The World Bank Research Program, 2005-2007, 2008 This pocket sized reference on key environmental data for over 200 countries includes key indicators on agriculture forestry biodiversity energy emission and pollution and water and sanitation The volume helps establish a sound base of information to help set priorities and measure progress toward environmental sustainability goals

Changing Contours of Asian Agriculture V. S. Vyas, 2009 Commemorative volume published on the 75th birth anniversary of V S Vyas economist from Rajasthan India most of the papers presented at a seminar held at Jaipur in February 2008

China's Logic: The Balance Development Lixing Zou, 2017-10-10 The law of balance is not just a motivating power but also serves the purpose of development How did human society develop in a balanced manner in history How is China's Modernization impacted by the law of equilibrium How does the law of balance affect China's economic and trade relations with other countries This book attempts to answer these questions and more It applies the balance law methodology to systematically analyze major factors influencing the sustainable development of the Chinese economy and society and to discuss the balanced way of thinking market credit innovation energy and international collaboration that boost sustainable development

While the theoretical system of socialism with Chinese characteristics needs a balanced development perspective solving the problem of imbalance requires a balanced approach as well as a balanced interaction between man nature and society which is the key factor for economic development in the 21st century     At the Frontlines of Development Indermit S. Gill,Todd Pugatch,2005-04-01 In At the Frontlines of Development former World Bank country directors recount their experiences both as managers of the World Bank s programs in global economic hotspots of the 1990s as well as throughout their careers in development economics These essays detail among many stories of development in the 1990s how China and India lifted hundreds of millions out of poverty while Russia collapsed how Bosnia and Herzegovina and Mozambique remade their war ravaged economies and how Thailand Turkey and Argentina fell into financial crisis These remarkable stories told in first person by the country directors who were there to witness them provide candid assessments of development in the 1990s what succeeded what failed and what lessons emerged This book is part of a larger effort undertaken by the World Bank to understand the development experience of the 1990s an extraordinary eventful decade Each of the project s three volumes serves a different purpose Economic Growth in the 1990s provides comprehensive analysis of the decade s development experience while Development Challenges in the 1990s offers insights on the practical concerns faced by policymakers

Inequality in the Developing World Carlos Gradín,Murray Leibbrandt,Finn Tarp,2021 An analysis of the elevated level of contemporary global economic inequality its measurement trends over time and geography and the policy challenges thrown up by them with a focus on mainly five countries Brazil China India South Africa and Mexico     Ethnic Minorities and Regional Development in Asia Huhua Cao,2009 The global development experience of the past century has shown that economic growth cannot be sustained without taking into consideration the social and political development of vulnerable populations including the struggle for minority rights Within this context this volume argues for the support of an interdisciplinary discussion that aims to link studies surrounding the development of minorities in Asia     Lessons Learned from the Dragon (China) and the Elephant (India): 2004-2005 Annual Report International Food Policy Research Institute,2005-11-14     Community Participation in China Janelle Plummer,John G. Taylor,2013 This important volume provides a source of information on the key issues including constraints and capacity building necessary to implement participatory approaches in China today A wealth of case studies are provided by principal Chinese academics and practitioners in forestry natural resource management rural development irrigation and poverty alleviation At the core the book is about strengthening local government as a key player in the development of participatory initiatives It is an invaluable text for development practitioners donors researchers and students seeking to understand the opportunities and constraints for participation in China and for those working to institutionalize participatory processes in a complex rural context     Developmental Dilemmas Peter Ho,2005-05-24 Developmental Dilemmas singles out land as an object of study and places it in the context of one of the world s largest and most populous countries undergoing institutional reform the People's Republic of China The book demonstrates that private property protected by law the principle of getting the prices right and the emergence of effectively functioning markets are the outcome of a given society's historical development and institutional fabric Peter Ho argues that the successful creation of new institutions hinges in part on choice and timing in relation to the particular constellation of societal economic political and cultural parameters Disregarding these could result in rising inequality bad land stewardship and the eruption of land related grievances

Sustaining our Environment for Better Future Abdelnaser Omran, Odile Schwarz-Herion, 2019-08-05 This book covers a variety of topics regarding environmental practices in our day to day lives as well as topics concerning sustainable development as a broader concept embracing ecological social and economic aspects to improve the quality of life for people around the world Starting with the traditional controversy between the neoclassical economy and sustainable economy which may be overcome by scientific progress due to more intensive scientific studies of the sustainability paradigm the book proceeds to discuss various problems and challenges regarding environmental protection and sustainable development in different countries and on different continents This includes analyses of recent sometimes fatal mining disasters in South and North America challenges and opportunities for rural development in Africa and Australia an exploration of the role of women for sustainable development in Palestine water safety and water security issues in Asia and Australia the environmental exploitation of popular tourism destinations like Acapulco and deforestation in Malaysia suggesting innovative approaches to turn challenges into opportunities to effectively tackle these problems Other topics addressed involve sustainable energy creation for future generations a research survey among Romanian students on sustainable consumption behavior validity testing for a heat transfer model in a greenhouse and a case study on sustainability risk management practices at Malaysia's environmentally sensitive companies The book closes with an examination of highly digitalized Smart Cities as a potentially valuable complement to conventional urban and rural lifestyles in connection with achieving the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs

Social Development in Africa, 1950-1985 Arega Yimam, 1990 Agricultural Development in the World Periphery Vicente Pinilla, Henry Willebald, 2018-02-06 This book brings together analysis on the conditions of agricultural sectors in countries and regions of the world's peripheries from a wide variety of international contributors The contributors to this volume proffer an understanding of the processes of agricultural transformations and their interaction with the overall economies of Africa Asia and Latin America Looking at the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the onset of modern economic growth the book studies the relationship between agriculture and other economic sectors exploring the use of resources land labour capital and the influence of institutional and technological factors in the long run performance of agricultural activities Pinilla and Willebald challenge the notion that agriculture played a negligible role in promoting economic development in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries when the impulse towards industrialization in the developing world was more impactful
