incorporates some of the finest contemporary fiction ever produced including Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children Booker Jonathan Coe's What a Carve Up John Llewellyn Rhys Andrea Levy's Small Island Orange Louis de Bernieres's Captain Corelli's Mandolin Commonwealth Writers Prize Zadie Smith's White Teeth Guardian First Book Award Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Booker As well as Booker and Pulitzer prize winners the book also finds room for those that have triumphed in less familiar prizes such as the Betty Trask and the John Llewellyn Rhys It looks at prize winners in certain genres such as crime and science fiction as well as prize winners from other countries the French Prix de Goncourt and the Australian Miles Franklin award Because of the sheer range of prizes across countries and genres this is a diverse and rich list that no book worm would want to be without The British Slave Trade and Public Memory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2006 A provocative examination of the politics of memory and how a diverse culture remembers its complex history of racism The author explores these issues in this study and by incorporating a range of material she analyses how museum exhibits novels films and a play dealt with the subject of slavery The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head, 2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without Facing Diasporic Trauma Fatim Boutros, 2015-11-09 Fictional writing has an important mnemonic function for the Afro Carib bean community It facilitates an encounter between contemporary societies and their historical origins The representation of diasporic trauma in the novels of Fred D Aguiar John Hearne and Caryl Phillips challenges territorial under standings of nationality and raises awareness of the eurocentric basis of Western historiography Slavery is a recurring motif of the nine novels analysed in this study They narrate the fates of silenced victims who all share the traumatic experience of racial violence even if otherwise separated through time space gender and age These charismatic fictional characters facilitate an empathic access to the history of slavery that goes beyond the anonymity of traditional historical sources Their most private and intimate sorrows make the traumatic conditions of slavery appear much less remote and reveal their suffering The euphemistic and distorting selection of the events that has been passed down by the dominant culture is thus countered by a relentless display of historical violence These literary images establish an important symbolic repertoire and introduce powerful founding myths of the diaspora In spite of the traumatic foundations of the community the nine novels display considerable optimism about the possibility of a convivial future that transcends racial boundaries The capacity and willingness to improvise and adapt to new environments and to do so even in face of a traumatic heritage can be regarded as the most important precondition for positive future developments within the matrix of a rapidly transforming global environment Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang, Noelle Morissette, 2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa Ranging from the 15th century to the present Africa and the Americas Culture Politics and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history nations and peoples plus African influenced aspects of life in the Americas It also features authoritative introductory essays on history culture and religion demography international relations economics and trade and arts and literature In doing so it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, 2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature Caryl Phillips, David Dabydeen and Fred D'Aguiar Abigail Ward, 2013-07-19 Slavery is a recurring subject in works by the contemporary black writers in Britain Caryl Phillips David Dabydeen and Fred D'Aguiar yet their return to this past arises from an urgent need to understand the racial anxieties of twentieth and twenty first century Britain This book examines the ways in which their literary explorations of slavery may shed light on current issues in Britain today or what might be thought of as the continuing legacies of the UK's largely forgotten slave past In this highly original study of contemporary postcolonial literature Abigail Ward explores a range of novels poetry and non fictional works by these authors in order to investigate their creative responses to the slave past This is the first study to focus exclusively on British literary representations of slavery and thoughtfully engages with such notions as the ethics of exploring slavery the memory and trauma of this past and the problems of taking a purely historical approach to Britain's involvement in slavery or Indian indenture Although all three authors are concerned with the problem of how to commence representing slavery their approaches to this problem vary immensely and this book investigates these differences A Perfect Fool; A
