Look Back On Death:

Looking Back, Moving Forward Girish Daswani, 2015-02-26 How do Ghanaian Pentecostals resolve the contradictions of their own faith while remaining faithful to their religious identity Bringing together the anthropology of Christianity and the anthropology of ethics Girish Daswani's Looking Back Moving Forward investigates the compromises with the past that members of Ghana's Church of Pentecost make in order to remain committed Christians Even as church members embrace the break with the past that comes from being born again many are less concerned with the boundaries of Christian practice than with interpersonal questions the continuity of suffering after conversion the causes of unhealthy relationships the changes brought about by migration and how to deal with them By paying ethnographic attention to the embodied practices interpersonal relationships and moments of self reflection in the lives of members of the Church of Pentecost in Ghana and amongst the Ghanaian diaspora in London Looking Back Moving Forward explores ethical practice as it emerges out of the questions that church members and other Ghanaian Pentecostals ask themselves The Greatest Mystery Ever

Revealed: the Mystery of the Will of God Bishop Michael Lee King, 2011-08-05 In this second installment of The Mystery of the Will of God book series we continue our search from Book 1 for the full and deeper understanding of the Mystery of the Will of God through the scriptural Mystery of Godliness 1Ti 3 16 Beginning with Chapter 6 the work briefly discusses the problem and root of gender discrimination also known as having respect of persons based on one's gender Chapter 7 then points us to a deeper walk in Christ by teaching us how to walk in the Spirit and what it means to be perfect as commanded in Matthew 5 48 Chapter 8 then reveals God's plan to assist us in our striving for perfection through the operation of the spiritual gifts And finally in Chapter 9 we deal with the dreaded carnal Christian Christians who believe in Jesus but openly reject him and his Word by their works and lifestyle AUTOPSIST Ümit ERCAN, Was my mind playing tricks on me Could the feeling of loneliness that I have been living for a long time have activated my subconscious Seeing the sadness I felt for our Syrian woman whose subconscious mind I had done was trying to get in touch with me by taking on her silhouette and was playing my mind game with me There is no such thing as ghosts I said to myself If there is I cannot see it This must have been a weird nightmare for sure Walking Forward, Looking Back Dinah Latham, 2014-10-28 The book tells the story of a retired district nurse and midwife reflecting on her life whilst walking with her close companion Harriet the dog It is a touchingly honest work written straight from the heart The reader will both laugh and cry as the author recounts many moving stories of patients cared for in 1960s London The writings so patently contrast care in the community then and now that it becomes impossible not to regret the passing of a time when nursing was seen as a vocation when nurses were proud to serve Divorce and single parenthood accompany her career journey while living alone escorts her into retirement It is then that fortune takes a hand or rather a paw and brings Harriet the dog into her life This may just have been the coming together of chance and good timing but destiny or happy accident it was certainly a blessing It was her need to be taken on

After Death? David Edwards, 2001-01-08 Will anything of us survive after death This is a central question when we ask what life means All through history societies and their cultures in particular their religions and philosophies have guided and sustained people as they have approached death and as they have mourned A more secular society has made these comforts less accessible Many beliefs formerly advanced with some authority and believed with some assurance have become incredible to many After Death offers a thought provoking analysis of past and present beliefs for those who want to think for themselves about the greatest uncertainty of life
