

The background of the image is a photograph of a mountain range at sunset. The sun is low on the right side, creating a bright orange and yellow glow that fills the sky and reflects off the mountain peaks. The mountains in the foreground are dark and silhouetted against the bright sky. A dark grey rectangular box is centered in the upper half of the image, containing the quote in white text. Below the quote, the author's name is written in white text on a small red rectangular background. At the bottom center, there is a small logo for 'quotefancy' which consists of a circular icon with a stylized 'Q' and the word 'quotefancy' next to it.

Lying Silence:

Lying and Truthfulness Stewart Clem, 2023-01-05 In this book Stewart Clem develops an account of truthfulness that is grounded in the Thomistic virtue of veracitas Unlike most contemporary Christian ethicists who narrowly focus on the permissibility of lying he turns to the virtue of truthfulness and illuminates its close relationship to the virtue of justice This approach generates a more precise taxonomy of speech acts and shows how they are grounded in specific virtues and vices Clem s study also contributes to the contemporary literature on Aquinas who is often classified alongside Augustine and Kant as holding a rigorist position on lying Meticulously researched this volume clarifies what set Aquinas s view apart in his own day and how it is relevant to our own Clem demonstrates that Aquinas s account provides a genuine alternative to rigorist and consequentialist approaches His analysis also reveals the perennial relevance of Aquinas s thought by bringing it to bear on contemporary social and ethical issues Horizontal Learning in the High Middle Ages Micol Long, Tjamke

Snijders, Steven Vanderputten, 2025-10-01 The history of medieval learning has traditionally been studied as a vertical transmission of knowledge from a master to one or several disciples Horizontal Learning in the High Middle Ages Peer to Peer Knowledge Transfer in Religious Communities centres on the ways in which cohabiting peers learned and taught one another in a dialectical process how they acquired knowledge and skills but also how they developed concepts beliefs and adapted their behaviour to suit the group everything that could mold a person into an efficient member of the community This process of horizontal learning emerges as an important aspect of the medieval learning experience Progressing beyond the view that high medieval religious communities were closed homogeneous and fairly stable social groups the essays in this volume understand communities as the product of a continuous process of education and integration of new members The authors explore how group members learned from one another and what this teaches us about learning within the context of a high medieval community The Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine ,1850 The Golden Gems of Life Smith C.

Japan Supermarket is a novel of the human drama surrounding the management of a supermarket chain at a time when the phenomenon of the supermarket imported postwar from the US was just taking hold in Japan. When Kojima, an elite banker, resigns his job to help a cousin manage Ishiei, a supermarket in one of Japan's provincial cities, a host of problems ensue. Store employees are stealing products, the books are in disarray, and the workers seem stuck in old ways of thinking. As Kojima begins to give all his time over to the relentless task of reforming the store's management, a chance encounter with a woman from his childhood causes him to ask the age-old question: is the all-encompassing pursuit of business success really worth it? Sincere and naive in tone, Supermarket takes us back to a simpler, kinder time and skillfully presents the depictions of its characters alongside a wealth of information concerning Japanese post-WWII recovery and industrialization. Private

Rites Julia Armfield, 2024-12-03 From the BELOVED AWARD WINNING author of Our Wives Under the Sea, a speculative reimagining of King Lear centering three sisters navigating queer love and loss in a drowning world. One of my FAVORITE NOVELS of the past few years. Jeff VanderMeer, NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING author of Annihilation. It's been raining for a long time now, so long that the land has reshaped itself and old rituals and religions are creeping back into practice. Sisters Isla, Irene, and Agnes have not spoken in some time when their father, an architect as cruel as he was revered, dies. His death offers an opportunity for the sisters to come together in a new way. In the grand glass house they grew up in, their father's most famous creation, the sisters sort through the secrets and memories he left behind until their fragile bond is shattered by a revelation in his will. The sisters are more estranged than ever, and their lives spin out of control. Irene's relationship is straining at the seams, Isla's ex-wife keeps calling, and cynical Agnes is falling in love for the first time. But something even more sinister might be unfolding, something related to their mother's long-ago disappearance and the strangers who have always seemed unusually interested in the sisters' lives. Soon it becomes clear that the sisters have been chosen for a very particular purpose, one with shattering implications for their family and their imperiled world.
