Los Angeles 2000:

LA 2000, a City for the Future Los Angeles 2000 Committee, 1988 Fighting the Current Lisa Bier, 2011-09-07 In 1926 Gertrude Ederle became the first female to swim the English Channel and broke the existing record time in doing so. Although today she is considered a pioneer in women's swimming, women were swimming competitively 50 years earlier. This historical book details the early period of women's competitive swimming in the United States from its beginnings in the nineteenth century through Ederle's astonishing accomplishment. Women and girls faced many obstacles to safe swimming opportunities including restrictive beliefs about physical abilities, access to safe and clean water, bathing suits that impeded movement and became heavy in water, and opposition from official sporting organizations. The stories of these early swimmers plainly show how far female athletes have come. The Rand-McNally Bankers' Directory and List of Attorneys, 1915 In the Shadows Joseph R. Buley, 2013-02-13 This is the memoir of a professional civil engineer practicing within two government entities and twelve construction companies during his career. Joe describes his civil engineer practice working for family-owned construction companies, a major corporation, and the government. Joe traces his practice from a design engineer at Brooks AFB to a construction engineer at a major mining management company to construction management positions at several family-owned construction companies to an estimation consultancy at a major government transportation entity. Joe has built successful union operations and a successful merit shop company for respected union contractors. With this experience, he describes the details for building merit shop divisions and the management of the ensuing double-breasted operations. Joe describes his consultancy during a troubled construction period of a major transportation agency. Joe places you in his office as he grows a regional heavy industrial rigging company into a highly respected national industrial constructor. The reader relives with Joe the execution of the double-breasted business model for two respected union contractors. Joe will impart to the reader the excitement of starting a merit shop company and doubling its growth each year. Joe will let the reader relive California labor history as he or she participates in the initial development of the ABC Southern California parallel craft training programs. Joe will take the reader inside the establishment and growth of a Los Angeles industrial division for a major ENR fifty merit shop constructor as it relentlessly drives to become a billion-dollar industrial constructor. Joe's more than ten years as a construction claims consultant is described as he builds a professional estimation department within a state transportation entity recovering from federal sanctions and experiencing chaotic restructuring. Finally, Joe will describe for the reader the inside baseball of three major lawsuits in which Joe prevailed. One lawsuit, although won, was lost on appeal due to the appellate court ruling that the intervening change in the law was retroactive. Taboo, 2001 Taboo, 2001 Bankers' Directory of the United States and Canada, 1916 Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts, 1967 Reports for 1980-19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts Gun Violence in America Alexander DeConde, 2003 An in-depth analysis of the folklore

When the Sisters Said Farewell Michael P. Caruso, 2012-03-11 When the Sisters Said Farewell tells an important story of the contributions of Catholic elementary schools to the United States by chronicling the experiences and insights of religious women nuns who were the last members of their communities to serve in parish elementary schools and of those lay men and women who were the first to serve in those roles traditionally filled by the sisters The dramatic numerical transition from the preponderance of religious women to lay leadership from the 1960s to the 1980s has been documented this book describes the how and why sisters left Catholic schools This narrative also provides instructive insights about leadership transitions and current trends in religious life and Catholic education As all educators in Catholic private and public schools grapple with questions of delivering an excellent education this book offers a glimpse into the workings of one of the most amazing educational enterprises in the history of the United States Listen to a Sirius Radio interview with Fr Michael P Carus here
