Run Lola Run - DVD, , Run Lola run (Blu-Ray), 2008 Run Lola Run, Run Lola run, 2003 Run Lola run, 1999 Run Lola Run, Narrative Constructions in Tom Tykwer's Run, Lola, Run Simone Donecker, 2006-09-24 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Film Science grade A Indiana University Communication and Culture language English abstract Run Lola Run by Tom Tykwer 1998 is a cinematically innovative film that departs in many ways from usual standards of narrative construction by using a wide range of filmmaking techniques Although its unique graphic and audio representation as well as its plot technique confronts stereotypes that are produced by Hollywood it can also be associated with principles of classical narrative form In this paper I will discuss the complex structure and narrative of the movie as well as its extensive self reflexivity by focusing on its different ramifications in art cinema counter cinema and classical Hollywood cinema In an interview on a Belgian film website David Bordwell argues that a lot of films which seem to be unusual and innovative are actually rooted in the spirit of classical cinema A movie like Lola Rennt for instance which is very experimental in some ways is in many ways also very traditional Beginning middle end she gets three chances the last one is the right one she looks at the audience in the end and acknowledges it s all been a game I mean this is very much in the spirit of classical cinema Although this might be true there certainly are devices in the film that can be aligned with art cinema The categorization and analysis of Run Lola Run is a matter of how you define classical Hollywood cinema and of how much emphasis you put on the different characteristics that define the structure and the narrative of the film Screenplay Geoff King, Tanya Krzywinska, 2002 Hollywood film franchises are routinely translated into games and some game titles make the move onto the big screen This collection investigates the interface between cinema and games console or PC After Kieślowski Steven Woodward, 2009 Traces the legacy of Krzysztof Kieslowski in films made after his death using his scripts or ideas and in the work of other filmmakers The Tactile Eye Jennifer M. Barker, 2009-05-27 The Tactile Eye expands on phenomenological analysis and film theory in its accessible and beautifully written exploration of the visceral connection between films and their viewers Jennifer M Barker argues that the experience of cinema can be understood as deeply tactile a sensuous exchange between film and viewer that goes beyond the visual and aural gets beneath the skin and reverberates in the body Barker combines analysis of embodiment and phenomenological film theory to provide an expansive description of cinematic tactility She considers feminist experimental film early cinema animation and horror as well as classic modernist and postmodern cinema films from ten national cinemas and work by Chuck Jones Buster Keaton the Quay Brothers Satyajit Ray Carolee Schneemann and Tom Tykwer among others Puzzle Films Warren Buckland, 2009-01-12 Drawing upon the expertise of film scholars from around the world Puzzle Films investigates a number of films that sport complex storytelling from Memento Old Boy and Run Lola Run to the Infernal Affairs trilogy and In the Mood for Love Unites American independent cinema the European and International Art film and certain modes of avant garde filmmaking on the basis of their shared storytelling complexity Draws upon the expertise of film scholars from North America Britain China Poland Holland Italy Greece New Zealand and Australia Nostalgia After Nazism Heidi M. Schlipphacke,2010 Nostalgia After Nazism is a compelling sophisticated entry in the growing field of German and Austrian memory studies It introduces into German studies a nuanced set of tools drawn from the broad panoply of contemporary theory and sets those voices onto the broader historical landscape of post World War II confrontations between the West s recent history and its present The result is a highly readable impeccably documented volume that joins the best of literary history and close readings to a broad spectrum of theoretical models Nostalgia After Nazism offers an exemplary model for cultural scholarship after the supposed end of theory recapturing how theory history and the texts of culture are mutually illuminating Katherine Arens The University of Texas at Austin Light Motives Randall Halle,Margaret McCarthy,2003 Light Motives undertakes a long overdue critical reassessment of German popular cinema challenging the traditional view of German film history and offering new ways to think about popular cinema in general German Pop Culture Agnes C. Mueller,2004 An incisive study of the impact of American culture on modern German society Smart Cinema, DVD Add-Ons and New Audience Pleasures P. Brereton,2012-05-30 Examining post 1990s Indie cinema alongside more mainstream films Brereton explores the emergence of smart independent sensibility and how films break the classic linear narratives that have defined Hollywood and its alternative art cinema The work explores how bonus features on contemporary smart films speak to new generational audiences Violating Time Christina Lee,2008-11-01 Violating Time explores the complexity of nonlinear and disrupted cinematic time the delayed period between the actual recording of an event and its eventual public viewing the recreation of an historical event years after it has occurred a nostalgic return to retro in the postmodern era and manipulation of the clock in time travel movies to alter the course of events and create new cultural geographies of time space and experience This collection investigates the politics of tactical remembering and forgetting the selective editing of time and narrative not only as acts of subversion but also of creative potential and empowerment It argues that representations of the past and projections of the future are not isolated commentaries of a romantic yesterday or grand visions of tomorrow Rather they evoke the preoccupations and anxieties of the present whether it is the skepticism of nostalgic kitsch The Royal Tenenbaums or the projected post millennial fears of disappearing histories and mutating pasts manufactured memories and loss of identity Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and 2046 Gaming Film Jasmina Kallay,2013-09-24 Gaming Film explores the growing influence of computer games on contemporary cinema From the type of stories told to their complex structural patterns from the changing modes of reception to innovative visual aesthetics computer games are re shaping the cinematic landscape in exciting directions The Couch and the Silver Screen Andrea Sabbadini,2005-07-05 Only book that focuses on psychoanalysis and European Cinema As well as more academic essays the book contains transcriptions of informal discussions between experts and live audiences Videogames and Education Harry John Brown,2008 Women, Pleasure, Film Simon Richter, 2013-08-20 The Lola film is a distinct subgenre of the woman's film in which woman's claim to pleasure is entertained without recourse to the figure of the femme fatale. Lola embodies a recognizable set of characteristics through which over time a select group of directors, actors, and audiences have responded in ways that do not succumb to the imperatives of gender. There are over thirty-five Lola films starting with Marlene Dietrich in The Blue Angel; many are German, others are French, American, British, Italian, and Spanish, but her claim has also resonated in Argentina, China, Egypt, Mexico, Thailand, and the Philippines. Lola can be working class, lesbian, transgender, ethnic, suburban, or any combination. This book examines Lola as a specific and enduring aspect of the early twentieth-century new woman, woman's forthright claim to pleasure on her own terms, liberated if only as a cinematic fantasy from the usual constraints of sex and gender.
