Nineteenth Century French Fiction Writers Romanticism And Realism 1800 1860:

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don't know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English. And even if we don't read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis. So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present. It is also a particularly rich literature espousing every genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains. Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes. The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output. And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next. The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English.

Historical Dictionary of Romanticism in Literature Paul Varner, 2014-11-18 The Historical Dictionary of Romanticism in Literature provides a large overview of the Romantic Movement that seemed at the time to have swept across Europe from Russia to Germany and France to Britain and across the Atlantic to the United States. The Romantics saw themselves as inaugurating a new era. They frequently referred to themselves or their contemporaries as Romantics and their art as Romantic. From the early stirrings in Germany to the last decade of the eighteenth century in England with the political radicals and the Lake Poets to the Transcendental Club in Massachusetts the leaders of the age acknowledged their new Romantic attitudes. This volume takes a close and comprehensive look at romanticism in literature through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on the writers and the poems novels short stories and essays plays and other works they produced the leading trends techniques journals and literary circles and the spirit of the times are also covered. This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more romanticism in literature.

Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century. The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism.

Aesthetics of Fraudulence in Nineteenth-Century France Scott Carpenter, 2016-03-16 In his engagingly written and original book Scott Carpenter analyzes multiple manifestations of the false in nineteenth century France. Under Carpenter's thorough and systematic analysis fraudulence emerges as a cultural preoccupation in nineteenth century literature and society whether it be in the form of literary mystifications the thematic portrayal of frauds or the privileging of falseness as an aesthetic principle Focusing particularly on the aesthetics of fraudulence in works by M rim e Balzac Baudelaire Vidocq Sand and others Carpenter places these literary representations within the context of other cultural phenomena such as caricature political history and ceremonial events As he highlights the special relationship between literary fiction and fraudulence Carpenter argues that falseness arises as an aesthetic preoccupation in post revolutionary France where it introduces a blurring of limits between hitherto discrete categories This transgression of boundaries challenges notions of authenticity and sincerity categories that Romantic aesthetics championed at the beginning of the nineteenth century in France Carpenter s study makes an important contribution to the cultural significance of mystification in nineteenth century France and furthers our understanding of French literature and cultural history
