Look For A Field To Land:

The Burying Field Kenneth Abel, His critically acclaimed debut Cold Steel Rain was a complex seductively dark story The Dallas Morning News that proved Kenneth Abel is more than able to write a gripping crime drama that will beguile readers Midwest Book Review Now Big Easy lawyer Danny Chaisson returns to settle an explosive dispute between the Old South and the new In a small town north of New Orleans a forgotten slave cemetery has become a drinking hangout for a group of white teenagers Racial tensions begin to spiral out of control ultimately erupting in violence And Danny hired by a property developer to protect his property finds himself on the wrong side of an emotionally charged struggle over land power and tradition There s no shortage of literature depicting New Orleans as a cesspool of sin and corruption Kenneth Abel just happens to do it better than most people His gift for language and storytelling comes across on every page San Francisco Chronicle This is the rare book that doesn t hit even one wrong note Abel nails dialogue so well that you keep going back and savoring the words and phrases And there s plenty of action When I finished the last sentence I said Wow Out loud The New Orleans Times Picayune Among the best new crime series Booklist starred review Look Down, see the women weep Francis Ferguson, 2014-01-03 A novel about a young Englishman who experiences Karen village life in the mountains of Northern Thailand He discovers how to see the lowlands from the viewpoint of the Karen people living in the mountains rather than the viewpoint of people who look up from the lowlands imagining they see barbarians living in primitive villages
