Making Face Making Soul Haciendo Caras Creative And Critical Perspectives By Feminists Of Color:

Making Face, Making Soul Gloria Anzaldúa, 1990 A bold collection of creative pieces and theoretical essays by women of color New thought and new dialogue a book that will teach in the most multiple sense of that word a book that will be of lasting value to many diverse communities of women as well as to students from those communities The authors explore a full spectrum of present concerns in over seventy pieces that vary from writing by new talents to published pieces by Audre Lorde Joy Harjo Norma Alarcon and Trinh T Minh ha At one level or another all the work in the collection seeks to find ways to understand and articulate our multiple identities and senses of place Making Face Making Soul is an exciting collection of dynamic important writings that all women of color and white feminists will learn from enjoy and return to again and again and again Sojourner the pieces are stunning in what they risk and reveal The San Francisco Chronicle Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien, 2009 Provides timely comparative analysis from internationally known contributors

English Literature and the Other Languages , 2022-06-08 The thirty essays in English Literature and the Other Languages trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis This collection studies multilingualism from the Reformation onwards when Latin was an alternative to the emerging vernacular of the Anglican nation the eighteenth century confrontation between English and the languages of the colonies the process whereby the standard British English of the colonizer has lost ground to independent englishes American Canadian Indian Caribbean Nigerian or New Zealand English that now consider the original standard British English as the other languages the interaction between English and a range of British language varieties including Welsh Irish and Scots the Lancashire and Dorset dialects as well as working class idiom Chicano literature translation and self translation Ezra Pound s revitalization of English in the Cantos and the psychogrammar and comic dialogics in Joyce s Ulysses As Norman Blake puts it in his Afterword to English Literature and the Other Languages There has been no volume such as this which tries to take stock of the whole area and to put multilingualism in literature on the map It is a subject which has been neglected for too long and this volume is to be welcomed for its brave attempt to fill this lacuna Feminist Phenomenology Futures Helen A. Fielding, Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2017-06-16 Distinguished feminist philosophers consider the future of their field and chart its political and ethical course in this forward looking volume Engaging with themes such as the historical trajectory of feminist phenomenology ways of perceiving and making sense of the contemporary world and the feminist body in health and ethics these essays affirm the base of the discipline as well as open new theoretical spaces for work that bridges bioethics social identity physical ability and the very nature and boundaries of the female body Entanglements with thinkers such as Heidegger Merleau Ponty Beauvoir and Arendt are evident and reveal new directions for productive philosophical work Grounded in the richness of the feminist philosophical tradition this work represents a significant opening to the possible futures of feminist phenomenological research Putting Ideas to Work Mark Mattern,2006-07-08 In this innovative new text Mark Mattern offers a unique alternative to the traditional approaches to the study and teaching of political philosophy Rather than approaching it solely as a world of abstractions Putting Ideas to Work emphasizes its practical task Political ideas drawn from historical and analytical political philosophy are used to help rethink current public problems and imagine potential solutions to them Putting Ideas to Work is organized around five central tensions in political theory and practice individual and community freedom and equality justice and political order democracy and capitalism and power and citizenship Each section begins with a description and analysis of several contemporary public problems arising from these tensions Key political thinkers are then drawn upon to help understand the genesis of the public problems and to offer alternative ways of thinking about them The text is anchored throughout to an idea of strong democracy that functions as a standard against which theory and practice are measured Multiple and Intersecting Identities in Qualitative Research Betty Merchant,Arlette Ingram Willis,2000-11 Extends the current discourse on the role of cultural knowledge in qualitative research especially research conducted by women of color w in their own community Challenges existing paradigms by questioning the assumption of objectivity in research Intersectionality and Beyond Emily Grabham,Davina Cooper,Jane Krishnadas,Didi Herman,2008-08-21 This collection addresses the present and the future of the concept of intersectionality within socio legal studies Including contributions from a range of international scholars this book interrogates what has become a key organizing concept across a range of disciplines most particularly law political theory and cultural studies Women's Studies on Its Own Robyn Wiegman,2002-11-13 The future of a retheorized women s studies in an increasingly institutionalized context Adult Education and Difference ,2024-02-12 The world ecological system is marked by difference throughout There is social difference with different identities shifting and transmuting being forged and extra human differences All these have implications for intra human and human non human earth relations This aspect is not always recognised and valorised Education though not an independent variable still can be mobilised together with other sources of potential transformation to redress this situation marked by aggressions micro and macro inertia and indifference It represents a number of immediate challenges for Adult Education This compendium is intended as a useful resource in this regard It maps out a kaleidoscope of myriad differences and suggests options for overcoming the various obstacles that stand opposed to those who seek fulfilment in the way they are discursively located The obstacles are a dent on efforts to living in communion with the rest of the cosmos The utopian view is that of different species living in harmony with each other This book emphasises social ecological justice intersectionality and relationality as the targets for Adult Education in this relatively still new millennium Contributors are Sharifah Salmah Binti Abdullah Thi Bogossian Lauren Bouttell Lidianne Nunes de Castro Anyela Nathalie Gomez Deantonio Preeti Dagar Raquel Galeano Giminez Ksenija Joksimovi Kainat Khurshid Robert Livingston Peter Mayo Sonia Medel Yunah Park Zainab Sa id Sa ad Bonnie Slade Gameli Kodzo

Tordzro Agnieszka Uflewski and Aisara Yessenova Identity Poetics Linda Garber, 2001-10-17 Queer theory asserts Linda Garber alternately buries and vilifies lesbian feminism missing its valuable insights and ignoring its rich contributions Rejecting the either/or choice between lesbianism and queer theory she favors an inclusive approach that defies current factionalism In an eloquent challenge to the privileging of queer theory in the academy Garber calls for recognition of the historical and intellectually significant role of lesbian poets as theorists of lesbian identity and activism The connections Garber shows are most clearly seen when looking at the pivotal work of working class lesbians lesbians of color whose articulations of multiple simultaneous identity positions and activist politics both belong to lesbian feminism and presage queer theory Identity Poetics includes a critical overview of recent historical writing about the women's and lesbian feminist movements of the 1970s discussions of the works of Judy Grahn Pat Parker Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich and Gloria Anzaldúa and finally a chapter on the rise and hegemony of queer theory within lesbian/gay studies
