

HAROLD PINTER

The PROUST
SCREENPLAY

À La Recherche du Temps Perdu

“I speak carefully when I say that it’s incomparably the best screen adaptation ever made of a great work and that is in itself a work of genius. . . . The Proust Screenplay is beautiful art.”

— Stanley Kaufmann, The New Republic

Proust Screenplay:

Proust Screenplay, The Harold Pinter, Joseph Losey, Barbara Bray, 2000 In the early 1970s Harold Pinter joined forces with director Joseph Losey and Proust scholar Barbara Bray to develop a screenplay of Proust's masterpiece Remembrance of Things Past Pinter took more than a year to conceive and write the screenplay and called the experience the best working year of my life Although never produced Harold Pinter's The Proust Screenplay is considered one of the greatest adaptations for the cinema ever written With fidelity to Proust's text the screenplay is an extraordinary re creation by one of the leading playwrights of our time It is in its way a unique collaboration between two extraordinary writers united across more than half a century and two different cultures by a special concern for time and memory The Proust Screenplay Harold Pinter, Joseph Losey, Barbara Bray, 1991 Early in 1972 the film director Joseph Losey asked Harold Pinter if he would work on a screen adaptation of Marcel Proust's famous sequence of novels A La Recherche Du Temps Perdu He agreed and after a year's work the result is this book The Proust Screenplay Harold Pinter, 1977-11-01 The Proust Screenplay Harold Pinter, Joseph Losey, Barbara Bray, 1977 The Proust Screenplay written by Harold Pinter., 1978 À la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Harold Pinter, Joseph Losey, Barbara Bray, 1977 Proust's Way: A Field Guide to In Search of Lost Time Roger Shattuck, 2011-02-07 Shattuck leaves us not only with a deepened appreciation of Proust's great work but of all great literature as well Richard Bernstein New York Times For any reader who has been humbled by the language the density or the sheer weight of Marcel Proust's In Search of Lost Time Roger Shattuck is a godsend Winner of the National Book Award for Marcel Proust a sweeping examination of Proust's life and works Shattuck now offers a useful and eminently readable guidebook to Proust's epic masterpiece and a contemplation of memory and consciousness throughout great literature Here Shattuck laments Proust's defenselessness against zealous editors praises some translations and presents Proust as a novelist whose philosophical gifts were matched only by his irrepressible comic sense Proust's Way the culmination of a lifetime of scholarship will serve as the next generation's guide to one of the world's finest writers of fiction Proust Screenplay Harold Pinter, Marcel Proust, Joseph Losey, Barbara Bray, 1980 Proust and the Visual Nathalie Aubert, 2013-01-15 This collection of essays is aiming at capturing the rich and complex category of the visual both in Proust's novel itself in its philosophical and stylistic implications and beyond it in other visual practices cinema painting dance inspired by the novel Proust Screenplay Harold Pinter, 1980 Hugging the Shore John Updike, 2013-01-15 WINNER OF THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD Writing criticism is to writing fiction and poetry as hugging the shore is to sailing in the open sea writes John Updike in his Foreword to this collection of literary considerations But the sailor doth protest too much This collection begins somewhere near deep water with a flotilla of short fiction humor pieces and personal essays and even the least of the reviews here those that come about and draw even closer to the land with another nine point quotation are distinguished by a novelist's style insight and accuracy not just surface sparkle Indeed as James Atlas commented the most substantial critical articles on Melville Hawthorne and Whitman go out as far as Updike's fiction. They are the sort of ambitious scholarly reappraisal not seen in this country since the death of Edmund Wilson. With Hugging the Shore, Michiko Kakutani wrote, Updike established himself as a major and enduring critical voice indeed as the pre-eminent critic of his generation.

Afterlives of Abandoned Work Matthew Harle, 2018-12-27 Afterlives of Abandoned Work considers the relevance of unfinished projects to literary history and criticism, looking beyond famous posthumous work to investigate the abandoned everyday: from scrapped plans and rejected ideas to half-written novels or unfinished artistic works. It traces how the reading of abandoned creative endeavor, whether arriving in the form of a rejection letter, a disagreement with a collaborator, or the simple act of walking away from one's desk, can change the way we think about cultural production, the creative process, and the intellectual construction of everyday life. Over five distinct journeys through a variety of archives, from major research libraries to the unique collections of individual enthusiasts, Matthew Harle draws surprising connections between literary studies, media studies, and visual arts, exploring unfinished projects from Thomas Pynchon, Muriel Spark, B.S. Johnson, Harold Pinter, and others. Rooted in literary criticism, Afterlives of Abandoned Work reads unbuilt buildings, unfilmed screenplays, and unpublished novels and radio sketches as forms of text that can help us consider the enduring fragmentation and anecdotal construction of cultural form, as well as expand literary criticism's approach to the archive.

Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post-Translation Studies Edwin Gentzler, 2016-11-03 In Translation and Rewriting in the Age of Post-Translation Studies, Edwin Gentzler argues that rewritings of literary works have taken translation to a new level: literary texts no longer simply originate but rather circulate, moving internationally and intersemiotically into new media and forms. Drawing on traditional translations, post-translation rewritings, and other forms of creative adaptation, he examines the different translational cultures from which literary works emerge and the translational elements within them. In this revealing study, four concise chapters give detailed analyses of the following classic works and their rewritings: A Midsummer Night's Dream in Germany, Postcolonial Faust, Proust for Everyday Readers, Hamlet in China. With examples from a variety of genres, including music, film, ballet, comics, and video games, this book will be of special interest for all students and scholars of translation studies and contemporary literature.

Pinter's World William Baker, 2018-09-15 Pinter's World, Pinter and Company is not a full-scale biography but a series of illuminating chapters about Pinter's life, character, and thought, employing new information found in his Appointment Diaries, recent biographical sources such as Simon Gray's memoirs and Henry Woolf's reminiscences, in addition to personal discussions with several in Pinter's world. This book provides a fresh illumination of Pinter's life and art, his friendships, obsessions, and concerns. Material is arranged around themes: key concerns, Pinter's activities, Pinter's meetings and endeavors, for instance, with whom he met and when, when he wrote what and when, and his perspective at the time are documented. This work explores Pinter's writing: drama, poetry, prose, journalism, and letters, which are here regarded as part of his aesthetic achievement. Pinter's World, Pinter and Company presents a pointillist portrait of him through examining central concerns in his life These encompass an obsession with the theater and games delight in restaurants demonstrating that Pinter is far removed from the socially awkward isolated figures populating his early work and the women in Pinter's world Other areas examined include Pinter's political engagement from his adolescence to his last years and the literary and other creative influences upon him This work draws upon consultation of his papers at the British Library including letters to others especially close friends with whom he kept close contact for over half a century These letters should be regarded on par with his other creative accomplishments Pinter was a fascinating letter writer whose letters reveal thoughts at the time of writing often in abrupt most colorful idiomatic language His Appointment Diaries cannot reveal what actually occurred during his meetings but they do provide a guide to what he did on a daily basis and whom he met Memories from his friends his professional colleagues cricket players and his second wife Antonia Fraser illuminate Pinter's personality and actions Pinter's first literary love was poetry and unlike most other Pinter studies this one gives attention to his neglected poetic output that often reveals the real Pinter and the enigma that is at the heart of every great artist

Viva Pinter Brigitte Gauthier, 2009 European Connections Studies in Comparative Literature Intermediality and Aesthetics is a peer reviewed series that focuses on the literary and artistic relations that shape European cultures It also wishes to explore relations with non European cultures with a view to fostering more equitable models of cultural exchange and transfer

Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930-2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick's 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter's Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon

focuses on the ways in which Pinter conceives of and dramatises time according to the particular medium with which he is working It goes beyond Pinter's obvious fascination with false and true memory to trace the various textual and non-textual strategies he employs to distort sequence and duration in his plays Further it shows how Pinter undermines the temporal assumptions of naturalism and realism to form a uniquely relativistic world in which time is a central feature

Proustian Passions Ingrid Wassenaar, 2000 A la recherche du temps perdu occupies an undisputed place in the unfolding intellectual history of the moi in France There is however a general tendency in writing on this novel to celebrate the wonders of the moi sensible uncritically This effaces all that is morally dubious or frankly experimental about Proust's account of selfhood It denies the rigour with which Proust tries to understand exactly why it is so difficult to explain one's own actions to another The great party scenes for example or the countless digressions read like manuals on how acts of self-justification take place Proust however is not merely interested in some kind of taxonomy of excuses hypocrisy disingenuousness and Schadenfreude He wants to know why self-justification tends to be interpreted as indicative of moral or psychological weakness He asks himself whether self-justification informs isolated moments of everyday existence or whether it endures in an overall conception of self that lasts an individual's lifetime He investigates whether it dictates the functioning of an entire social group Can we decide he asks whether justifying one's self should be written off as morally repugnant or taken seriously as evidence of moral probity

Samuel Beckett's Library Dirk Van Hulle, Mark Nixon, 2013-06-28 The first study to assess the importance of the marginalia inscriptions and other manuscript notes in the 750 volumes of Samuel Beckett's personal library

Barbara Bray, A Woman of Letters Pascale Sardin, 2024-11-27 Barbara Bray 1924-2010 was an English woman of letters who translated some hundred novels plays and essays from French to English and was Marguerite Duras's preferred translator She also collaborated with some of the most prestigious directors and playwrights of the 20th century Harold Pinter Samuel Beckett Joseph Losey and Franco Zeffirelli helping them write screenplays and radioplays This literary biography re-evaluates in a textual sociological and historical perspective the social role of an English writer and translator in the history of ideas and contemporary art Highlighting Bray's influence in cultural transfers of ideas and literatures between France Great Britain and the United States it renders visible the yet unrecognised work of a female mediator and creator It nourishes the debate about women's public voice and the representation of women in the media industries and contributes to enrich the other history that is being currently written by feminist scholars around the world
