Protest Photographs 1963-1993:

Visual Protest, Viral Images, and Virtual Participation Nicole A. Schneider, 2025-06-30 This interdisciplinary study sees press photographs of the BLM Movement in the US as agents for Black liberation. Close reading both the images and theoretical considerations on Blackness photography and the often intangible articulations of racism in today's society, the book focuses on the work the photographs do for the movement as they politically garner attention and create discursive places historically unsettle seemingly fixed narratives about the African American past and virtually establish room for digital activist debate. Based on Azoulay's event of photography and Rancière's politics of aesthetics, it builds the theory of an attentive reading of photography and addresses the larger frameworks of photography as event in anti-racist considerations. In their political aesthetic and performative dimensions, these photographs negotiate the current matter of Black lives in the United States and articulate ontological dimensions of Blackness as political struggle and affirmative position. They become mobile and material discursive places that lift the protested debates into wider fields of consideration and visibility, complicating notions of society, politics, and interaction. American Photo, 1997 The Publishers Weekly, 1996

The Army and Politics General Nabi Azimi, 2019-04-11 The Army and Politics was hoped to be of any help to readers and researchers interested in the modern history of Afghanistan. It was hoped to be able to offer a proper historic perspective for a particular era of time. A time during which the country strived to make itself a peaceful place for everyone to live in but had to come across waves of political setbacks caused by foreign interference. The arrival of The Red Army in 1979 opened a new phase of political challenges for almost every side involved. In particular, the West now had to do something to make sure that the Soviet Communist government of Russia lost sleep over their occupation of Afghanistan. Looking at the bitter events and incidents with deliberation will undoubtedly lead to a better understanding of what actually did happen between 1963 and 1993. With a glance through the index, one would realise that the majority of the matters and topics covered are quite overwhelmingly rich of new and unheard of events and incidents. Army and Politics comprises of the author's own engraved memoirs and analysis of the military political incidents and events that occurred during his active membership of the People's Democratic Party of Afghanistan. Army and Politics talks of the dramatic coming to power and collapses of the republican Afghan governments beginning with the deposition of the former King Zahir Shah in 1973. Army and Politics talks of the capacity and capabilities of the Afghan Army during the Soviet occupation and the struggle that the west-backed Mujahideen forces had to withstand for many years. Army and Politics reminds us of the amount of foreign interference that the Afghan governments had to deal with over the years. Army and Politics gives account of how the Afghan government managed to remain in power following the withdrawal of The Red Army from Afghanistan under the leadership of General Gromov in 1989 Army and Politics explains in detail what caused the former Afghan President Dr Najeebullah to leave his government behind and try to escape before seeking refuge at the United Nations office in Kabul in 1992 and what happened to him a few years after. Renowned political figures such as Ludwig W Adamec and BBC's Chief International Correspondent Lyse Doucet who were involved in the Afghan history and politics have both shown their support for The Army and Politics to be published as a valuable source of information. Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1996-10 Books in Print, 1991 African Activists of the Twentieth Century Hugh Macmillan, Tabitha Kanogo, Robert R. Edgar, Roy Doron, Toyin Falola, 2023-03-28 An omnibus collection of concise and up to date biographies of four influential figures from modern African history. Chris Hani by Hugh Macmillan. Chris Hani was one of the most highly respected leaders of the African National Congress, the South African Communist Party and uMkhonto we Sizwe. His assassination in 1993 threatened to upset the country's transition to democracy and prompted an intervention by Nelson Mandela that ultimately accelerated apartheid's demise. Wangari Maathai by Tabitha Kanogo. This concise biography tells the story of Wangari Maathai, the Kenyan activist and Nobel Peace Prize winner who devoted her life to campaigning for environmental conservation, sustainable development, democracy, human rights, gender equality and the eradication of poverty. Josie Mpama Palmer. Get Up and Get Moving by Robert R. Edgar. Highly critical of the patriarchal attitudes that hindered Black women's political activism. South Africa's Josie Mpama Palmer was an outspoken advocate for women's social and political equality, a member of the Communist Party of South Africa and an anti-apartheid activist. Ken Saro Wiwa by Roy Doron and Toyin Falola. A penetrating, accessible portrait of the Nigerian activist whose execution galvanized the world. Ken Saro Wiwa became a martyr and symbolized modern Africans' struggle against military dictatorship, corporate power and environmental exploitation. Wangari Maathai Tabitha Kanogo, 2020-04-07. Wangari Muta Maathai is one of Africa's most celebrated female activists. Originally trained as a scientist in Kenya and abroad, Professor Maathai returned to her home country of Kenya with a renewed political consciousness. There she began her long career as an activist campaigning for environmental and social justice while speaking out against government corruption. In 2004, Maathai was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her leadership of the Green Belt Movement, a conservation effort that resulted in the restoration of African forests decimated during the colonial era. In this biography, Tabitha Kanogo follows Wangari Maathai from her modest rural Kenyan upbringing to her rise as a national figure campaigning for environmental and ecological conservation, sustainable development, democracy, human rights, gender equality and the eradication of poverty until her death in 2011.
