Luther and the Stories of God Robert Kolb, 2012-03-01 Awarded the Hermann Sasse Preis by the Independent Evangelical Lutheran Church of Germany Martin Luther read and preached the biblical text as the record of God addressing real flesh and blood people and their daily lives He used stories to drive home his vision of the Christian life a life that includes struggling against temptation enduring suffering praising God in worship and prayer and serving one s neighbor in response to God s callings and commands Leading Lutheran scholar Robert Kolb highlights Luther s use of storytelling in his preaching and teaching to show how Scripture undergirded Luther s approach to spiritual formation With both depth and clarity Kolb explores how Luther retold and expanded on biblical narratives in order to cultivate the daily life of faith in Christ

Luther's Lectures on Genesis and the Formation of Evangelical Identity John A. Maxfield, 2008-10-01 Martin Luther s lectures on Genesis delivered at the University of Wittenberg during the last decade of his life and later published by his students allow modern readers to view a sixteenth century professor engaging his students with the text of scripture and using that text to form them spiritually The lectures show how Luther attempted to form in his students a new identity an Evangelical identity enabling them to make sense of the rapidly changing society and church in which they were being prepared to serve primarily as pastors in the developing territorial churches of the Reformation This study uses the text of the lectures to outline the contours of the new identity that Luther laid out through his exposition of Genesis They include how Luther approached and taught his students to perceive the text of holy scripture how that text unveiled for Luther the nature of Christian life in the world and how Luther taught his students to view the past the present and the future of the church and the world through the book of Genesis Whether in the published editions of the lectures the historic Luther was actually misunderstood or was transformed in some way into the prophetic Luther of later memory the text reveals the Luther that his students heard and subsequent generations read

Narrative Steven D. Mathewson, 2021-06-15 A veteran pastor with thirty years of experience guides readers through a ten step process to preaching Old Testament narratives from text selection to delivery The first edition received a Christianity Today award of merit and a Preaching magazine Book of the Year award This edition now updated and revised throughout for a new generation includes a new chapter on how to preach Christ from the Old Testament and an exemplary sample sermon from Mathewson Foreword by Haddon W Robinson A Companion to Paul in the Reformation R. Ward Holder, 2009 The reception and interpretation of the writings of St Paul in the early modern period forms the subject of this volume Written by experts in the field the articles offer a critical overview of current research and introduce the major themes in Pauline interpretation in the Reformation Reading the Bible with the Dead John L. Thompson, 2007-05-29 An exploration of overlooked sections of the Bible How Luther Regards Moses Miles Hopgood, 2023-06-12 Though undertreated by modern scholars Martin Luther's lectures on Deuteronomy are critical to understanding his theological development as an exegete and also the course of the Reformation in the wake of Luther's return from the Wartburg in 1522 In these lectures Luther engages deeply with Moses whom he sees as an author prophet and ruler These three ways of regarding Moses allow Luther to forge a new approach to the Mosaic law shaping his response to what he perceives as the evangelical legalism of Andreas Karlstadt and Thomas M ntzer By shedding light on these exegetical principles and connecting these lectures to surrounding events Miles Hopgood brings new clarity as to why Luther broke with Karlstadt and the nature of his dispute with M ntzer demonstrates the importance of the Hebrew Bible in shaping Luther's mature exegesis and opens the door for fresh perspectives not only on the events of 1521 1525 but Luther's entire career as interpreter of scripture Between Biblical Criticism and Poetic Rewriting Samuel Tongue, 2014-04-17 In Between Biblical Criticism and Poetic Rewriting Samuel Tongue offers an account of the aesthetic and critical tensions inherent in the development of the Higher Criticism of the Bible Different types of Bible are created through the intellectual and literary pressures of Enlightenment and Romanticism and as Tongue suggests it is this legacy that continues to orientate the approaches deemed legitimate in biblical scholarship Using a number of ancient and contemporary critical and poetic rewritings of Jacob's struggle with the angel Gen 32 22 32 Tongue makes use of postmodern theories of textual production to argue that it is the paragenesis a parasitical form of writing between disciplines that best foregrounds the complex performativity of biblical interpretation

Ancient Laws and Contemporary Controversies Cheryl Anderson, 2009-11-16 Many Christians ignore most Old Testament laws as obsolete or irrelevant Others claim to honor them but in fact pick and choose among them very selectively in support of specific agendas like opposition to homosexual rights Yet it is a basic tenet of Christian doctrine that the faith is contained in both the Old and the New Testament If the law is ignored an important aspect of the faith tradition is denied In this book Cheryl Anderson tackles this problem head on attempting to answer the question whether the laws of the Old Testament are authoritative for Christians today This question is crucial because some Christians actually believe that the New Testament

abolishes the law or that the major Protestant reformers Luther Calvin Wesley rejected the law
