Luxembourg Run:

Luxembourg International Monetary Fund, 2009-06-04 The adverse impact of the crisis on Luxembourg's growth outlook is partly mitigated by the authorities well conceived fiscal policy response The staff report for Luxembourg's 2009 Article IV Consultation highlights economic developments and policies It combines substantial fiscal stimulus including subsidies aimed at stabilizing employment with the full functioning of the automatic stabilizers All major expenditure components of GDP are likely to be adversely affected by the financial crisis waning confidence and euro area recession Cinema and the Shoah

Jean-Michel Frodon, 2010-01-08 From The Great Dictator to Schindler's List the extermination of the Jews of Europe has driven the cinema more than any other form of artistic expression to question its methods techniques and ethics It is with reference to the Shoah that a decisive part of the thought behind modern cinema has been constructed and consciously or not many of the greatest films of the past sixty years bear the mark of this event To give an account of these phenomena Cinema and the Shoah brings together filmmakers historians journalists philosophers and researchers to explore how the Shoah as a historical event implicated and mobilized the cinema by profoundly questioning its modes of recounting and storytelling of putting visions onscreen The book also includes a filmography compiled with the assistance of the Fritz Bauer Institute of Frankfurt that lists over three hundred feature length films short films and documentaries about the Shoah produced between 1945 and the present Running Times, 2006-05 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview

The Militarization of European Space Policy Thomas Hoerber, Iraklis Oikonomou, 2023-10-30 This book is focused on militarization as the nucleus of EU space policy and the interrelatedness of European security industrial competitiveness and military capabilities in the shaping of this policy The EU and key member states have increasingly joined the US China and Russia among others in regarding space assets as critical military as well as economic industrial and technological enablers This book tackles this issue by first shedding light on the military aspects of EU space policy with special emphasis on the security and defence dimensions of projects such as Galileo Copernicus Space Situational Awareness and Satellite Communication In this context contributors confront the empirical aspect of developments including the role of different institutional actors and the involvement of specific member states Further the volume analyses the discursive ideological normative and theoretical foundations of the use of space by the EU for strategic purposes drawing on the broad spectrum of European integration International Relations theory Last but not least the volume discusses initiatives outside the EU by key global space players with an emphasis on the US and transatlantic space relations All chapters maintain a solid empirical foundation in the form of geographical or issue related focus with an area specific emphasis on the EU as a whole transatlantic relations the policies of key member states such as France and Italy and core space powers such as the US China and India This book will be of much interest to students of space power security
