A Century of Revolution John Foran, 1994 Provides insight into the political currents that led to the Iranian revolution Before late 1978 Iran did not occupy a large place in the public mind mass media or academic pursuits With the massive upheaval of the next few months all this changed and the world is still trying to catch up with the dramatic events that brought Iran to its attention This volume offers a much needed look into the historical social and political developments leading up to the Iranian revolution Bringing together a group of scholars historians and social scientists most of them Iranian in origin the book documents an extraordinary revolutionary heritage that predates this century Each contributor examines a critical moment in Iranian social history on its own terms as well as within a larger theoretical and comparative context The topics they take up include the Tobacco Rebellion of 1890-91 the Constitutional Revolution of 1905-11 the rise of Reza Khan between 1921 and 1925 the autonomy movement in Azerbaijan and Kurdistan after World War II the oil nationalization movement under Musaddiq between 1951 and 1953 the unrest of the 1960-63 period the Iranian revolution of 1977-79 the state of Iran since the revolution Throughout common themes emerge especially the heterogeneous bases of Iranian social movements with respect to class gender and ethnicity as well as the diverse discourses nationalist Islamic socialist populist and radical that have animated these movements Representing a wide variety of perspectives and approaches this volume provides crucial insight into the widely watched but poorly understood phenomenon of present day

Iran Contributors Janet Afary Purdue University John Foran University of California Santa Barbara Amir Hassanpour Uppsala University Mansoor Moaddel Eastern Michigan University Val Moghadam United Nations University Misgah Parsa Dartmouth College Sussan Siavoshi Trinity University Michael Zirinsky Boise State University Censorship of Literature in Post-Revolutionary Iran Alireza Abiz, 2020-12-10 Censorship pervades all aspects of political social and cultural life in the Islamic Republic of Iran Faced with strict state control of cultural output Iranian authors and writers have had to adapt their work to avoid falling foul of the censors In this pioneering study Alireza Abiz offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of how censorship and the political order of Iran have influenced contemporary Persian literature both in terms of content and tone As censorship is unrecorded and not officially acknowledged in Iran the author has examined newspaper records and conducted first hand interviews with Iranian poets and writers looking into the ways in which poets and writers attempt to subvert the codes of censorship by using symbolism and figurative language to hide their more controversial messages A ground breaking analysis this book will be vital reading for anyone interested in contemporary cultural politics and literature in Iran

The Last Shah Ray Takeyh, 2021-01-26 The surprising story of Iran's transformation from America's ally in the Middle East into one of its staunchest adversaries An original interpretation that puts Iranian actors where they belong at center stage Michael Doran Wall Street Journal An extraordinary account Deeply nuanced and eloquent Benjamin Weinthal Jerusalem Post Offering a new view of one of America's most important infamously strained and widely misunderstood relationships of the postwar era this book tells the history of America and Iran from the time the last shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi was placed on the throne in 1941 to the 1979 revolution that brought the present Islamist government to power This revolution was not as many believe the popular overthrow of a powerful and ruthless puppet of the United States rather it followed decades of corrosion of Iran's political establishment by an autocratic ruler who demanded fealty but lacked the personal strength to make hard decisions and ultimately lost the support of every sector of Iranian society Esteemed Middle East scholar Ray Takeyh provides new interpretations of many key events including the 1953 coup against Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadeq and the rise of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini significantly revising our understanding of America and Iran's complex and difficult history

Islam: Islam, gender and family Bryan S. Turner, 2003 The Shah of Iran, the Iraqi Kurds, and the Lebanese Shia Arash Reisinezhad, 2018-07-06 This book sheds new light on the emergence and fluctuation of Iran's connections with non state entities in the Middle East Iran's involvement with political militant non states has been at the heart of international and regional security policy for more than three decades The author analyzes Iran's non state foreign policy by focusing on specific geopolitical and geocultural threats and opportunities that pushed Tehran to build strategic ties with the Iraqi Kurds and the Lebanese Shia This project will appeal to multiple audiences interested in geopolitics of the Middle East Iran's foreign policy and international relations The Fall of Heaven Andrew Scott Cooper, 2016-08-02 About the rise and fall of Iran's glamorous Pahlavi dynasty Traces the Shah's life from childhood through his ascension to the throne in 1941 Readers get the story of the Shah's political career alongside the story of his courtship and marriage to Farah Diba and an exclusive look at life inside the palace during the Iranian Revolution In the Shadow of Mistrust Mahmood Monshipouri, 2022-07-15 Since the 1979 Iranian Revolution the normalisation of relations between Iran and America has appeared unrealistic if not inconceivable given that the Iranian state has vigorously pursued an anti American ideology This account of US Iranian relations examines the efficacy of external pressure such as sanctions as well as domestic grassroots reform movements within the Islamic Republic The Obama presidency marked a rare high point in the Washington Tehran relationship as negotiations between the two countries and other powers produced an unprecedented nuclear deal the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action However the Trump administration's unilateral withdrawal from the JCPOA and re imposition of new sanctions in pursuit of maximum pressure had devastating economic consequences undermining the Iranian middle class which has consistently been the voice of political moderation and supported Iran's integration into the global economy Crucially sanctions have also driven Iran further into the arms of China while rendering it an even more recalcitrant and aggressive adversary Monshipouri's central conviction is that negotiations are pivotal to dismantling the mistrust that has long characterised US Iranian relations and to seeking détente between Iran and its Arab neighbours a critical priority since gradual US withdrawal from the region is all but certain
