The Making of Theatre History Paul Kuritz, 1988 Representing the Past Charlotte M. Canning, Thomas Postlewait, 2010-04-15 Representing the Past is required reading for any serious scholar of theatre and performance historiography original in its conception global in its reach thought provoking and transformative in its effects Gay Gibson Cima author Early American Women Critics Performance Religion Race The Making of the West End Stage Jacky Bratton, 2011-10-13 All roads lead to London and to the West End theatre This book presents a new history of the beginnings of the modern world of London entertainment Putting female centred gender challenging managements and styles at the centre it redraws the map of performance history in the Victorian capital of the world Bratton argues for the importance in Victorian culture of venues like the little Strand Theatre and the Gallery of Illustration in Regent Street in the experience of mid century London and of plays drawn from the work of Charles Dickens as well as burlesques by the early writers of Punch Discovering a much more dynamic and often woman led entertainment industry at the heart of the British Empire this book seeks a new understanding of the work of women including Eliza Vestris Mary Ann Keeley and Marie Wilton in creating the template for a magical new theatre of music feeling and spectacle Playwriting Effiong Johnson, 2011-02-16 Summary The Nigerian theatre milieu is trapped in a cobweb of strangulating strings Little wonder therefore that its growth has been impaired over the years The numerous multi tribal thrusts in Nigeria disallow the full growth and development of theatre forms and trends The university and other degree awarding institutions engaged in theatre studies have not carved out uniquely distinguishing styles that can be said to be theirs The Nigerian theatre makers themselves are not style driven and technique creating An ideal repertory of form can hardly be identified with them in a sustainable manner The National Theatre set up as a symbol of the nation s cultural pride now stands as a totem for the nation s creative shame The state owned Cultural Centre Boards are devoid of objectives in focused cultural promotions Many graduates of the arts prefer other creative businesses A few die hards are bedeviled by frustrating dilemmas as businessmen refuse to patronise theatre because they consider it a wasteful venture while international agencies shun it because of its profit making outlook

Dramaturgy to Make Visible Peter Eckersall, 2024-06-14 This book argues that dramaturgy makes things visible and does so in two distinct and interrelating ways creative processes and formal elements of performance are rendered visible and readable and performance dramaturgy becomes an expanded practice in which performance is a locus for creating wide ranging events and activities This exploration defines dramaturgy as a perceptibly transforming agency in the construction presentation and reception of contemporary performance and it shows how contemporary performance has an intrinsic dramaturgical aspect whose proliferation of dramaturgical practices has led to a far reaching reinvention of what contemporary theatre is In doing so this book deals with a careful selection of performance practices including theatrical adaptations new media dramaturgy contemporary dance installation performance postdramatic theatre visionary works by auteurs and revivals of well known stage shows This study will be of great interest to students and scholars in theater studies performance studies cultural studies curating and dance scholarship Music at Michigan ,1988 Theatre and Drama in the Making John Gassner,Ralph G.
