aspects Patricia Tobin focuses instead on the modern novel s temporal structure She notes that the genealogical imperative that dominated the nineteenth century novel in which one event gave birth to another has broken down in the twentieth century novels she studies Further she draws parallels between this collapse of linear narrative and the current challenge to linearity from many other areas of modern thought Beginning with Mann s Buddenbrooks as a family chronicle novel that fully embodies the classical genealogical structure the author extends her analysis to include distortions of the linear perspective in Lawrence s The Rainbow Faulkner s Absalom Absalom Nabokov s Invitation of a Beheading and Marquez s One Hundred Years of Solitude She finds that in these novels about family relationships the continuity of time family and story has dissolved so that past present and future have lost their distinctions sins against the dynastic family are not only recognized but celebrated and literary and existential meanings are suspended in unlikely juxtapositions irrational metamorphoses and proliferating possibilities Professor Tobin suggests that the disappearance of the genealogical imperative in the contemporary world s sense of reality may account for much of what appears to be anonymous peripheral and excessive in post modern fiction Originally published in 1979 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 English Fiction of the Early Modern Period Douglas Hewitt, 2014-05-22 This is an ambitious and fascinating analysis of early twentieth century English literature from Kipling Conrad Lawrence and Forster through figures like Joyce and Woolf to writers such as Evelyn Waugh There are chapters on the younger writers of the age as well as the more popular minor writers like Buchan and Dornford Yates

The Rainbow tells the story of three generations of the Brangwen family a dynasty of farmers and craftsmen who live in the east Midlands of England on the borders of Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire The book covers a period from the 1840s to 1905 and shows how the love relationships of the Brangwens change against the backdrop of the increasing industrialization of Britain The first central character Tom Brangwen is a farmer whose experience of the world does not stretch beyond these two counties while the last Ursula his granddaughter studies at university and becomes a teacher in the progressively urbanized capitalist and industrial world Women in Love is a sequel to novel The Rainbow and follows lives of the Brangwen sisters Ursula a schoolteacher and Gudrun a painter They meet two men who live nearby school inspector Rupert Birkin and Gerald Crich heir to a coal mine and the four become friends Ursula and Birkin begin a romantic friendship while Gudrun and Gerald eventually begin a love affair The emotional relationships thus established are given further depth and tension by an intense psychological and physical attraction between Gerald and Rupert All four are deeply concerned with questions of society politics and the relationship between men and women The novel ranges over the whole of British society before the time of the First World War and eventually concludes in the snows of the Tyrolean Alps
