Muhammad Ali in Africana Cultural

Memory James L. Conyers, Jr., Christel N. Temple, 2022-01-11 One critical priority of the discipline of Africana studies is applied memory specifically how the record of the culture's survival and agency reveals usable and reproducible knowledge and behavior In terms of how Muhammad Ali as an historical actor has left an heroic legacy that bequeaths to us a sort of inheritance the critical task at hand is to systematically explore this historical actor's life feats philosophy grit worldview and even his folkloric antihero to decipher his Africana cultural memory value At the core of this edited collection is a commitment to enhance the cultural storytelling about Muhammad Ali and to critically itemize the lessons we garner from his life as allegory The ancestral life is one that is remembered and recalled The contributors research uncovers Ali's local national and global encounters that are legacy worldviews These perspectives give us direction for mining the critical depth of Ali's encounters which map his memory in terms of culturally sustaining confidence self esteem reinvention immortalization and empathy These are the fertile seeds of Africana cultural memory which bloom into powerful markers and monuments of an epic life of hyperheroic activity relevant to cultural memory sports history politics health and aesthetics
