Reenchanting Science Anne Harrington, 2020-09-01 By the 1920s in Central Europe it had become a truism among intellectuals that natural science had disenchanted the world and in particular had reduced humans to mere mechanisms devoid of higher purpose But could a new science of wholeness heal what the old science of the machine had wrought Some contemporary scientists thought it could These years saw the spread of a new holistic science designed to nourish the heart as well as the head to reenchant even as it explained Critics since have linked this holism to a German irrationalism that is supposed to have paved the way to Nazism In a penetrating analysis of this science Anne Harrington shows that in fact the story of holism in Germany is a politically heterogeneous story with multiple endings Its alliances with Nazism were not inevitable but resulted from reorganizational processes that ultimately brought commitments to wholeness and race healing and death into a common framework Before 1933 holistic science was a uniquely authoritative voice in cultural debates on the costs of modernization It attracted not only scientists with Nazi sympathies but also moderates and leftists some of whom left enduring humanistic legacies Neither a reduction of science to its politics nor a vision in which the sociocultural environment is a backdrop to the internal work of science this story instead emphasizes how metaphor and imagery allow science to engage real phenomena of the laboratory in ways that are richly generative of human meanings and porous to the social and political imperatives of the hour The Truth Seeker ,1930
