Proust At The Movies Studies In European Cultural Transition:

Proust at the Movies Martine Beugnet, Marion Schmid, 2017-07-28 Film established itself as an artistic form of expression at the same time that Proust started work on his masterpiece A la recherche du temps perdu If Proust apparently took little interest in what he described as a poor avatar of reductive mimetic representation the resonances between his own radical reworking of writing styles and the novelistic forms and cinema as the art of time are undeniable Proust at the Movies is the first study in English to consider these rich interconnections Its introductory chapter charts the missed encounter between Proust and the cinema and addresses the problems inherent in adapting his novel to the screen The following chapters examine the various cinematic responses to A la recherche du temps perdu attempted to date Luchino Visconti and Joseph Losey's failed attempts at adapting the whole of the novel in the 1970s Volker Schlöndorff's Un Amour de Swann 1984 Raoul Ruiz's Le Temps retrouvé 1999 Chantal Akerman's La Prisonnière in La Captive 2000 and Fabio Carpi's Quartetto Basileus 1982 and Le Intermittenze del cuore 2003 The last chapter tracks the echoes of Proust's writing in the work of various directors from Abel Gance to Jean Luc Godard The approach is multidisciplinary combining literary criticism with film theory and elements of philosophy of art Special attention is given to the modernist legacy in literature and film with its distinctive aesthetic and narrative features An outline of the history and recent evolution of contemporary art cinema thus emerges a cinema where the themes at the heart of Proust's work memory time perception are ceaselessly explored Cinema of
