Rural Scotland Today The Best Of Both Worlds:

Rural Poverty Today Mark Shucksmith, Jayne Glass, Jane Atterton, Polly Chapman, 2023-02-22 This book combines person based and place based approaches to tackling rural poverty

Rural Wales in the Twenty-First Century Paul Milbourne, 2011-10-15 This book explores the changing relations between people place and environment in rural Wales in the twenty first century and provides new understandings of rural geography and rural sociology

Housing in the European Countryside Nick Gallent, Mark Shucksmith, Mark Tewdwr-Jones, 2003-12-08 Housing in the European Countryside provides an overview of the housing pressures and policy challenges facing Europe while highlighting critical differences By drawing on contemporary research work of leading authors in the fields of housing studies rural geography and planning the book provides an introduction to housing issues across the European countryside for those who have hitherto been unexposed to such concerns and who wish to gain some basic insight This in depth review of housing pressure in the European countryside reveals both the form nature and variety of problems now being experienced in different parts of Europe in addition to outlining policy solutions that are being provided by member states and other agencies in meeting the rural housing challenge at this time and in the years ahead

Perspectives on British Rural Planning Policy, 1994-97 Andrew W. Gilg, 2019-01-15 First published in 1999 this volume explores the issue of rural planning which has become a complex activity in which policies in one area have important ramifications in other policy areas It is thus very important for all those involved in rural planning affairs to remain not only up to date but to place recent developments in a longer perspective This new series aims to answer all these needs by providing an accurate and informed account of recent developments in North American British and European rural policy and critiques of policy implementation and its impacts from new material and from analyses of published research findings This second volume in the series covers the last few years of the John Major administration until the election of the Tony Blair government in May 1997 It is divided into six chapters overview of changes affecting all rural planning activities the environment town and country planning extensive land uses nature conservation and recreation and social land economic issues The next British volume will cover the entire period of the current government with successive volumes covering each new government as it unfolds

Rural Entrepreneurship Gary Bosworth, Polly Chapman, Robert Newbery, Artur Steiner, Don J Webber, 2025-02-19 Rural Entrepreneurship Harvesting Ideas and Sowing New Seeds examines what we have learnt about different aspects of rural entrepreneurship and what still needs to be understood

Young People in Rural Areas of Europe Birgit Jentsch, 2017-07-05 Despite an EU wide commitment to rural development research has rarely focused on the lives of young people in rural areas their experiences in education and employment their perceptions of policies relevant to them and their possibilities of participation Based on a two year European research project on policies and young people in rural development this edited volume examines these issues and considers young people s experiences of rural life in Austria Finland France Germany Ireland Portugal and Scotland The volume is organized thematically with each chapter addressing a specific topic in one or more countries These topics comprise the attractiveness of rural areas to young people the impact of programmes under the European Employment Guidelines rural youth in local community development and partnerships rural development programmes and their impact on youth integration the role of social networks and the transition from education to employment A number of implications for policy and practice are drawn out in conclusion This book will be of interest to anyone concerned with the future of rural areas and with those who live in the European countryside International

Perspectives on Rural Homelessness Paul Cloke,Paul Milbourne,2013-03-22 Drawing on recent academic studies in North America Europe Australia and New Zealand this book is the first international text on homelessness in rural areas Consisting of fifteen specially commissioned chapters International Perspectives on Rural Homelessness provides comparative material on the cultural political and policy contexts of rural homelessness examining the nature and scale of the issue and the complex local geographies of rural homelessness Countryside Connections Catherine Hagan Hennessy,Robin

Means,Vanessa Burholt,2014-04-29 Older people in the countryside are vastly under researched compared to those in urban areas This innovative volume the first project based book in the New Dynamics of Ageing series offers a unique interdisciplinary perspective on this issue focusing on older people s role as assets in rural civic society It demonstrates how the use of diverse methods from across disciplines aims to increase public engagement with this research The authors examine the ways in which rural elders are connected to community and place the contributions they make to family and neighbours and the organisations and groups to which they belong Highly topical issues around later life explored through these perspectives include older people s financial security leisure access to services transport and mobility civic engagement and digital inclusion all considered within the rural context in an era of fiscal austerity In doing so this book challenges problem based views of ageing rural populations through considering barriers and facilitators to older people s inclusion and opportunities for community participation in rural settings Countryside Connections is a valuable text for students researchers and practitioners with interests in rural ageing civic engagement and interdisciplinary methods theory and practice The Scottish Economy Kenneth Gibb,Duncan Maclellan,Des McNulty,Michael Comerford,2017-07-06 The

Scottish economy is at the heart of contemporary constitutional and public policy debates This substantial new edited collection the first comprehensive and authoritative analysis for more than 60 years is a timely update on the classic volume of the same name edited by Sir Alec Cairncross in 1954 It is data rich and offers links to updatable data and leading indicators of the Scottish economy including measures of public finances distributional evidence and growth Readers will find a series of easy to follow chapters covering the Scottish economy from every angle oil and gas health education finance rural

Scotland inequality climate change gender and work housing infrastructure and cities Each sector based chapter explores the main issues draws out key empirical facts and considers policy challenges that lie ahead This book includes an historical account of the development of the Scottish economy the trajectory of economic policy in Scotland reviews of the current fiscal position and the wider economic landscape and also an intriguing insight into the emerging distinctive approach to Scottish public policy This book brings together evidence and high quality research by experts on the Scottish economy in a politically neutral accessible and non technical way The volume will assist readers in navigating their way through the many political debates about constitutional and economic futures that are underway in modern Scotland and the UK A website also exists to accompany The Scottish Economy www.scottisheconomy.scot In today's inter connected world it makes sense to have a book on the Scottish economy supplemented by online access to important data information and evidence as a means of keeping material current

Community Co-production Jane Farmer, Carol Hill, Sarah-Anne Muñoz, 2012-01-01

Governments around the globe are promoting co production and community social enterprise as policy strategies to address the need for local 21st century service provision but can small communities engage spontaneously in social enterprise and what is the true potential for citizens to produce services This book addresses a clutch of contemporary societal challenges including aging demography and the consequent need for extended care in communities public service provision in an era of retrenching welfare and global financial crises service provision to rural communities that are increasingly hollowed out through lack of working age people and how best to engender the development of community social enterprise organizations capable of providing high quality accessible services It is packed with information and evidence garnered from research into the environment for developing community social enterprise and co producing services how communities react to being asked to co produce what to expect in terms of the social enterprises they can produce and how to make them happen This book is an antidote to the rhetoric of optimistic governments that pronounce co production as a panacea to the challenges of providing local services and by drawing on the evidence from a real life international study will make policymakers more savvy about their aspirations for co production give service professionals practical strategies for working with communities fill a gap in the academic evidence about community as opposed to individual social enterprise and reassure community members that they can deliver services through community social enterprise if the right partnerships and strategies are in place Community CoProduction will appeal to students and scholars over a broad range of disciplines including development entrepreneurship public and social policy economics and regional studies

Introducing Social Geographies Rachel Pain, Jamie Gough, Graham Mowl, Michael Barke, Robert MacFarlane, Duncan Fuller, 2014-05-01

Introducing Social Geographies is a major new text offering a comprehensive and up to date introduction to this important area of human geography It presents a broad overview of social geography clearly outlining the key theoretical and political positions and making extensive use of examples to show how these frameworks can be used to analyse real social issues The book is ideal for undergraduates first encountering social geography and includes topic overviews summaries of key points critiques boxed case studies and suggestions for further reading

Winning and Losing Doris Schmied, 2022-05-05 Instigated by technological and political change Europe's rural areas have undergone profound and all pervasive restructuring processes Although the impact of these processes has often been depicted negatively this is not always the case Bringing together a range of comparative case studies from France Finland Germany Greece Ireland Spain Sweden Portugal the UK and other countries this book provides a comprehensive and balanced picture of rural change over the past five decades It explores which aspects of the European countryside have benefited and which have suffered as a consequence of the often contradictory forces of restructuring The book looks into economic aspects as well as into the social impact of rural change The final part examines regional issues and illustrates how different rural areas have responded to the transformative pressures

Planning, Markets and Rural Housing Nick Gallent, 2014-01-02 This book analyses the key forces affecting the affordability of rural homes in Britain and the changing shape of housing markets It takes as its starting point demographic trends impacting upon rural communities and upon market dynamics From this point it explores consequent patterns of housing affordability examining changing opportunities in the rental and sale markets at different spatial scales The book also focuses on how markets are analysed and how data are selectively used to demonstrate low levels of affordability or a lack of need for additional housing in small village locations Building on the demographic theme the book considers the housing implications of an aging population before the focus finally shifts to community initiative in the face of housing undersupply and planning's future role in delivering and procuring a more constant and predictable supply of affordable homes In a speculative conclusion the book ends by examining the current political trajectory in England and the prospects for housing in the countryside in the context of localism and neighbourhood planning at a village level This book was published as a special issue of Planning Practice and Research

Rural Sustainable Development in the Knowledge Society Hilary Tovey, 2016-04-08 Based on the EU funded CORASON research project this volume brings together and compares studies into rural and sustainable development processes in 12 European countries In doing so it identifies key trends and reveals the changing nature of development processes on the way towards a knowledge society The book examines the differences between the preconditions and contexts relevant to rural development strategies and those relevant to sustainable development strategies It explores whether the concept goals and nature of rural development is better understood and adopted by rural actors than those of sustainable development Finally by focusing on the ideas and practices of sustainable resource management a component in both rural and sustainable development objectives it links with knowledge used by actors involved in rural development

Re-exploring Canadian Space Jeanette M. L. den Toonder, Bettina van Hoven, 2012 A variety of productions and representations of Canadian identities are the central theme that runs through this book The different contributions explore imagined spaces by considering Canadian music poetry and novels they engage with political space by addressing various ways in which the people of Canada have made claims to different regions in the distant and recent past and they address lived spaces and their actual and symbolic meanings It is an unusual book as it encompasses the writings by those studying the arts and literature as well as writings by social scientists and it includes both English and French speaking scholars The richness that can be found in this multitude of perspectives and approaches to exploring Canadian space is characteristic of the way in which Canadian Studies is practiced nowadays It is therefore an appropriate volume to celebrate 20 years of Canadian Studies in the Netherlands "To Farm Or Not to Farm" Ulrike Schwarz,2004 Why did Joe get the farm and not Jo Why Rob and not Robin This book describes the answers farm families have to enact for each generation anew Written by a farmer s wife and mother it is for all who are interested in understanding the underlying dynamics of succession and inheritance in farm family businesses regardless of discipline profession and background It has been arranged in chronological order following the individual s growing into or out of the family business and offers exciting insights via easily understood graphs and succinct quotes from industry and research

Rural Poverty Paul Milbourne,2004-08-19 This book brings to light important issues which are often ignored that the social effects of poverty are acute in rural areas Milbourne examines the effects of poverty on issues such as social exclusion in rural areas Contested Countryside Cultures Paul Cloke,Jo Little,2005-08-12 This book charts the experiences of marginalised groups living in and visiting the countryside revealing how notions of the rural have been created to reflect and reinforce divisions among those living there A Commodified World Colin C. Williams,2005-03-04 This volume provides a critique of the assumption of increasing commodification in the modern economy
