The Evolution of the Portuguese Atlantic: Essays in Honour of Ursula Lamb Timothy J. Coates, 2009-09-30 This special issue volume of the Portuguese Studies Review in honor of Ursula Lamb 1914 1996 presents studies by Timothy Coates A J R Russell Wood Ivana Elbl Alberto Vieira Martin Malcolm Elbl Gerardo A Lorenzino C sar Braga Pinto Geraldo Pieroni Jana na Amado Mark Cooper Emerson Ernst Pijning and Kirsten Shultz The studies explore the themes of settlement colonization ethnogenesis banishment and exile the intellectual and political construction of colonial identities cross cultural urbanism and regulation of commerce The volume also includes a bibliography of Ursula Lamb s works Emigration and the Sea Malyn Newitt, 2015-01-07 Noted historian of the Lusophone world Malyn Newitt offers an expansive account of how exploration imperialism and migration shaped the Portuguese and their global diaspora Portuguese Jews and New Christians in Colonial Brazil, 1500-1822 Alan P. Marcus, 2024-11-15 The diaspora of Portuguese Jews and New Christians known as Gente da Na o People of the Nation is considered the largest European diaspora of the early modern period Portuguese Jews not only founded the first congregations and synagogues in Brazil Recife and Olinda but when they left Brazil they played an imperative role in establishing the first Jewish communities in Suriname throughout the Caribbean and in North America Portuguese Jews and New Christians and their descendants were deeply involved in the colonial enterprise in Brazil They were among the New World s first sugarcane industry experts skilled laborers merchants rabbis calligraphists playwrights poets writers pharmacists medical doctors real estate brokers and geographers a fact that remains largely unknown in most public and academic spheres Drawing on nearly twenty thousand digitized dossiers of the Portuguese Inquisition this volume offers a comprehensive critical overview informed by both relatively inaccessible secondary sources and a significant body of primary sources The Making of Brazil Norman Pemberton Macdonald, 1996 1996 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors China Goes to Sea Andrew S. Erickson, Lyle J Goldstein, Carnes Lord, 2009-07-01 In modern history China has been primarily a land power dominating smaller states along its massive continental flanks But China s turn toward the sea is now very much a reality as evident in its stunning rise in global shipbuilding markets its vast and expanding merchant marine the wide offshore reach of its energy and minerals exploration companies its growing fishing fleet and indeed its increasingly modern navy Yet for all these achievements there is still profound skepticism regarding China s potential as a genuine maritime power Beijing must still import the most vital subcomponents for its shipyards maritime governance remains severely bureaucratically challenged and the navy evinces at least as of yet little enthusiasm for significant blue water power projection capabilities This volume provides a truly comprehensive assessment of prospects for China's maritime development by situating these important geostrategic phenomena within a larger world historical context China is hardly the only land power in history to attempt transformation by fostering sea power Many continental powers have elected or been impelled to transform themselves into significant maritime powers in order to safeguard their strategic position or advance their interests We examine cases of attempted transformation from the Persian Empire to the Soviet Union and determine the reasons for their success or failure Too many works on China view the nation in isolation Of course China's history and culture are to some extent exceptional but building intellectual fences actually hinders the effort to understand China's current development trajectory Without underestimating the enduring pull of China's past as it relates to threats to the country's internal stability and its landward borders this comparative study provides reason to believe that China has turned the corner on a genuine maritime transformation If that proves indeed to be the case it would be a remarkable if not singular event in the history of the last two millennia

Crass Struggle R. T. Naylor, 2013 An original and cutting commentary on the bad side of the good life

Brazil Michael Reid, 2014-06-10 Experts believe that Brazil the world's fifth largest country and its seventh largest economy will be one of the most important global powers by the year 2030 Yet far more attention has been paid to the other rising behemoths Russia India and China Often ignored and underappreciated Brazil according to renowned award winning journalist Michael Reid has finally begun to live up to its potential but faces important challenges before it becomes a nation of substantial global significance After decades of military rule the fourth most populous democracy enjoyed effective reformist leadership that tamed inflation opened the country up to trade and addressed poverty and other social issues enabling Brazil to become more of an essential participant in global affairs But as it prepares to host the 2014 soccer World Cup and 2016 Olympics Brazil has been rocked by mass protest This insightful volume considers the nation's still abundant problems an inefficient state widespread corruption dysfunctional politics and violent crime in its cities alongside its achievements to provide a fully rounded portrait of a vibrant country about to take a commanding position on the world stage
