Providing Culturally Relevant Adult Education: A Challenge for the Twenty-First Century Talmadge C. Guy, 1999-12-08

Traditional adult learning theory has not accounted for the many cultural differences manifested in adult education programs and in ethnic and racial communities This issue of New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education offers more inclusive theories that focus on how learners construct meaning in a social and cultural context The volume identifies ways that adult educators can work more effectively with racially ethnically and linguistically marginalized learners and explores how adult education can be an effective tool for empowering marginalized learners to take control of their circumstances The authors who share the same cultural backgrounds as the populations they serve provide ideas for enhancing the learning experiences of African Americans Hispanic Americans and Native Americans in adult education programs This is the 82nd issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education International Encyclopedia of Adult Education L. English, 2016-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Adult Education is the first comprehensive reference work in this important and fast growing field and is an invaluable resource for adult educators who research and teach in the fields of higher education work in community based settings or practise in public or private organizations Its 170 articles written by an international team of contributors from over 17 countries detail the research and practice of the field from its emergence as a separate discipline to the present day covering key concepts issues and individuals and providing a cutting edge summary of ongoing debates across a wide range of perspectives from self directed learning to human resource development Entries are arranged A Z and extensive cross referenced with detailed bibliographies for each topic to facilitate further research Research Anthology on Adult Education and the Development of Lifelong Learners Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-03-19

Whether it is earning a GED a particular skill or technical topic for a career taking classes of interest or even returning to begin a degree program or completing it adult learning encompasses those beyond the traditional university age seeking out education This type of education could be considered non traditional as it goes beyond the typical educational path and develops learners that are self initiated and focused on personal development in the form of gaining some sort of education Essentially it is a voluntary choice of learning throughout life for personal and professional development While there is often a large focus towards K 12 and higher education it is important that research also focuses on the developing trends technologies and techniques for providing adult education along with understanding lifelong learners choices developments and needs The Research Anthology on Adult Education and the Development of Lifelong Learners focuses specifically on adult education and the best practices services and educational environments and methods for both the teaching and learning of adults This spans further into the understanding of what it means to be a lifelong learner and how to develop adults who want to voluntarily contribute to their own development by enhancing their education level or knowledge of certain topics This book is essential for teachers and professors course instructors business professionals school administrators practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the latest advancements in adult education and lifelong learning Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Carol E. Ross-Gordon, 2010-05-27 Drawing on the contributions of 75 leading authors in the field this 2010 Edition of the respected Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides adult education scholars programme administrators and teachers with a solid foundation for understanding the current guiding beliefs practices and tensions faced in the field as well as a basis for developing and refining their own approaches to their work and scholarship Offering expanded discussions in the areas of social justice technology and the global dimensions of adult and continuing education the Handbook continues the tradition of previous volumes with discussions of contemporary theories current forms and contexts of practice and core processes and functions Insightful chapters examine adult and continuing education as it relates to gender and sexuality race our aging society class and place and disability Challenging the Professionalization of Adult Education André P. Grace, Tonette S. Rocco, 2009-06-02 This is groundbreaking book examines the influence of the radical educator and social critic John Ohliger and provides a challenge to orthodox approaches to adult education Ohliger's call to focus on the necessity of learning to democracy and his critique of those that fail to keep freedom and responsibility at the center of the learning enterprise provide rich material for the authors reflections on the many ways in which Ohliger's work has influenced contemporary practice in the field The book also includes his most influential works also allows the reader to engage with his ideas directly Adult Education for Health and Wellness Lilian H. Hill, 2011-07-15 This volume addresses the relationship of adult education and health from different perspectives One task of adulthood is caring for one's health and for many caring for the health of children a partner or spouse and or aging parents Changes in health or the desire for improved health often prompt the need for individuals to learn and adult education can play a vital role in enabling this learning Editor Lilian H Hill associate professor of adult education at the University of Southern Mississippi and contributing authors assemble a comprehensive review of the critical issues involved including How adults learn while coping with chronic illness Health education within adult literacy adult basic education and English as a Second Language classes Approaches to help adults evaluate and learn from online information The influence of globalism on health and more Concluding with Hill's own argument that health is a social justice issue the volume illustrates how adult educators need to be involved in health education because they have valuable skills and knowledge to contribute and because it is a meaningful arena in which to demonstrate the field's commitment to equity and social justice This is the 130th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education Noted for its depth of coverage New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education is an indispensable series that explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of adult and continuing education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums Exploring Spirituality and Culture in Adult and Higher Education Elizabeth J. Tisdell, 2003-06-17 Exploring Spirituality and Culture in Adult and Higher Education is written from the unique perspective of teacher researcher and author Elizabeth Tisdell who has extensive experience dealing with culture gender and educational equity issues in secular adult and higher education classrooms and formerly in pastoral and religious education settings on college campuses This important book discusses how spiritual development is informed by culture and how this knowledge is relevant to teaching and learning For educators an understanding of how spirituality is informed by culture and how spirituality assists in meaning making can aid in their efforts to help their students educational experiences become more transformative and culturally relevant The Handbook of Race and Adult Education Vanessa

Sheared, Juanita Johnson-Bailey, Scipio A. J. Colin, III, Elizabeth Peterson, Stephen D. Brookfield, 2010-05-24 The Handbook of Race and Adult Education While much attention has been given to inclusion diversity and multiculturalism within adult education The Handbook of Race and Adult Education is the first comprehensive work to engage in a dialogue specifically about race and racism and the effect these factors have on the marginalization or oppression of groups and individuals This landmark book provides the field of adult and continuing education with a model for the discussion of race and racism from social educational political and psychological perspectives and seeks to articulate a conceptual challenge to the ethnocentric focus of the discussion in the field It offers adult education scholars as well as those engaged in research and teaching about race an opportunity to engage in a discourse about race and racism including examinations of how these factors have been seen through multiple theoretical frameworks how they have affected many lived experiences at work home and within educational settings and how they have served to privilege some and not others The book offers an exploration into how these factors need to be centered in a discourse and perspective that can provide those in the margins as well as in the center with ways to think about creating changes in their classrooms communities and homes This volume is a timely addition to the intense racial debate occurring in this country today It is a long overdue medium through which those in higher education as well as the general adult education field can engage in a discussion that leads to critical understanding and moves us into meaningful change 38th Annual Adult Education Research Conference Proceedings , 1997

Financial Literacy and Adult Education Karin Sprow Forté, Edward W. Taylor, Elizabeth J.
