Pseudocapitalism And The Overpoliticized State Reconciling Politics And Anthropology In Zaire:

Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam,1994 Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam,1994 Using Zaire as a representative of African and Third World countries Sangmpam provides both a critique and an alternative view of the theory of the African state Ethnicities and Tribes in Sub-Saharan Africa S. N. Sangmpam,2017-03-08 This book proposes new avenues for understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa Much research on ethnicity and cultural pluralism in Sub Saharan Africa falsely equates the term tribe with ethnicity and obscures the differences between Sub Saharan Africa and other regions It also puts too much emphasis on the role of the colonial state in fostering tribal allegiance This book challenges these claims and offers an alternate way of understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant,R. Mark Kirton,2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part 1 Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus Militocracy vs. Democracy in West Africa 1960s - 1990s Godfrey Mwakikagile, This is a historical narrative and analysis of the unconstitutional changes of government in most West African countries where military rule became institutionalised more than in any other part of the continent from the sixties to the nineties There is no specific reason why the region has suffered from usurpation of power by soldiers more than any other part of the continent besides the desire by soldiers to rule recently demonstrated by coups in Mali in 2020 and 2021 Guinea in 2021 and Burkina Faso in 2022 Governments in West Africa are no more unstable or weaker than their counterparts in other parts of the continent Overthrowing governments became a continental phenomenon when military rulers went on to legitimise their seizure of power through rigged elections by turning themselves into civilian rulers They civilianised themselves not only to claim that they were no longer military rulers but were democratically elected leaders a manipulation of power that triggered counter coups by their opponents to end their rule resulting in many deaths in many countries where this violent change took place Military rule in Africa started soon after independence in the sixties The most ambitious goals in the postcolonial era were consolidation of the state and nation building with varying degrees of success in different parts of the continent Military rulers proved to be no better than their civilian counterparts they had replaced In most cases they were even worse and used coercive power of the state to perpetuate themselves in office just as their civilian counterparts did The result was consolidation of the state as an instrument of oppression the most oppressive apparatus being the executive branch itself invested with all the powers which evolved into the imperial presidency a phenomenon that persists in some African countries legitimised through rigged elections enabling leaders to remain in office under the guise of democracy in the name of the people

States and Sovereignty in the Global Economy David Alden Smith,Dorothy J. Solinger,Steven Topik,1999 With editors and contributors of outstanding academic reputation this exciting new book presents an unconventional and radical perspective revealing that states do still matter

Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective Georgia A. Persons,2018-04-24 Contradictory forces are at play at the close of the twentieth century There is a growing closeness of peoples fueled by old and new technologies of modern aviation digital based communications new patterns of trade and commerce and growing affluence of significant portions of the world s population Television permits individuals around the world to learn about the cultures and lifestyles of peoples of physically distant lands These developments give real meaning to the notion of a global village Peoples of the world are growing closer in new and increasingly important ways Nonetheless there are disturbing signs of a growing awareness of ethnic differences in all parts of the world the United States included and a concomitant rise in ethnic based conflicts many of them extraordinarily violent in nature Fear resentment intolerance and mistreatment of the other abound in world news accounts Not only does this phenomenon pose an interesting juxtaposition to the concept of the emergent global village but its emergence in the post cold war era internationally and the post civil rights era in the United States raises significant and compelling questions Why are such conflicts occurring now How do analysts explain these developments The essays in Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective lucidly explore some of the complexities of the persistence and re emergence of race and ethnicity as major lines of divisiveness around the world Contributors analyze manifestations of race based movements for political empowerment in Europe and Latin America as well as racial intolerance in these same settings Attention is also given to the conceptual complexities of multidimensional and shared cultural roots of the overlapping phenomena of ethnicity nationalism identity and ideology The book greatly informs discussions of race and ethnicity in the international context and provides an interesting perspective against which to view America s changing problem of race Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective is a timely thought provoking volume that will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists African American studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists
