Suzuki Seijun and Postwar Japanese Cinema William Carroll, 2022-07-05 In 1968 Suzuki Seijun a low budget genre filmmaker known for movies including Branded to Kill Tokyo Drifter and Youth of the Beast was unceremoniously fired by Nikkatsu Studios Soon to be known as the Suzuki Seijun Incident his dismissal became a cause for leftist student protestors and a burgeoning group of cinephiles to rally around His films rapidly emerged as central to debates over politics and aesthetics in Japanese cinema William Carroll offers a new account of Suzuki s career that highlights the intersections of film theory film production cinephile culture and politics in 1960s Japan Carroll places Suzuki s work between two factions that claimed him as one of their own after 1968 the New Left and its politicized theoretical practice on one hand and the apparently apolitical cinephiles and their formalist criticism on the other He considers how both of these strands of film theory shed light on the distinctive qualities of Suzuki s films and he explores how both Suzuki s works and unheralded Japanese film theorists offer new ways of understanding world cinema This book presents both a major reinterpretation of Suzuki s work which influenced directors such as John Woo Jim Jarmusch and Quentin Tarantino and a new lens on postwar Japanese film culture and industry

Suzuki Seijun and Postwar Japanese Cinema also includes a complete production history of Suzuki s filmography along with never before discussed information about his unfinished film projects
