Agrawal, Naresh Kanta, 1990 Part I of this book which comprises the bulk of the volume consists of a bibliography of approximately 650 publications on child education The publications include articles from 58 Indian journals and newspapers published in the English language The bibliography also references books research reports and doctoral theses that have been reviewed in journals and newspapers The bibliography has both an author and a subject index Full bibliographic information is provided in both indexes Part II of the book includes a description of a proposed children s university which would house children from around India include several centers of research on problems related to child development and sponsor cultural centers for each Indian State Also included are 1 an essay concerning the problems and potentials of research on children s reading 2 excerpts from the Indian Constitution that concern issues relating to children 3 statistics on school enrollment and adult literacy in India and 4 a list of 79 specialists in the field of child education BC      Rural Development Abstracts, 1994      Television Publics in South Asia S M Shameem Reza, Ratan Kumar Roy, 2023-11-20 Television has a prime role to play in the formation of discursive domains in the everyday life of South Asian publics This book explores various television media practices social processes mediated political experiences and everyday cultural compositions from Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka With the help of country specific case studies it captures a broad range of themes which foreground the publics and their real life experiences of television in the region The chapters in this book discuss gendered television spaces women seeking solace from television in pandemic the taboo in digital TV dramas television viewership and localizing publics changing viewership from television to OTT news and public perception of death redefining the national theatrical television and post truth television news among other key issues Rich in ethnographic case studies this volume will be a useful resource for scholars and researchers of media and communication studies journalism digital media South Asian studies cultural studies sociology and social anthropology      Reimagining Resources and Community Development Monica Gruezmacher, Kelly Vodden, Brennan Lowery, Amy Hudson, Kristof Van

Assche,2025-07-09 This book analyzes the experiences of communities facing major challenges relating to resource dependency and community sustainability drawing on specific examples from the Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador It offers a methodology of self analysis for communities facing similar challenges inspired by the ups and downs local strategies for self analysis and collaborative work toward new futures in this Canadian province Life in hundreds of small coastal settlements revolved around the cod fishery until the fishery was no more viable Communities have had to rethink their strengths reconsider their assets and imagine potential futures in the wake of events such as colonization and the collapse of the fishing industry Their experiences are relevant for other parts of the world where formerly central resources are depleted or lose their value and communities face the need for transition The capacity to imagine different futures is rooted in the ability to critically consider strengths and weaknesses alike The authors skillfully dissect and illuminate the conditions that can enable the reconsideration of local assets and narratives toward a more sustainable future The variety of these conditions ranging from social memory to public debate policy tools and institutional capacity decision arenas paths for participation and distributed strategic leadership are laid out clearly and illustrated vividly through vignettes written by individuals who participated in the events described This book culminates in a flexible yet clearly structured method of self analysis useful for communities interested in rethinking their strengths and working toward new futures This book will appeal to students scholars and professionals interested in community development and redevelopment and offers a new understanding of the mechanics of local and regional resilience Research in Education ,1974

Resources in Education ,1997 Federal Register ,2008 India's State-run Media Sanjay Asthana,2019-05-09 India's State run Media presents a new perspective on broadcasting by bringing together two neglected areas of research in media studies in India the intertwined genealogies of sovereignty public religion and nation in radio and television and the spatiotemporal dynamics of broadcasting into a single analytic inquiry It argues that the spatiotemporalities of broadcasting and the inter relationships among the public religion and nation can be traced to an organizing concept that shaped India's late colonial and postcolonial histories sovereignty The book contends that studies of television have glossed over the meanings experiences and practices of the religious in televisual narratives and viewers interpretations of television programs Drawing on the philosophical writings of Paul Ricoeur and Michel Foucault connecting their ideas with media cultural and religious studies it examines cultural discourses power relations repertoire of meanings social events etc in broadcasting in late colonial and postcolonial India Congressional Record Index ,1978 Includes history of bills and resolutions Mass Media and Society Mr. Rohit Manglik,2022-12-22 Examines media's role in shaping public opinion culture and societal change Congressional Record United States. Congress,2000 Pakistan - Social and Cultural Transformations in a Muslim Nation Mohammad Qadeer,2006-11-22 This is the first English language survey of Pakistan's socio economic evolution Mohammad Qadeer gives an essential overview of social and cultural transformation in Pakistan since independence which is crucial to understanding Pakistan's likely future direction. Pakistan examines how tradition and family life continue to contribute long-term stability and explores the areas where very rapid changes are taking place: large population increase, urbanization, economic development, and the nature of civil society and the state. It offers an insightful view into Pakistan, exploring the wide range of ethnic groups, the countryside, religion, and community and popular culture and national identity. It concludes by discussing the likely future social development in Pakistan, captivating students and academics interested in Pakistan and multiculturalism. Qadeer's impressive work is a comprehensive examination of social and cultural forces in Pakistani society and is an important resource for anyone wanting to understand contemporary Pakistan.
