Lost in North America John Gray, 1994 A personal idiosyncratic tour of the collective work of art we call Canada

Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03

Confederation may have established Canada's nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada's modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio-historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation's economic political and socio-cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo-liberal globalization Canada's petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history

This book considers issues of social and ecological significance through a masculinities lens Earth our home for aeons is reeling The atmosphere is heating up causing reefs to bleach fisheries to collapse regions to flood and dry vast tracts to burn the polar ice caps to melt ancient glaciers to retreat biodiversity to decline exacerbated by the sixth great extinction and more Meanwhile social and economic disparities are widening Pandemics are cauterising glocal communities and altering our social mores Nationalism is feeding divisiveness and hate especially through men s violence Politically extreme individuals and groups are exalting freedom while scapegoating the marginalised Such are the symptoms of an emerging m Anthropocene This anthology contends with these alarming trends pointing our attention towards their gendered origins Building on our monograph Ecological Masculinities Theoretical Foundations and Practical Guidance 2018 this collection of essays is framed as a dinner party conversation grouped into six discursive themes Their views reflect a growing community of practice whose combined efforts capture the most recent perspectives on masculine ecologisation Together they aim to help create a more caring world for all moving the ecological masculinities conversation forward as it becomes an established international and pluralised field of study

Borderlands W. H. New, 2011-11-01 Under the general title of Borderlands the three related essays in this monograph address the rhetoric of border boundary in Canadian studies and its social political and cultural implications the character of cultural responses to Canada US border tensions and two specific examples of how border transgressions continue to affect current Washington State and British Columbia cultural expression A number of motifs appear throughout these essays including the politics of separation the persistence of racist discourse in North America and of attempts to counter it the role of education in informing public debate the existence of communally held social values in Canada the necessity of the arts the power of language and the relation between social choice and indeterminacy The first essay Giddy Limits ranges the most widely drawing on examples from history and literature geography and popular culture It elucidates the politics of various recurrent rhetorical strategies in Canadian cultural commentary The second essay The Edge of Everything pursues a series of specific applications of border rhetoric including irony national policies and oppositional strategies to Canada US relations The third essay The Centre of Somewhere Else looks in part at the rhetoric of two contemporary writers Seattle's David Guterson and Victoria's Jack Hodgins in relation to the 1859 Pig War and to curricular reform This final essay demonstrates further how the large issues raised in the first two essays resonate both in historical narrative and in contemporary social and cultural practice Theatre History in Canada
