Making Of A Bad Man:

The life and death of mr. Badman John Bunyan,1808 The Works of Saint Augustine: v. 1. Sermons on the Old Testament, 20-50 Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1990 How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser,2023-08-22 This book that shows how ancient poets broke the silence of literary gender norms to express their own voices and thus illuminating long neglected discussions of gender in the ancient world In How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser provides a startling new history of classical literature that redefines the canon as a constant struggle to be heard through and sometimes despite gender By bringing together recent studies in ancient authorship gender and performativity Hauser offers gendered lens to issues of voice and identity in classical literature and poetry What emerges from this is a new literary history that reframes the authors of classical literature as both enforcing and exploring gender and shows for the first time how women broke the silence of gender norms around literary production to express their own voices By revisiting traditional assumptions about the canon of Greek literature and highlighting the articulated construction of masculinity in Greek poetic texts the book places ancient women poets back onto center stage as principal actors in the drama of the debate around what it means to create poetry Much of the importance of this work is adding in female authors to the history of Greek literature both well known and marginal while demonstrating how the idea of the author was born in the battleground of gender A Companion for the Festivals and Fasts of the Church of England Robert Nelson,1795 Literary Anecdotes of the Eighteenth Century John Nichols,2014-08-28 This nine volume work published 1812 15 provides biographical notes on publishers writers and artists of the eighteenth century Literary Anecdotes of the Eighteenth Century: Essays and illustrations [including: On the first printed polyglotts; Of public news and weekly papers; History of the origin of pamphlets] John Nichols,1812 St. Augustine on St. John: Tractates, Homilies and Sermons on St. John's Gospel and First Epistle St. Augustine of Hippo Fr. Nelson* Robert NELSON (F.R.S.),1736 The Beginning and End of Rape Sarah Deer,2015-11-01 Winner of the Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award Despite what major media sources say violence against Native women is not an epidemic An epidemic is biological and blameless Violence against Native women is historical and political bounded by oppression and colonial violence This book like all of Sarah Deer s work is aimed at engaging the problem head on and ending it The Beginning and End of Rape collects and expands the powerful writings in which Deer who played a crucial role in the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act in 2013 has advocated for cultural and legal reforms to protect Native women from endemic sexual violence and abuse Deer provides a clear historical overview of rape and sex trafficking in North America paying particular attention to the gendered legacy of colonialism in tribal nations a truth largely overlooked or minimized by Native and non Native observers She faces this legacy directly articulating strategies for Native communities and tribal nations seeking redress In a damning critique of federal law that has accommodated rape by destroying tribal legal systems she describes how tribal self determination efforts of the twenty first century can be leveraged to eradicate violence against women Her work bridges the gap between Indian law and feminist thinking by explaining how intersectional approaches are vital to addressing the rape of Native women Grounded in historical cultural and legal realities both Native and non Native these essays point to the possibility of actual and positive change in a world where Native women are systematically undervalued left unprotected and hurt Deer draws on her extensive experiences in advocacy and activism to present specific practical recommendations and plans of action for making the world safer for all

Forty-Nine Truths and the Pentecost John D. Richie, 2000-08-21 This work results from years of studying God's Word and observation of the current trends in Christianity The problem with Christianity today is that it has forgotten that the battle is not with those without but with the foolishness sin and unbelief in the believer The forty nine truths contained herein appear to be the most neglected in this age Considering that God's Word is not open to personal interpretation each Scripture quotation is left to individual understanding through the visitation of the Holy Spirit Although some explanation is given my intent is to guide the reader toward understanding and not to impose upon them my own understanding It is perhaps ironic that many Christians professing Jesus to be their Lord and Master may spend eternity in a place they would not desire God's Word states that a follower of Jesus that does not keep his sayings will not inherit the kingdom of heaven The truths discussed herein are the sayings of Jesus not mine The Pentecost follows these forty nine truths It is a day that is in the future It will be a happy day for many but the road thereto is troubled with much tribulation
