Verses by W. Perring Angusine Jeanne MACGREGOR,Walter PERRING,1948 Educating Moral Sensibilities in Urban Schools ,2019-02-11 Nowadays schools face the challenge of creating pedagogical environments that are sensitive to numerous individual backgrounds in order to support students social and academic success Urban schools are communities with rich possibilities to learn how to think feel and act morally In this task principals teachers parents and students of the schools each have their own voice All these voices have to be heard in order to build communities with moral sensibilities This book brings together recent work by international researchers from nine countries in the fields of moral development and citizenship education The book consists of twelve chapters and it is divided into three parts While the first part deals with the voices of urban school educators the second part contains chapters with the focus on students The third part is about curriculum programs and practices in schools that contribute to the education of moral sensibilities in the school communities This book can be used as a textbook in moral and citizenship education or as an updated research report on international research on moral sensibilities Lost in the Supermarket Georgios Kyroglou,2024-12-17 Political consumerism refers to citizens use of boycotting and buycotting as they seek to influence political outcomes within the marketplace rather than through more traditional routes such as voting It is commonly understood as reflective of the progressively converging roles of the citizens and the consumers in late modernity In the aftermath of the Recession young people in particular are attempting to harness their individual consumer power to collectively express their political ethical and environmental considerations via their consumer choices The expansion of political consumerism among young people across several advanced liberal democracies has been theorised as a result of a wider cultural shift towards cosmopolitanism and postmaterialist value orientations and therefore as an outcome of affluence However the persistence of political consumerism as a preferred form of political participation among young people who were socialised under conditions of neoliberal austerity during and after the 2008 Global Financial Crisis calls for a re evaluation of these assumptions In particular given the susceptibility of political consumerism to a neoliberal modus operandi that attempts to commercialise citizenship itself the lack of literature problematising its emergence within a neoliberal socioeconomic context is indeed surprising This book addresses this gap by offering a detailed re evaluation of the underlying motivations values and identity orientations of young political consumers in a country of the European north United Kingdom as opposed to one of the European south Greece It will be of interest to academic specialists working in the areas of Political Sociology Youth Studies and Consumer Studies and scholars interested in political participation and political engagement Lost on the Mountain Elisabeth Williams,2011-12-02 In Lost on the Mountain Laya Whisten sat and watched the life fade from her husband Cal as he was dying with scarlet fever She was left to run a 2000 acre spread called the Swinging W Ranch Shed made a solemn promise to herself when Cal died that she would never get married again and she had kept that promise for 8 years Until she met sheriff Cole Walters of Butte Montana She had risen on a cold December morning made a circle on the window pane to see out finding a menagerie of snow and ice cycles everywhere She was headed to her cabin in the mountain and knew she had to get there before nightfall She spent every winter there gather stray cattle holding them in the barn until she could bring them back down the mountain during the spring She saddled Nick her favorite horse and headed into the timber line

When she was about three miles from home the snow became heavier making it difficult to see where she was going She had heard a whimper coming from a bush near the trail She slid off her hoarse to investigate and found it to be a baby wolf The little wolf refused to let her pick him up until she had fed him several biscuits from her saddle bag They formed a bond of love which would last on through the years He protected her and found her when she was lost in a blinding snow storm in the mountains Her and the wolf pup encountered a grizzly bear on the way back to the cabin as they were coming from sheltering Nick in the barn when they first arrived During the night as she dozed in her rocking chair in front of the fireplace she awoke to a noise outside the cabin Thinking the grizzly had returned she grabbed the gun from over the fireplace and silently eased to the window She saw a silhouette of a man over the saddle of his horse Laya found a bullet lodged in his right shoulder and knew that she had to get it out She later finds out he is sheriff Cole Walters of Beatue Montana and he had been chasing the outlaw who had burned his home three years earlier with his wife and child trapped inside Both died in the fire Cole fell in love with Laya the minute he opened his eyes and saw her sitting by his bed waiting for him to regain consciousness Even stressed from her administration of taking the bullet from his shoulder she was the most beautiful person Cole had ever laid eyes on It took a long time to win Laya over and return his love but Cole refused to give up He had to have her
