Spurgeon's Sermons Volume 14: 1868 Charles Haddon Spurgeon, The Exceptional Woman Mary D.
 Sheriff,1997-10-24 Elisabeth Vigee Lebrun 1755 1842 was an enormously successful painter a favorite portraitist of Marie Antoinette and one of the few women accepted into the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture In her role as an artist she was simultaneously flattered as a charming woman and vilified as monstrously unfeminine In the Exceptional Woman Mary D Sheriff uses Vigee Lebrun s career to explore the contradictory position of woman artist in the moral philosophical professional and medical debates about women in eighteenth century France Central to Sheriff s analysis is one key question given the cultural norms and social attitudes that regulated a woman s activities how could Vigee Lebrun conceive of herself as an artist and indeed become a successful one in old regime France Paying particular attention to painted and textual self portraits Sheriff shows how Vigee Lebrun s images and memoirs undermined the assumptions about woman and the strictures imposed on women Engaging ancien regime philosophy as well as modern feminism psychoanalysis literary theory and art criticism Sheriff s interpretations of Vigee Lebrun s paintings challenge us to rethink the work of this controversial woman artist

English Linguistics Christian Mair,2022-03-07 bachelor wissen English Linguistics is a compact and easy to use introduction to English linguistics which is tailored to the needs of students of English at German Austrian and Swiss universities contains graded exercises to motivate students to carry out independent research and bridges the gap between linguistics and the literary and cultural studies components of the typical BA in English Studies Bachelor wissen English Linguistics goes beyond the usual introduction in offering accompanying web resources which provide additional material and multi media illustration The new edition includes current theoretical approaches in the fields of sociolinguistics and World Englishes     The York Legal Record ,1921 A record of cases decided in the courts of York County Pa with reports of important cases in other counties and abstracts of decisions made throughout the state     The Miscellaneous Writings of Pascal Blaise Pascal,1849     Equitable Principles of Maritime Boundary Delimitation Thomas Cottier,2015-04-30 Equity emerged as a powerful symbol of aspired redistribution in international relations Operationally it has had limited impact in the Westphalian system of nation states except for maritime boundary delimitations This book deals with the role of equity in international law and offers a detailed case study on maritime boundary delimitation in the context of the enclosure movement in the law of the sea It assesses treaty law and the impact of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea It depicts the process of trial and error in the extensive case law of the International Court of Justice and arbitral tribunals and expounds the underlying principles and factors informing the methodology both in adjudication and negotiations Unlike other books the main focus is on equity and its implications for legal methodology in particular offering further guidance in the field of international economic law     Imposed Rationality and Besieged Imagination Gustavo Pereira,2019-10-24 Social pathologies are social processes that hinder how individuals exercise their autonomy and freedom In this book Gustavo Pereira offers an account of such phenomena by defining them as a cognitive failure that affects the practical imagination thus negatively interfering with our practical life This failure of the imagination is the consequence of the imposition of a type of practical rationality on a practical context alien to it caused by a non conscious transformation of the individuals set of beliefs and values The research undertaken provides an innovative explanation in terms of microfoundations based on the mechanism of availability heuristic by which the diminished exercise of the imagination turns the intuitively available or prevailing rationality into the one that regulates behaviour in inappropriate contexts Additionally this incorrect regulation results in a progressive distortion of the shared sense of the affected practical contexts which becomes institutionalized Consumerism bureaucratism moralism juridification some forms of corruption and the particular Latin American case of malinchism can be interpreted as social pathologies insofar as they imply such distortion This way of conceptualizing social pathologies integrates the traditional sociological macro explanation manifested through the negative consequences of the processes of social rationalization with a micro explanation articulated around the findings of cognitive psychology such as availability heuristic Understanding social pathologies as a cognitive failure allows us to identify the introduction of normative friction as the main way to counteract their effects One of the potential effects of normative friction as a specific form of cognitive dissonance is the intense exercise of the imagination thus operating as a condition of possibility for the exercise of autonomy and reflection Democratic ethical life understood as a shared democratic culture as well as social institutions and narratives are the privileged social spaces and means to trigger reflective processes that can counteract social pathologies through a reflective reappropriation of the meaning of the shared practical context An extraordinary contribution by a Critical Theorist to the return of the concept of imagination today It takes up the challenge once taken by Kant to think about imagination as the pivotal activity not only of knowledge and experience but above all for action The author claims that imagination makes criticism possible pathologies and it allows us to envision alternative views into the path for social transformation Without imagination nothing is possible Mar a P a Lara Universidad Aut noma Metropolitana Iztapalapa Mexico      Machine Learning in Healthcare Informatics Sumeet Dua,U.
