Rumer Godden:

A House with Four Rooms Rumer Godden, 1989 The second volume of Godden's memoirs is the story of the author's life after her return from India to England with her daughters in 1945 In This House of Brede Rumer Godden, 2016-12-13 Following World War II a British widow joins a Benedictine monastery in this poignant New York Times bestseller from the author of Black Narcissus For most of her adult life Philippa Talbot has been a successful British professional Now in her forties the World War II widow has made a startling decision She's giving up her civil service career and elite social standing to join a convent as a postulant Roman Catholic nun In Sussex in the south of England Philippa begins her new life inside Brede Abbey a venerable 130 year old Benedictine monastery Taking her place among a diverse group of extraordinary women young and old she is welcomed into the surprisingly rich and complex world of the devout whom faith fate and circumstance have led there From their personal stories both uplifting and heartbreaking Philippa draws great strength in the weeks months and years that follow as the confidence conflicts and poignant humanity of her fellow sisters serve to validate her love and sacred purpose But a time of great upheaval in the hierarchy of the Catholic Church approaches as the winds of change blow at gale force And for the financially troubled Brede and the acolytes within it will take no less than a miracle to weather the storm Author Rumer Godden spent three years living in close proximity to Stanbrook Abbey in Worcestershire communing with the Benedictine nuns in preparation for the writing of this beloved bestseller The result is an honest and unforgettable novel of love sacrifice and devotion a major literary achievement from the acclaimed author of Black Narcissus and The River This ebook features an illustrated biography of the author including rare images from the Rumer Godden Literary Estate Later Editions and Reissues of Novels by Rumer Godden, Not Catalogued Separately. Rumer Godden, 1968 The River Rumer Godden, 1946 A girl in India growing into womanhood experiences the changes which the passage of time brings birth and death blindness and cruelty love retribution Rumer Godden Anne Chisholm, 1999-09-30 Details the life of novelist Rumer Godden born in India to English parents and her six decade literary career famed for such novels as Black Narcissus Rumer Godden Dr Lucy Le-Guilcher, Dr Phyllis B Lassner, 2013-04-28 From 1929 to 1997 Rumer Godden published more than 60 books including novels biographies children's books and poetry this is the first collection devoted to this important transnational writer Focusing on Godden's writing from the 1930s onward the contributors uncover the breadth and variety of the literary landscape on display in works such as Black Narcissus The Lady and the Unicorn A Fugue in Time and The River Often drawing on her own experiences living in India and Britain Godden establishes a diverse narrative topography that allows her to engage with issues related to her own uncertain position as an author representing such nomadic Others as gypsies or taking up the displacements brought about by international conflict Recognizing that studies of the transnational must consider the condition of enforced and elected exile within the changing political and cultural borders of postcolonial nations the contributors position Godden with respect to
