British Imperial Literature, 1870-1940 Daniel Bivona, 1998-06-13 British Imperial Fiction 1870 1940 traces the gradual process by which the colonial bureaucratic subject was constructed in nineteenth and early twentieth century Britain Daniel Bivona's study offers insightful readings of a number of influential writers who were involved in promoting the ideology of bureaucratic self sacrifice the most important of whom are Stanley Kipling and T E Lawrence He examines how this governing ideology is treated in the novels of Joseph Conrad Joyce Cary and George Orwell By placing the complexities of individual texts in a much larger historical context this study makes the original claim that the colonial bureaucrat played an ambiguous but nonetheless central role in both pro imperial and anti imperial discourse his own power relationship with bureaucratic superiors shaping the terms in which the proper relationship between colonizer and colonized was debated

The Colonizer's Model of the World J. M. Blaut, 2012-07-23 This influential book challenges one of the most pervasive and powerful beliefs of our time that Europe rose to modernity and world dominance due to unique qualities of race environment culture mind or spirit and that progress for the rest of the world resulted from the diffusion of European civilization J M Blaut persuasively argues that this doctrine is not grounded in the facts of history and geography but in the ideology of colonialism Blaut traces the colonizer's model of the world from its

16th century origins to its present form in theories of economic development modernization and new world order

Morality and the Law in British Detective and Spy Fiction, 1880-1920 Kate Morrison, 2020-05-28 Who decides what is right or wrong ethical or immoral just or unjust In the world of crime and spy fiction between 1880 and 1920 the boundaries of the law were blurred and justice called into question humanity's moral code As fictional detectives mutated into spies near the turn of the century the waning influence of morality on decision making signaled a shift in behavior from idealistic principles towards a pragmatic outlook taken in the national interest Taking a fresh approach to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's popular protagonist Sherlock Holmes this book examines how Holmes and his rival maverick literary detectives and spies manipulated the law to deliver a fairer form of justice than that ordained by parliament Multidisciplinary this work views detective fiction through the lenses of law moral philosophy and history and incorporates issues of gender equality and race By studying popular publications of the time it provides a glimpse into public attitudes towards crime and morality and how those shifting opinions helped reconstruct the hero in a new image

Haunting Modernity and the Gothic Presence in British Modernist Literature Daniel Darvay, 2016-09-02 This book explores the complex relationship between British modernism and the Gothic tradition over several centuries of modern literary and cultural history Illuminating the blind spots of Gothic criticism and expanding the range of cultural material that falls under the banner of this tradition Daniel Darvay focuses on how late nineteenth and early twentieth century British writers transform the artifice of Gothic ruins into building blocks for a distinctively modernist architecture of questions concerns images and arguments To make this argument Darvay takes readers back to early exemplars of the genre thematically rooted in the English Reformation tracing it through significant Victorian transformations to finally the modernist period Through writers such as Oscar Wilde Joseph Conrad Virginia Woolf E M Forster and D H Lawrence this book ultimately expands the boundaries of the Gothic genre and provides a fresh new approach to better understanding the modernist movement

Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez, 2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain's imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje's Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi's poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer's mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil

Modernism and the Occult John Bramble,2015-03-04 This study of modernism s high imperial occult exotic affiliations presents many well known figures from the period 1880 1960 in a new light Modernism and the Occult traces the history of modernist engagement with irregular heterodox and imported knowledge
