Night And Day The Double Lives Of Artists In America:

Night and Day Gloria Klaiman, 2001 In this collection of interviews artists from various disciplines and in various stages of their careers discuss how they balance their art with the practical aspects of earning a living They explore how this dichotomy which affects them creatively financially spiritually and professionally can be both frustrating and nourishing Some artists have managed to find art related work to make ends meet Others contemplate their dual role in both the artistic community and in the corporate or academic world They discuss the role art plays in influencing social change and the role technology has played in revolutionizing the creation of art and its marketing and distribution These insights into how artists merge their creative life with their financial obligations will be useful to both instructors and students in the arts Topics such as how artists have managed to acquire flexible work schedules and educational leave will also appeal to professional artists looking for employment suggestions or alternatives Representative artists include painters writers musicians dancers actors and performance artists

Restless Ambition Cathy Curtis (Writer on art), 2015 The first biography of Grace Hartigan 1922 2008 traces her rise from self taught painter to art world fame in New York her plunge into obscurity after moving to Baltimore her constant efforts at artistic reinvention and her tumultuous personal life including four troubled marriages and a chilly relationship with her only child

Writing Out of Limbo Nina Sichel, Elaine Neil Orr, Faith Eidse, 2011-09-22 Crossing borders and boundaries countries and cultures they are the children of the military diplomatic corps international business education and missions communities They are called Third Culture Kids or Global Nomads and the many benefits of their lifestyle expanded worldview multiplicity of languages tolerance for difference are often mitigated by recurring losses of relationships of stability of permanent roots They are part of an accelerating demographic that is only recently coming into visibility In this groundbreaking collection writers from around the world address issues of language acquisition and identity formation childhood mobility and adaptation memory and grief and the artist's struggle to articulate the experience of growing up global And woven like a thread through the entire collection runs the individual's search for belonging and a place called home This book provides a major leap in understanding what it's like to grow up among worlds It is invaluable reading for the new global age

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000 Bibliographic Index, 2001 Russian Culture and Theatrical Performance in America, 1891-1933 V. Hohman, 2011-08-29 Examining the work of impresarios financiers and the press as well as the artists themselves Hohman demonstrates how a variety of Russian theatrical styles were introduced and incorporated into American theatre and dance during the beginning of the twentieth century

Diva Benjamin Halligan, Shara Rambarran, Nicole Hodges Persley, Kirsty Fairclough, 2023-09-07 The diva a central figure in the landscape of contemporary popular culture gossip generating scandal courting paparazzi stalked And yet the diva is at the epicentre of creative endeavours that resonate with contemporary feminist ideas kick back against diminished social expectations boldly call out casual sexism and industry misogyny and in terms of hip hop explores intersectional oppressions and unabashedly celebrates non white cultural heritages Diva beats and grooves echo across culture and politics in the West from the borough to the White House from arena concerts to nightclubs from social media to social activism from MeToo to Black Lives Matter Diva Feminism and Fierceness from Pop to Hip Hop addresses the diva phenomenon and its origins its identity politics and LGBTQ components its creativity and interventions in areas of popular culture music and beyond its saints and sinners and controversies old and new and its oppositions to and recuperations by the establishment and its shifts from third to fourth waves of feminism This co edited collection brings together an international array of writers from new voices to established names The collection scopes the rise to power of the diva looking to Mariah Carey Whitney Houston Dolly Parton Grace Jones and Aaliyah then turns to contemporary diva figures and their work with Beyoncé Amuro Namie Janelle Mon e Cardi B Megan Thee Stallion Shakira Jennifer Lopez and Nicki Minaj and concludes by considering the presence of the diva in wider cultures in terms of gallery curation theatre productions and stand up comedy The Double

Life of Cora Parry Angela McAllister, 2011-02-03 Abandoned to the workhouse after the death of her guardians Cora Parry refuses to accept her fate Under the tuition of persuasive street rat Fletch Cora finds herself reluctantly drawn deep into the Victorian underworld As she is gradually seduced into a life of crime Cora creates a persona for herself Carrie allowing her to separate her uneasy conscience from her actions But soon things are spiralling out of control Carrie is committing acts of crime that Cora knows she can't possibly have done Where does Carrie end and Cora begin Who is really in control and where will it end An atmospheric page turner from a talented storyteller Art School Steven Henry Madoff, 2009-09-11

Leading international artists and art educators consider the challenges of art education in today's dramatically changed art world The last explosive change in art education came nearly a century ago when the German Bauhaus was formed Today dramatic changes in the art world its increasing professionalization the pervasive power of the art market and fundamental shifts in art making itself in our post Duchampian era combined with a revolution in information technology raise fundamental questions about the education of today's artists Art School Propositions for the 21st Century brings together more than thirty leading international artists and art educators to reconsider the practices of art education in academic practical ethical and philosophical terms The essays in the book range over continents histories traditions experiments and fantasies of education Accompanying the essays are conversations with such prominent artist educators as John Baldessari Michael Craig Martin Hans Haacke and Marina Abramovic as well as questionnaire responses from a dozen important artists among them Mike Kelley Ann Hamilton Guillermo Kuitca and Shirin Neshat about their own experiences as students A fascinating analysis of the architecture of major historical art schools throughout the world looks at the relationship of the principles of their designs to the principles of the pedagogy practiced within their halls And throughout the volume attention is paid to new initiatives and proposals about what an art school can and should be in the twenty first century and what it shouldn't be No other book on the subject covers more of the questions concerning art education today or offers more insight
