The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers      Social Sciences and Philology Andreas Sofroniou, 2015-07 This tome consists of three books which deal with Social Sciences Philology and their various branches pertaining to the study of human society and social relationships The disciplines encompassed are anthropology demography economics geography political science psychology sociology philology epistemology and philosophy In the case of philology the book includes the literary contributions of the main European countries from the ancient times through to the current geographical and political divisions The countries included in the write up are Portugal Spain France Britain Germany Italy and Greece Also included in this write up are the subjects of history education and law as these disciplines are regarded by many as social sciences      Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading      Mapping Experience in Polish and Russian Women's Writing Urszula Chowaniec, 2010-09-13 The volume encompasses eleven articles which discuss the critical views that Polish and Russian women writers have articulated with regard to the notion of experience and constructions of femininity in the national imagination from the 19th to the 21st centuries Major themes of the articles include women's experiences as writers in the 19th century women's embodied experiences of a traumatic past body and sexuality in the different ages of women political and aesthetic discourses and femininity Although the articles are arranged in chronological order they do not form an absolute chronological or periodic continuum i.e. from Romanticism to Postmodernism although references to certain aesthetic periods are made The authors of the articles reflect in detail on how the women writers and their literary texts represent different understandings and experiences in relation to dominant perceptions for example of the memory of war of motherhood of art and aesthetics and so on Readers are encouraged to seek parallels and continuities between the different historical times and spaces between women's writing in Russia and Poland between different scholarly approaches and aims The articles of this volume bring together important critical standpoints in women's writing in Poland and Russia in which parallels continuities and resemblances can be traced but in which discontinuities breaks and differences also make themselves visible Apart from the conspicuous resemblances between individual Russian and Polish women writers works or even between groups of women writers the articles document the diversity within Russian and Polish women's writing respectively and even within individual writers

THREE MILLENNIA OF HELLENIC PHILOLOGY Andreas Sofroniou, 2013-07-22 THREE MILLENNIA OF HELLENIC PHILOLOGY This book describes the Greek Philology and its associated subjects of literature linguistic and other arts It explains the Hellenic era of three millennia of Philology as part of all other human activities reflecting the ancient classical ecclesiastical medieval and modern concepts including the current social and economic conditions Furthermore it elaborates on the philological class stratification as it appears in life among the primitive civilisations and modern European literature Additionally the book explains the class distinction in philology literature linguistics comedies opera ballads and dramas of ancient and modern times It gives details of the historical and comparative philological terms as used in linguistics studies the ways in which specific languages have developed and the ways in which languages in general can change

Conversations in Exile John Glad, 1993 An entire generation of Russian writers have been living in exile from their homeland Although today's glasnost has special meaning for many of these banished writers it does not dissolve their experience of forced separation from their country of origin In Conversations in Exile John Glad brings together interviews with fourteen prominent Russian writers in exile all of whom currently live in the United States France or Germany Conducted between 1978 and 1989 these frank and captivating interviews provide a rich and complex portrait of a national literature in exile Glad's introduction situates the three distinct waves of westward emigration in their historical and political framework Organized by genre the book begins with discussions with the older generation of writers and then moves on to more recent arrivals the makers of fantasy and humor the aesthetes the moralists and the realists Each voice is compelling for its invaluable testimony some reveal startling insights into the persecution of dissidents under Soviet rule while others address the relationship between creativity writing and conditions of exile Taken together these interviews reveal the range of modern Russian writing and document the personalities and positions that have made Russian writers in emigration so diverse experimental and controversial The Writers Vasily Aksyonov Joseph Brodsky Igor Chinnov Natalya Goranevskaya Frifrikh Gorensetin Roman Goul Yury Ivask Boris Khazanov Edward Liminov Vladimir Makisimov Andrei Siniavsky and Maria Rozanova Sasha Sokolov Vladimir Voinovich Aleksandr Zinoviev Excerpt John Glad You're a Russian poet but an American essayist Does that bring on any measure of split personality Do you think you are becoming less and less Russian Joseph Brodsky recipient of 1987 Nobel Prize for Literature That's not for me to say As far as I'm concerned in my inner self inside it feels quite natural I think being a Russian poet and an American essayist is an ideal situation It's all a matter of whether you have a the heart and b the brains to be able to do both Sometimes I think I do Sometimes I think I don't Sometimes I think that one interferes with the other
