Ventker, 2006-08 There are close to one hundred million single adults living in the United States. Of those approximately thirty five million will look at online dating sites this year alone. Internet Dates from Hell provides the ins and outs of Internet dating from one woman's experiences ranging from funny to scary to downright shocking. Internet Dates from Hell is not only a guide, it is also a seven year journey through author Trisha Ventker's dating life as a single kindergarten teacher who relocated from the suburbs to New York City to find her soul mate. Fielding over four hundred responses on a given day and receiving more than fifty two thousand hits on her personal ad in an eight month span, Ventker shares her frightening but true dating encounters in the wonderful world of online dating. Follow Ventker through the trials and tribulations of her quest to find Mr. Right. Along the path, Trisha Ventker endures hundreds of first dates. Encounters include a conspiracy theorist living in the United Kingdom, a religious fanatic from Texas, a sadomasochistic psychiatrist, and even a pre-op transsexual. To name a few. Ventker's brutally honest memoir lets you step inside her shoes and experience her exciting journey firsthand.

Age Is Just a Number: Adventures in Online Dating D. S. White, 2006 D. S. White brings us a nicely woven collection of articles on the blogosphere, relationships, holidays, reviews, and recommendations on online dating sites for African Americans, and last but not least, the first six episodes of the serial memoir Age is Just a Number. Age is just a number. Is it really that simple? Divine's journey of self-discovery is an often humorous, sometimes unbelievable, and at times achingly sad recounting of her shellshock upon reentering the world of dating after a fourteen year absence. On the journey, she discovers online dating, Web sites, IM, and chat rooms. In her journal, she reveals her bewilderment as she tries to navigate the new dating rules that allow twenty year olds to feel emboldened enough to approach thirty seven year olds with the line age is just a number.

The Dating Divide Celeste Vaughan Curington,Jennifer Hickes Lundquist,Ken-Hou Lin,2021-02-09 The data behind a distinct form of racism in online dating The Dating Divide is the first comprehensive look at digital sexual racism a distinct form of racism that is mediated and amplified through the impersonal and anonymous context of online dating Drawing on large scale behavioral data from a mainstream dating website extensive archival research and more than seventy five in depth interviews with daters of diverse racial backgrounds and sexual identities Curington Lundquist and Lin illustrate how the seemingly open space of the internet interacts with the loss of social inhibition in cyberspace contexts fostering openly expressed forms of sexual racism that are rarely exposed in face to face encounters The Dating Divide is a fascinating look at how a contemporary conflux of individualization consumerism and the proliferation of digital technologies has given rise to a unique form of gendered racism in the era of swiping right or left The internet is often heralded as an equalizer a seemingly level playing field but the digital world also acts as an extension of and platform for the insidious prejudices and divisive impulses that affect social politics in the real world Shedding light on how every click swipe or message can be linked to the history of racism and courtship in the United States this compelling study uses data to show the racial biases at play in digital dating spaces
