Prosthetic Gods:

Prosthetic Gods Hal Foster, 2004 How to imagine not only a new art or architecture but a new self or subject equal to them In Prosthetic Gods Hal Foster explores this question through the works and writings of such key modernists as Gauguin and Picasso F T Marinetti and Wyndham Lewis Adolf Loos and Max Ernst These diverse figures were all fascinated by fictions of origin either primordial and tribal or futuristic and technological In this way Foster argues two forms came to dominate modernist art above all others the primitive and the machine Foster begins with the primitivist fantasies of Gauguin and Picasso which he examines through the Freudian lens of the primal scene He then turns to the purist obsessions of the Viennese architect Loos who abhorred all things primitive Next Foster considers the technophilic subjects propounded by the futurist Marinetti and the vorticist Lewis These new egos are further contrasted with the bachelor machines proposed by the dadaist Ernst Foster also explores extrapolations from the art of the mentally ill in the aesthetic models of Ernst Paul Klee and Jean Dubuffet as well as manipulations of the female body in the surrealist photography of Brassai Man Ray and Hans Bellmer Finally he examines the impulse to dissolve the conventions of art altogether in the drip paintings of Jackson Pollock the scatter pieces of Robert Morris and the earthworks of Robert Smithson and traces the evocation of lost objects of desire in sculptural work from Marcel Duchamp and Alberto Giacometti to Robert Gober Although its title is drawn from Freud Prosthetic Gods does not impose psychoanalytic theory on modernist art rather it sets the two into critical relation and scans the greater historical field that they share

Prosthetic Gods Robert Dixon, 2001 Prosthetic Gods Taylor C. Cronin, 2018 A Doctor Across Borders Alexander Cameron-Smith, 2019-02-28 In his day Raphael Cilento was one of the most prominent and controversial figures in Australian medicine As a senior medical officer in the Commonwealth and Queensland governments he was an active participant in public health reform during the inter war years and is best known for his vocal engagement with public discourse on the relationship between hygiene race and Australian nationhood Yet Cilento's work on tropical hygiene and social welfare ranged beyond Australia especially when he served as a colonial medical officer in British Malaya and in the Mandated Territory of New Guinea He also worked with the League of Nations Health Organization in the Pacific Islands and oversaw international social welfare programs for the United Nations On one level this professional mobility allowed ideas and practices of public health and government to circulate between colonial spaces of northern Australia the Pacific Islands and Asia On another it meant that Cilento's Pacific colonialism and colonial experience shaped his understanding of Australian national health and welfare Rather than attempt a comprehensive biography of Cilento this book instead uses this border crossing career as a means to explore several material and discursive facets of Australia's relationships to the Pacific and the world

Glitchy Vision Amanda K. Greene, 2024-11-19 A novel exploration of popular photographic media cultures in 1930s Europe through a feminist lens and how visual social media changes what it means to be human both then and now Glitchy Vision takes a feminist approach to media history to examine how photographic social media cultures change human bodies and the experience of being human To illuminate these glitches Greene focuses on the inevitable distortions that arise from looking at the past through the lens of the present Treating these distortions as tools as opposed to obstacles Greene uncovers new ways of viewing social media cultures of the past while also revealing parallels between historical contexts and our contemporary digital media environment Greene uses three born digital keywords real time algorithmic filters and sousveillance to examine photographic media environments in and around 1930s Europe Each chapter of the book places one of the keywords in dialogue with an unconventional archive of popular feminized cultural artifacts and technological innovations from this historical moment that have been overlooked as critical resources for media studies Evelyn Waugh s bestselling novel Vile Bodies 1930 and photographic reproductions for the tabloid press Lee Miller s war photography for British Vogue and glamorous photo retouching techniques and the Mass Observation Movement s surrealist anthropology Glitchy Vision provides new strategies for reading history that show how small shifts in the circuits that connect bodies and media affect what it means to be human both in the past and today

The Emperor's New Nudity Yuval Kreznitzer, 2024-12-10 An analysis of contemporary authoritarianism and the medium in which it flourishes the internet as well as what lies at the complex intersection of authority and technology In recent decades a new style of authoritarian politics has taken hold throughout the liberal democratic world The new authority figures are characterized by obscene transgressive behavior reminiscent of the crowd leader as theorized by Freud only far less transient In The Emperor's New Nudity Yuval Kreznitzer considers the fraught intersection of authority and technology the internet being the medium that has allowed contemporary authoritarianism to thrive asking foundational questions such as How can we think of the network as a social phenomenon What can social and political phenomena teach us about the nature of the new technology And how does technology reshape the very fabric of social and political life Technology Kreznitzer writes leads us toward an impersonal and hyperrational world to such an extent that it renders human subjectivity outmoded Authority on the other hand anchors our subjective identifications to certain figures and seems to be hopelessly primitive and irrational What is required then is a dialectics of the primal a study of the way in which what strikes us as essential enters into the dynamics of historical change From this perspective authority and technology can be said to be divided by a common object the unwritten law and the special knowledge that pertains to it a knowledge without knowers

Art Neon Art Kinetic Art and many other trends of the 1960s and 70s The second section focuses on Futurism and Science and contains a number of papers that were first presented at the fifth bi annual conference of the European Network for Avant Garde and Modernism Studies EAM held on 1-3 June 2016 in Rennes They investigate the impact of science on Futurist aesthetics and the Futurist quest for a new perception and rational understanding of the world as well as the movement's connection with the esoteric domain especially in the field of theosophy the Hermetic tradition Gnostic mysticism and a whole phalanx of Spiritualist beliefs The Archive section offers a survey of collections and archives in Northern Italy that are concerned with Futurist ceramics and a report on the Fondazione Primo Conti in Fiesole established in April 1980 as a museum library and archive devoted to the documentation of the international avant garde and to Italian Futurism in particular A review section dedicated to exhibitions conferences and publications is followed by an annual bibliography of international Futurism studies exhibition catalogues special issues of periodicals and new editions Wyndham Lewis

Luke Gilfedder, 2025-08-30 We live in times as politically uncertain as those faced by the modernists a century ago Europe once again faces the possibility of a post liberal future with sophisticated New Right intellectuals not only populists challenging the core Enlightenment values of liberal society Often assumed to be merely reactionary the radical modernist roots of the New Right are largely overlooked Through metapolitics the social diffusion of ideas and cultural values for long term political gain the New Right instead seeks to steer modernity forward in an alternate direction and claims proto fascist modernists such as Wyndham Lewis as part of its drive to occupy culture as the 20th century Right occupied politics Recasting Lewis as our intellectual contemporary this book offers the first political philosophical study of literary modernism's influence on the New Right's anti Enlightenment vision and calls for an urgent re evaluation of Lewis's legacy as an insider critic of this ideological lineage It applies Lewis's critiques of his reactionary modernist peers to leading New Right intellectuals such as Dugin and de Benoist critically examines Lewis's reception among New Right authors and marks a major reassessment of Lewis's relevance to contemporary affairs revealing how his work advances a rationalist and individualist vision of an Enlightened future that challenges rather than legitimises the alternative modernities envisaged by today's most radical anti liberal thinkers Gauguin's Challenge

Norma Broude, 2018-03-08 Several decades have now passed since postcolonial and feminist critiques presented the art historical world with a demythologized Paul Gauguin 1848-1903 a much diminished image of the artist hero who had once been universally admired as the father of modernist primitivism In this volume both long established and more recent Gauguin scholars offer a provocative picture of the evolution of Gauguin scholarship in the recent postmodern era as they confront and consider how the dismantling of the longstanding Gauguin myth positions us now in the 21st century to deal with and assess the life work and legacy of this still perennially popular artist To reassess the challenges that Gauguin faced in his own day as well as those that he continues to present to current and future scholarship they explore the multiple contexts that influenced Gauguin's thought and behavior as well as his art and incorporate a variety of interdisciplinary approaches from anthropology philosophy and the history of science to gender studies and the study of Pacific cultural history Dealing with a wide range of Gauguin s production they challenge conventional art historical thinking highlight transnational perspectives and offer clues to the direction of future scholarship as audiences worldwide seek to make multicultural peace with Gauguin and his art Broude has raised the bar of Gauguin scholarship ever higher in this groundbreaking volume which will be necessary reading for students and scholars of art history late 19th century French and Pacific culture gender studies and beyond Fashion at the Edge Caroline Evans, Caroline Edwards, 2003-01-01 Caroline Evans analyses the work of experimental designers the images of fashion photographers and the spectacular fashion shows that developed in the final decade of the twentieth century to arrive at a new understanding of fashion s dark side and what it signifies Drawing on a variety of literary and theoretical perspectives from Marx to Benjamin Evans argues that fashion plays a leading role in constructing images and meanings during periods of rapid change She shows persuasively that fashion stands at the very centre of the contemporary where it voices some of Western culture s deepest concerns Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism s mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille s theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille s dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille s theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège s thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre Is Regulation Still an Option in a Digital Universe? Tim Lees, Sue Ralph, Jo Langham Brown, 2000 These papers from the 30th University of Manchester International Broadcasting Symposium feature contributions from major figures in the worlds of broadcasting and academia They explore the proliferation of new supposedly unregulated media like the Internet the opening up of broadcasting through digital technology and the increasingly international nature of the broadcasting medium itself The legal economic and technological issues that now take precedence are detailed

Wyndham Lewis the Radical Carmelo Cunchillos Jaime, 2007 This volume about the modernist writer and artist Wyndham Lewis 1882 1957 presents him as a radical figure in twentieth century modernism The authors rediscover aspects of Lewis's work which show how his fiction challenges modernist norms and how his acute and wide ranging critique of culture has a vital contemporary relevance Lewis's range is extraordinary it covers Nietzsche as well as classic cinema Renaissance art and English classicism Being politically conservative he had nonetheless a place on the political left and he can be seen as a postmodernist before his time These essays by leading Spanish and British specialists reveal Lewis as one of the key modernists of our time

Modernism and the Machinery of Madness Andrew Gaedtke, 2017-10-26 Modernism and the Machinery of Madness demonstrates the emergence of a technological form of paranoia within modernist culture which transformed much of the period's experimental fiction Gaedtke argues that the works of writers such as Samuel Beckett Anna Kavan Wyndham Lewis Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and others respond to the collapse of categorical distinctions between human and machine Modern British and Irish novels represent a convergence between technological models of the mind and new media that were often regarded as thought influencing machines Gaedtke shows that this literary paranoia comes into new focus when read in light of twentieth century memoirs of mental illness By thinking across the discourses of experimental fiction mental illness psychiatry cognitive science and philosophy of mind this book shows the historical and conceptual sources of this confusion as well as the narrative responses This book contributes to the fields of modernist studies disability studies and medical humanities
