The Prospects for a Regional Human Rights Mechanism in East Asia (RLE Modern East and South East Asia)

Hidetoshi Hashimoto, 2015-05-15 Regional inter governmental human rights organizations have been in operation for sometime in Europe the Americas and Africa These regional human rights mechanisms have proven to be useful and effective in comparison to the global human rights mechanisms available at the United Nations The purpose of this study first published in 2004 is to investigate the possibility of establishing a regional inter governmental human rights mechanism in East Asia with a focus on the contributions of nongovernmental organizations NGOs to such a development

The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights Hsien-Li Tan, 2011-07-07 This assessment of progress in Southeast Asia on human rights begins in the wake of the Asian values debate and culminates in the formal regional institutionalisation of the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights AICHR Chapters examine the arduous negotiation of AICHR the evolving relationship between ASEAN states and the international human rights system and the historical and experiential reasons for hesitancy The text concludes with a discussion of how the evolving right to development impacts upon AICHR and international human rights in general and how their preference for economic social and development rights could help ASEAN states shape the debate

Emerging Regional Human Rights Systems in Asia Tae-Ung Baik, 2012-11 Analyses the emerging human rights norms regional institutions and enforcement mechanisms in Asia

Human Rights Mechanism in South Asia Shveta Dhaliwal, 2016-10-04 Shveta Dhaliwal teaches at the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law Punjab Patiala India Her areas of specialisation are geopolitics regional human rights systems comparative political thought and international relations She has published more than 40 research papers and presented over 150 papers in international and national conferences She has authored and three edited books to her credit She is member of the Indian Political Science Association and the Indian Society of International Law and South Asian Foundation

A Selective Approach to Establishing a Human Rights Mechanism in Southeast Asia Hao Duy Phan, 2012-02-03 This book proposes a selective approach for states with more advanced human rights protection to establish a human rights court for Southeast Asia It argues the inclusive approach currently employed by ASEAN to set up a human rights body covering all member states cannot produce a strong regional human rights mechanism The mosaic of Southeast Asia reveals great diversity and high complexity in political regimes human rights practice and participation by regional states in the global legal human rights framework Cooperation among ASEAN members to protect and promote human rights remains limited The time honored principle of non interference and the ASEAN Way still predominate in relations within ASEAN These factors combine to explain why the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights is unlikely to be strong and effective in changing and promoting regional human rights protection Routledge Library Editions: Modern East and South East Asia Various Authors,2022-07-30 This 7 volume set reissues a range of classic out of print texts that cover a host of issues that have contributed to the development of modern East and South East Asia With titles covering economics politics history anthropology and security this set provides the researcher with an essential resource on the region

Regional Protection of Human Rights Dinah Shelton,Paolo G. Carozza,2013-05-30 In the second edition of Regional Protection of Human Rights Dinah Shelton examines the development of regional organizations and the role that human rights plays in them Human Rights Awareness And Advocacy Role Of Youth Dr K M Ashifa, Globalization and Political Ethics ,2006-11-29 Rational exercise of our responsibility requires us to relate the globalization process to the ends and purposes that properly befit human life and human community Economic ends are merely the means to ends of a higher order which can only be specified in terms of moral duty and ethical purpose The contributors to this book explore political ethical issues of globalization including terrorism institutional change and distribution in the world economy the role of the United Nations and international financial institutions the regimes of international trade and technology transfer the effects of regionalism in the European Union and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations the failure of Russia human rights enforcement in Africa and the prospects for global governance This book was originally published as Volume 4 no 3 4 2005 of Brill s journal Perspectives on Global Development and Technology Human Rights in the World Community Richard Pierre Claude,Burns H. Weston,2006-10-04 This unique textbook seeks to promote students critical and analytical skills and to provide a teacher friendly resource featuring in depth scholarly introductions to each chapter multiple questions for discussion and reflection and an extensive bibliography and annotated filmography Liberal Rights and Political Culture Zhenghuan Zhou,2013-10-14 This book argues that the liberal concept of rights presupposes and is grounded in an individualistic culture or shared way of relating and that this particular shared way of relating emerged only in the wake of the Reformation in the modern West Dialogues on Human Rights and Legal Pluralism René Provost,Colleen Sheppard,2012-08-10 Human rights have transformed the way in which we conceive the place of the individual within the community and in relation to the state in a vast array of disciplines including law philosophy politics sociology geography The published output on human rights over the last five decades has been enormous but has remained tightly bound to a notion of human rights as dialectically linking the individual and the state Because of human rights dogged focus on the state and its actions they have very seldom attracted the attention of legal pluralists Indeed some may have viewed the two as simply incompatible or relating to wholly distinct phenomena This collection of essays is the first to bring together authors with established track records in the fields of legal pluralism and human rights to explore the ways in which these concepts can be mutually reinforcing delegitimizing or competing The essays reveal that there is no facile conclusion to reach but that the question opens avenues which are likely to be mined for years to come by those interested in how human rights can affect the behaviour of individuals and institutions

Global Media James D. White, 2013-09-05 This book is about the processes of globalization demonstrated through a comparative study of three television case histories in Asia Also illustrated are different approaches to providing television services in the world public service NHK in Japan state CCTV in China and commercial STAR TV based in Hong Kong Through its focus Global Media addresses a considerable lacuna in the media studies literature which tends to have a heavy Western bias It provides an original addition to the literature on globalization which is often abstract and anecdotal in addition to making a major contribution to comparative research in Asia Finally it offers a thoughtful causal layered analysis with a concluding argument in favor of public service television

Transforming East Asian Domestic and International Politics Robert Compton, 2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 This text attempts to bridge the gap between international relations and comparative politics with particular reference to East Asia The book begins with an exploration of the theme of globalization and the impact it has on the conduct of international relations and the process of domestic politics It discusses the fact that domestic actors are unable to assume an insular political environment as previously referring to the constant reception of stimuli which force adjustments to approaches in the conduct of domestic and international affairs Globalization's ubiquitous presence reflects a changed reality for both state and non state actors no policy maker can afford to ignore or underemphasize its role in shaping or altering the course of public

Accommodating the Chinese Michelle Campbell Renshaw, 2005-04-02 This in depth comparative study demonstrates that the hospital established in China its planning and architecture financing and all aspects of day to day operation differed from its counterpart at home These differences were never due to a single or even dominant cause They were a result of a complex process involving accommodation appreciation negotiation opportunism and pragmatism

We Are Not Garbage! Miki Hasegawa, 2012-12-06 This book offers a full history of a homeless movement in Tokyo that lasted nearly a decade It shows how homeless people and their external supporters in the city combined their scarce resources to generate and sustain the movement The study advocates a more nuanced analysis of movement gains to appreciate how poor people can benefit by acting collectively It also draws attention to potential difficulties faced by lower stratum movements aided by external allies In particular the study highlights how actions of the state can undermine the relations between aggrieved allies in such a way as to limit gains The book is the first in English to detail homeless mobilization in Japan It also addresses the origins of increased homelessness and development of homelessness policy in the country Besides homelessness it covers a number of current social issues including economic globalization social exclusion and politics over space Indonesian Education Christopher Bjork, 2005-06-01 Indonesian Education Teachers Schools and Central Authority the first published study of life inside Indonesian schools explores the role that classroom teachers behavior and locates their actions within the broader cultures of education and government in Indonesia A Nation of a Hundred Million Idiots Jayson Makoto Chun, 2006-12-06 This book offers a history of Japanese television audiences and the popular media culture that television helped to spawn In a comparatively short period the television industry helped to reconstruct not only postwar Japanese popular culture but also the Japanese social and political landscape During the early years of television Japanese of all backgrounds from politicians to mothers debated the effects on society The public discourse surrounding the growth of television revealed its role in forming the identity of postwar Japan during the era of high speed growth 1955 1973 that saw Japan transformed into an economic power and one of the world s top exporters of television programming
