Night Voices Heard In The Shadow Of Hitler And Stalin:

Night Voices Heather Laskey, 2003-11-14 It is the story of Poland in the years leading up to the war the horrors Polish Jews faced during the Nazi occupation the brief period of hope when they believed they were building a better society and their gradual disillusionment as state sponsored corruption brutality Stalinist paranoia and anti-Semitism developed The story is told through the memories of four people Stasia Alapin Rubilowicz her husband Mietek Rubilowicz her son Peter Alapin and her friend Alina Life in Poland before and during the war is seen primarily through Stasia's eyes who evokes her youth in an affluent family largely assimilated into Polish society This life was shattered forever in her early adulthood when the Nazis invaded bringing death and destruction to Poland and to Polish Jews in particular She recounts the anguish of life in the Warsaw Ghetto her escape from it her survival on the run her betrayal to the Gestapo by a woman who had known her at school and her rescue from prison by Christian Polish friends at the risk of their lives In the second half of the book we are introduced to Mietek and her friend Alina who describe their experiences in Poland during and after the war and their hopes that communism would rid the country of bigotry injustice and want But as old hatreds now supported by a perverted catechism of socialist dogma reawakened anti-Semitism they became increasingly disillusioned ultimately deciding they had no recourse but to leave Poland and start a new life elsewhere By 1968 the Polish communist leadership through a campaign of intimidation and harassment had succeeded in ridding Poland of virtually all its surviving Jews Night Voices is a testimony both to the strength of the human spirit and to our capacity for self-delusion

Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine

Maureen Flaherty, 2012-08-09 Twenty years post independence Ukraine remains split still floundering toward viable democracy Active participation in civic affairs required for democracy is unfamiliar for most Ukrainian citizens having internalized centuries of divisive oppression under a series of authoritarian regimes Democracy building and peace building require participant agency and voice rising out of oppression people often need support to speak about and transform their lived experiences Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Using Narrative to Envision a Common Future by Maureen P Flaherty explores the roles women's shared narrative dialogue and group visioning play in the support of personal empowerment and bridge building between diverse communities Despite participants' initial beliefs that their regional counterparts shared little in common with them in the process of telling their personal life stories women were able to reflect upon their own values and strengths and with this rooting they were then able to reach out to others Rather than looking for differences participants sought ways to express a shared vision for an inclusive functional peace building future for themselves their families and Ukraine as a whole Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine is a model for emancipatory social action and social change while the women's stories offer a window into the formative years and present day lives of eighteen women born and raised in the Soviet Union This study is a unique contribution to peace studies and to the history and building of a country that has most often had its history written for it
