The Cinema of Federico Fellini Peter Bondanella, 2021-01-12 This major artistic biography of Federico Fellini shows how his exuberant imagination has been shaped by popular culture literature and his encounter with the ideas of C G Jung especially Jungian dream interpretation Covering Fellini's entire career the book links his mature accomplishments to his first employment as a cartoonist gagman and sketch artist during the Fascist era and his development as a leading neo realist scriptwriter Peter Bondanella thoroughly explores key Fellinian themes to reveal the director's growth not only as an artistic master of the visual image but also as an astute interpreter of culture and politics Throughout the book Bondanella draws on a new archive of several dozen manuscripts obtained from Fellini and his scriptwriters These previously unexamined documents allow a comprehensive treatment of Fellini's important part in the rise of Italian neorealism and the even more decisive role that he played in the evolution of Italian cinema beyond neorealism in the 1950s By probing Fellini's recurring themes Bondanella reinterprets the visual qualities of the director's body of work and also discloses in the films a critical and intellectual vitality often hidden by Fellini's reputation as a storyteller and entertainer After two chapters on Fellini's precinematic career the book covers all the films to date in analytical chapters arranged by topic Fellini and his growth beyond his neorealist apprenticeship dreams and metacinema literature and cinema Fellini and politics Fellini and the image of women and La voce della luna and the cinema of poetry

Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff, 2007-12-29 The end of the Second World War saw the emergence of neorealist film in Italy In Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff analyses three neorealist films that have had significant influence on filmmakers around the world Wagstaff treats these films as assemblies of sounds and images rather than as representations of historical reality If Roberto Rossellini's Roma città aperta and Pais and Vittorio De Sica's Ladri di biciclette are still half a century after they were made among the most highly valued artefacts in the history of cinema Wagstaff suggests that this could be due to the aesthetic and rhetorical qualities of their assembled narratives performances locations lighting sound mise en scene and montage This volume begins by situating neorealist cinema in its historical industrial commercial and cultural context and makes available for the first time a large amount of data on post war Italian cinema Wagstaff offers a theoretical discussion of what it means to treat realist films as aesthetic artefacts before moving on to the core of the book which consists of three studies of the films under discussion Italian Neorealist Cinema not only offers readers in Film Studies and Italian Studies a radically new perspective on neorealist cinema and the Italian art cinema that followed it but theorises and applies a method of close analysis of film texts for those interested in aesthetics and rhetoric as well as cinema in general
