Rural Women In Urban China Gender Migration And Social Change:

Rural Women in Urban China Tamara Jacka, 2014-12-18 Based on in depth ethnographic research and using an approach that seeks to understand how migration is experienced by the migrants themselves this is a fascinating study of the experiences of women in rural China who joined the vast migration to Beijing and other cities at the end of the twentieth century It focuses on the experiences of rural urban migrants the particular ways in which they talk about those experiences and how those experiences affect their sense of identity Through first hand accounts of actual migrant workers the author provides valuable insights into how rural women negotiate rural urban experiences how they respond to migration and life in the city and how that experience shapes their world view values and relations with others The book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gender and social change and of the ways in which globalization and modernity are experienced at the most personal level ICGR 2018 International Conference on Gender Research

Dr Ana Azevedo, Dr Anabela Mesquita, 2018-04-12 Gender and Employment in Rural China Jing Song, 2017-04-21 With China's rapid advancements in urbanization and industrialization there has been significant labor movement away from agriculture in the rural regions Using four village case studies Song examines how this restructuring process affects the rural population Much of her research is centered on their various perceptions and reactions towards the market reforms How are their lives reshaped through the employment transition Along with the changes of family life and the diversification of development models how do an individual's gender and background play a role in determining employment These are the broad questions that Song addresses through detailed analysis of four different villages in light of China's move towards decentralization of its rural economy Gender, Modernity and Male Migrant Workers in China

Xiaodong Lin, 2013-07-18 Rural urban migration within China has transformed and reshaped rural people's lives during the past few decades and has been one of the most visible phenomena of the economic reforms enacted since the late 1970s Whilst Feminist scholars have addressed rural women's experience of struggle and empowerment in urban China in contrast research on rural men's experience of migration is a neglected area of study In response this book seeks to address the absence of male migrant workers as a gendered category within the current literature on rural urban migration Examining Chinese male migrant workers identity formation this book explores their experience of rural urban migration and their status as an emerging sector of a dislocated urban working class It seeks to understand issues of gender and class through the rural migrant men's narratives within the context of China's modernization and provides an in depth analysis of how these men make sense of their new lives in the rapidly modernizing post Mao China with its emphasis on progress and development Further this book uses the men's own narratives to challenge the elite assumption that rural men's low status is a result of their failure to adopt a modern urban identity and lifestyle Drawing on interviews with 28 male rural migrants Xiaodong Lin unpacks the gender politics of Chinese men and masculinities and in turn contributes to a greater understanding of global masculinities in an international context This book will be of great interest to students and scholars working in the fields of Chinese culture and society gender studies migration studies sociology and social anthropology Shortlisted for this year's BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize      Urban China in Transition John Logan, 2011-07-22 Using an innovative approach this book interprets the unprecedented transformation of contemporary China's major cities It deals with a diversity of trends and analyzes their sources Offers a multi dimensional analysis of urban life in China Highlights a diversity of trends in the areas of migration criminal victimization gated communities and the status of women suburbanization and neighbourhood associations Each chapter includes input from both an expert on urban life in China and an outside expert from the fields of sociology geography economics planning political science history demography architecture or anthropology An alternative theoretical perspective comparing the Chinese experience with other urban settings in the United States Poland Russia Vietnam East and South East Asia and South America      Gender Dynamics, Feminist Activism and Social Transformation in China Guoguang Wu, Yuan Feng, Helen Lansdowne, 2018-11-02 This book explores the extent to which women have been initiators mobilizers and driving forces of social transformation in China The book considers how conceptions of women's roles have changed as China has moved from state socialism to engagement with capitalist globalization examines the growth of women's gender and sexual consciousness and social movements for women's rights including for marginalized social and sex gender groups and discusses women's roles in society state interactions including many forms of social activism cultural events educational innovations and more Overall the book demonstrates that women have not simply been passive receivers of the consequences of the forces of global capitalism but that they have had a profound active impact on social transformation in China      Feminist Explorations of Urban China Penn Tsz Ting Ip, 2025-02-11 This book explores gender topics related to social transitions and social struggles in the context of the urban transformations accompanying the evolving political economy of China's New Era here defined as the period since 2017 Analyzing a range of feminist perspectives and empirically based feminist research this book investigates the ways in which national policies and campaigns imposed under the discursive political framing of the New Era seep into the everyday lives of people influencing how societies are transformed and how urban spaces gendered social practices lived experiences and subjectivities are being re shaped and modified Through explorations of these aspects of the New Era this book reveals the new challenges and possibilities faced by different gendered social groups in contemporary Chinese society Providing rich deliberations on gender topics related to urban developments in China's New Era this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of China studies gender and women's studies and urban studies      The Class and Gender Politics of Chinese Online Discourse Yanning Huang, 2024-06-07 This book offers an in depth study of the quasi political self deprecating and parodic buzzwords and memes prevalent in Chinese online discourse Combining discourse analysis with in depth audience research among the young internet users who deploy these buzzwords in on and offline contexts the book explores the historical and social implications of online wordplay for sustaining or challenging the contemporary social order in China Yanning Huang adopts a combination of media and communications social anthropology and socio linguistic perspectives to shed light on various forms of agency enacted by different social groups in their embracing negotiation of or disengagement from online buzzwords before addressing how the discourses of online wordplay have been co opted by corporations and party media Offering a rigorous and panoramic analysis of the politics and logics of online wordplay in contemporary China and providing a critical and nuanced analytical framework for studying digital culture and participation in China and elsewhere this book will be an important resource for scholars and students of media and communication studies Internet and digital media studies discourse analysis Asian studies and social anthropology Marriage Unbound

Ke Li, 2022-07-26 China after Mao has undergone vast transformations including massive rural to urban migration rising divorce rates and the steady expansion of the country's legal system Today divorce may appear a private concern when in fact it is a profoundly political matter especially in a national context where marriage was and has continued to be a key vehicle for nation state building Marriage Unbound focuses on the politics of divorce cases in contemporary China following a group of women seeking judicial remedies for conjugal grievances and disputes Drawing on extensive archival and ethnographic data paired with unprecedented access to rural Chinese courtrooms Ke Li presents not only a stirring portrayal of how these women navigate divorce litigation but also a uniquely in depth account of the modern Chinese legal system With sensitive and fluid prose Li reveals the struggles between the powerful and the powerless at the front lines of dispute management the complex interplay between culture and the state and insidious statecraft that far too often sacrifices women's rights and interests Ultimately this book shows how women's legal mobilization and rights contention can forge new ground for our understanding of law politics and inequality in an authoritarian regime Family Life in China William R.

Jankowiak, Robert L. Moore, 2016-11-28 The family has long been viewed as both a microcosm of the state and a barometer of social change in China It is no surprise therefore that the dramatic changes experienced by Chinese society over the past century have produced a wide array of new family systems Where a widely accepted Confucian based ideology once offered a standard framework for family life current ideas offer no such uniformity Ties of affection rather than duty have become prominent in determining what individuals feel they owe to their spouses parents children and others Chinese millennials facing a world of opportunities and at the same time feeling a sense of heavy obligation are reshaping patterns of courtship marriage and filiality in ways that were not foreseen by their parents nor by the authorities of the Chinese state Those whose roots are in the countryside but who have left their homes to seek opportunity and adventure in the city face particular pressures as do the children and elders they have left behind The authors explore this diversity focusing on rural vs urban differences regionalism and ethnic diversity within China Family Life in China presents new perspectives on what the current changes in this institution imply for a rapidly changing society Globalization against Democracy Guoguang

Wu,2017-04-27 This book explores how global capitalism has reconfigured state market relations and how interactions among capital labor and consumption threaten democracy It is for specialists in political economy political science economics sociology international relations and development studies and for supplemental use on undergraduate and graduate courses on globalization capitalism development and democracy Chinese Village Life Today Gonalo Santos,2021-08-22 An intimate look at twenty first century households in rural China China has undergone a remarkable process of urbanization but a significant portion of its citizens still live in rural villages To gain better access to jobs health care and consumer goods villagers often travel or migrate to cities and that cyclical transit and engagement with new technoscientific and medical practices is transforming village life In this thoughtful ethnography Gon alo Santos paints a richly detailed portrait of one rural township in Guangdong Province north of the industrialized Pearl River Delta region Unlike previous studies of rural urban relations and migration in China Chinese Village Life Today based on Santos s more than twenty years of field research starts from a rural community s point of view rather than the perspective of major urban centers Santos considers the intimate choices of village families in the face of larger forces of modernization showing how these negotiations shape the configuration of daily village life from marriage childbirth and childcare to personal hygiene and public sanitation Santos also outlines the advantages of a rural existence including a degree of autonomy over family planning and community life that is rare in urban China Filled with vivid anecdotes and keen observations this book presents a fresh perspective on China s urban rural divide and a grounded theoretical approach to rural transformation Women in China's Long Twentieth Century Gail Hershatter,2007-03-29 An important and much needed introduction to this rich and fast growing field Hershatter has handled a daunting task with aplomb Susan L Glosser author of Chinese Visions of Family and State 1915 1953 Gender and Family in East Asia Siumi Maria Tam,Wai Ching Angela Wong,Danning Wang,2014-02-18 The on going reconfiguration of geo political and economic forces across the globe has created a new institutional and moral environment for East Asian family life and gender dynamics Indeed modernisation in East Asia has brought about increases in women s education levels and participation in the labour force a delay in marriage age lower birth rates and smaller family size And yet despite the process of modernization traditional systems such as Confucianism and patriarchal rules continue to shape gender politics and family relationships in East Asia This book examines gender politics and family culture in East Asia in light of both the overwhelming changes that modernization and globalization have brought to the region and the structural restrictions that women in East Asian societies continue to face in their daily lives Across three sections the contributors to this volume focus on marriage and motherhood religion and family and migration In doing so they reveal how actions and decisions implemented by the state trigger changes in gender and family at the local level the impact of increasing internal and transnational migration on East Asian culture and how religion interweaves with the state in shaping gender dynamics and daily life within the family With case studies from across the region including South Korea Japan mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian studies gender studies anthropology sociology and social policy      Globalization and Labour in China and India P. Bowles,J. Harriss,2010-08-04

Globalization has pushed China and India to the centre of the stage but what has been the impact on workers in these countries This book demonstrates the complexity of the processes and responses at play There are signs that both states are shifting their role in a counter movement from above But will this be enough to quell the social unrest      The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell,Sophie Oldfield,2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city      Gender, Sexuality and Power in Chinese Companies Liu Jieyu,2016-11-08 This book offers the first ethnographic account of the experiences of highly educated young professional women hailed by the Chinese media as white collar beauties It exposes the organizational mechanisms naturalization objectification and commodification of women that wield gendered and sexual control in post Mao workplaces Whilst men benefit from symbolic and bureaucratic power women professionals skilfully enact indirect power in a game of domination and resistance The sources of women s subversion are grounded in their only child upbringing which breaks the patrilineal base of familial patriarchy fostering an unprecedented ambition in personal development gender as inherently relational and a role oriented system and inner outer cultural boundaries as signifiers of moral agency This raises a new feminist inquiry about the agents for social change Through a nuanced analysis grounded in the socio cultural locality this book throws fresh light upon the ways in which gender sexuality and power could be theorized beyond a Euro American reality      East Asian Sexualities Stevi Jackson,Jieyu Liu,Juhyun Woo,2013-07-18 This book paints a vivid picture of women s active involvement in reshaping intimate and public sexual life in East Asia In bringing together exciting new feminist research on sexuality from East Asia and making it available to a wider audience East Asian Sexualities unsettles stereotypes rectifies lack of awareness and demonstrates that East Asia matters The chapters address the diversity and variety of everyday sexual lives and sexual politics in China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea and Japan They range from workplace sexual cultures trans national sexual relations the conditions of sex work and the emergence of new sexual desires cultures and movements The contributors highlight the gendered and sexual consequences of globalization and rapid social change In doing so they engage with western debates on late modernity while also exploring the contested understandings of modernization and westernization in the East This is a collection which illuminates the local situations in which women s sexual lives are lived and offers fresh perspectives on global issues

Migration and Marriage in Asian Contexts Zheng Mu, Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, 2021-11-29 This book analyses how Asian migrants adapt and assimilate into their host societies and how this assimilation differs across their sociodemographic backgrounds ethnic profiles and political contexts The diversities in Asian migrants assimilation trajectories challenge the assumption that given time migrants will eventually integrate holistically into their host societies This book captures the diverse patterns and trajectories of assimilation by going beyond marriage migration to look at how family formation processes are shaped by migration driven by reasons other than marriage Using quantitative qualitative and mixed method analyses not only does this book uncover the nuances of the link between marriage and migration but it also widens methodological repertoires in research on marriage and migration It also captures various social outcomes that may have been influenced by migration including migrants economic well being cultural assimilation subjective well being and gender inequality vis vis marriages This book further embeds the studies in the Asian contexts by drawing on individual countries unique policies relevant to cross cultural marriages the persistent impacts of extended families the patriarchal traditions and systems of religion and caste The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Migrant Ecologies Zhou Xiaojing, 2021-06-17 Migrant Ecologies investigates the ways in which Zheng Xiaoqiong s poetry exposes the entanglements of migrant ecologies embedded within local and global networks of capital and labor The author contends that women migrant workers in particular as portrayed in Zheng s poems are the visible manifestation of the interconnections between the so called factories of the world and slum villages in the city between urban development and rural decline and between the local environmental degradation and the global market By adopting an ecological approach to Zheng s poems about women migrant workers in China the author explores what Donna Haraway calls webbed ecologies 49 The concept of ecologies serves to enhance not only the layered complex interconnections underlying women migrant workers plight and environmental degradation in China but also the emergence and transformation of migrant spaces subjects activism and networks resulting in part from globalization
