Theologians Under Hitler Robert P. Ericksen, 1985-01-01 What led so many German Protestant theologians to welcome the Nazi regime and its policies of racism and anti-Semitism In this provocative book Robert P Ericksen examines the work and attitudes of three distinguished scholarly and influential theologians who greeted the rise of Hitler with enthusiasm and support In so doing he shows how National Socialism could appeal to well meaning and intelligent people in Germany and why the German university and church were so silent about the excesses and evil that confronted them This book is stimulating and thought provoking The issues it raises range well beyond the confines of the case studies of the three theologians examined and have relevance outside the particular context of Hitler's Germany That the book compels the reader to rethink some important questions about the susceptibility of intelligent human beings to as distasteful a phenomenon as fascism is an important achievement Ian Kershaw History Today Ericksen's study throws light on the kinds of perversion to which Christian beliefs and attitudes are easily susceptible and is therefore timely and useful Gordon D Kaufman Los Angeles Times An understanding and carefully documented study Ernst C Helmreich American Historical Review This dark book poses a number of social economic and cultural questions that one has to answer before condemning Kittel Althaus and Hirsch William Griffin Publishers Weekly A highly competent well written book Tim Bradshaw Churchman

Dennison, 2008 During his early life 1884-1925 Rudolf Bultmann passionately attempted to unite scholar and laity through his understanding of God which developed in the context of his home and its love for the common people of the church the legacy of Schleiermacher Marburg Lutheran neo Kantianism the eschatological perspective of the History of Religion School dialectical theology and Heidegger's philosophy of existence Bultmann always insisted that God reflected the inner forces of life within each human being Over the years however Bultmann came to hold that Lutheran neo Kantianism provided the basic structure by which to analyze critique and strengthen his understanding of God In light of this neo Kantian structure Bultmann insisted that God could not be the formulation of any scientific ethical or artistic construction In other words God could not be the object or manifestation of human reason in any form since God transcended human reason Hence in 1925 through the assistance of the dialectical theologians and Heidegger Bultmann presented his purest formulation of a neo Kantian understanding of God God as the spontaneous moment of encountering the dialectical forces within our existential being
