Lunar Legends:

The Book of Legends Anshoo Mittal, 2025-05-31 In every whisper of wind a legend begins The Book of Legends invites you into a realm where myth meets magic and every page opens a portal to the extraordinary From moonlit dances with celestial frogs to spectral wanderers who guard forgotten paths these short stories echo across mountains jungles deserts and even distant planets Travel through the cursed woods of Manali the starlit skies above Mars and the mystical shores of New Zealand where warriors are shaped by storms and legacies are passed not through fame but through firelight and heart Perfect for dreamers wanderers and lovers of timeless tales this collection reminds us that the greatest legends aren't always the ones told Sometimes they're the ones waiting to be discovered within ourselves Special Mission John E. Muller, Lionel Fanthorpe, Patricia Fanthorpe, 2014-08-28 Kerrigan was a legend of his own life time He was the kind of electric personality around whom strange stories accumulate like iron filings dancing towards a magnet When Kerrigan failed to return from a special mission in 2178 the stories grew wilder Some of his crew refused to believe he was dead others went to look for him By 2180 it was as fashionable to go to Lunar Base to look for Kerrigan as it had been fashionable to hunt monsters in Loch Ness two centuries before His brother Harry was open minded about the stories even a little sickened by the transport companies who were cashing in on Kerrigan's disappearance Then Harry met Susan Croft and his opinions of the transport companies changed a little Susan was a telepath and she believed that Kerrigan was trying to contact her Lunar however is a big empty dusty place and it was worse than looking for a needle in a haystack Then one day they saw Kerrigan or something that looked like Kerrigan
