Shadow Faces Rayce Bannon,2007-06 Actually I m a murder aficionado You could even call me a homicide junkie Most people have rather benign run of the mill phobias such as a fear of spiders heights or public speaking But what happens when fear becomes so consuming that it seizes control of a person s life Matt Curtis a senior manager with a consulting company is overwhelmed with self doubt His personal life is falling apart and his job is like quicksand threatening to swallow him at any moment His ultimate fear however is being alone And that fear has come to call on Curtis as a supernatural creature in the shape of a tall slender man wearing an expensive black suit and answering to the name Lazarus Douleur On a mission to terrorize Curtis Douleur removes one woman after another from Curtis s life through a series of bizarre and brutal murders that leave police baffled and Curtis filled with grief stricken with terror and looking suspect Curtis must decide whether he will stand idly by and let Douleur systematically dismantle his life and kill innocent women in the process or muster the courage to wrestle his fear and use it to his advantage

Faces on the Clock Larry Bauer-Scandin,2010-05-28 This guy is tough and so is his message By Ruben Rosario Pioneer Press St Paul MN August 2011 Edited for length Like the U S Postal Service apparently nothing keeps Larry Bauer Scandin foster dad to 125 from his self appointed rounds Not the weather Not the heart ailments or the genetic neurological disorder that robbed him of movement and rendered him legally blind The 64 year old Vadnais Heights resident just gets up and does it My life was normal for the first nine years of my life until 1957 when my foot went to sleep except that my foot never woke up Bauer Scandin told a group of inmates from the 3100 unit at the Dakota County Jail But that s not the main message that Bauer Scandin a retired probation officer and jail counselor wants to deliver on this day Whom do you blame for your problems he asks the group of 34 men who are members of IMC or Inmates Motivated to Change Under the program inmates with chemical dependency or mostly nonviolent offenses sign an agreement to take part in several programs and pledge not to make the same mistakes that keep landing them in lock up What people need to do is stand in front of a mirror and ask How much of the problem is mine and how much is it somebody else I first wrote about Bauer Scandin five years ago It was centered on his life as a foster parent As he told the inmates two of his former foster kids are cops one in St Paul Two are soldiers deployed to Iraq One s a millionaire One s an author Most are raising families or staying out of trouble in spite of hardships But 15 are dead said Bauer Scandin author of Faces on the Clock an engrossing memoir about his life The dead include suicide victims including an 11 year old others from AIDS and my last one they found in three or four pieces as I understand Bauer Scandin s worth writing about again for what he continues to do at great pain and sacrifice without pay or fanfare He didn t sugarcoat or pull punches with his audience What I m afraid is still happening is that the system is trying to figure out how to get tighter he told them The sentences are getting tougher And it s not the police the sheriffs the courts or even the folks in state and county run corrections that are responsible for the race to incarcerate It s the legislature Bauer Scandin said And legislatures have been known to do very stupid things He also faults the media and a gullible public that forms opinions and dehumanizes people strictly on what they watch on TV and not on real life experiences or knowledge What do they see he said They see the Charlie Mansons They see the unusual They see the extreme Most of you aren t that way But that s what makes the news Yet he doesn t divert from his main message It s up to the inmate to take a positive step and choose the right way Get yourself back into a position where you can influence those people to be able to go to a school board or a city council or legislative meeting and have your voice heard You can t fight the system from in here he concluded You have to be out there The inmates applauded and one by one stood in line to shake his hand on his way out the jail complex His progressively debilitating disorder is taking more of a toll these days But he steered the scooter inside the van and deftly wiggled his frail body into the driver s seat He has no complaints he told me He will continue to go out and speak as long as God and his wife allow him I hope something stuck he tells me before he drives off I hope so too Larry

The Luster of Lost Things Sophie Chen Keller, 2017-08-08 In this story for readers of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time and A Man Called Ove when all seems lost he finds what matters most Walter Lavender Jr is a master of finding A wearer of high tops A maker of croissants A son keeping vigil twelve years counting But he wouldn t be able to tell you Silenced by his motor speech disorder Walter s life gets lonely Fortunately he has The Lavenders his mother s enchanted dessert shop where marzipan dragons breathe actual fire He also has a knack for tracking down any missing thing except for his lost father So when the Book at the root of the bakery s magic vanishes Walter accompanied by his overweight golden retriever journeys through New York City to find it along the way

encountering an unforgettable cast of lost souls Steeped in nostalgic wonder The Luster of Lost Things explores the depths of our capacity for kindness and our ability to heal A lyrical meditation on why we become lost and how we are found from the bright broken heart of a boy who knows where to look for everyone but himself Insomniac City Bill Hayes,2018-01-16 Amazon s Best Biographies and Memoirs of 2017 List This touching memoir of the late neurologist Oliver Sacks by a photographer and writer with whom he fell in love near the end of his life turns a story of death into a celebration The New Yorker A beautifully written once in a lifetime book about love about life soul and the wonderful loving genius Oliver Sacks and New York and laughter and all of creation Anne Lamott Bill Hayes came to New York City in 2009 with a one way ticket and only the vaguest idea of how he would get by But at forty eight years old having spent decades in San Francisco he craved change Grieving over the death of his partner he quickly discovered the profound consolations of the city s incessant rhythms the sight of the Empire State Building against the night sky and New Yorkers themselves kindred souls that Hayes a lifelong insomniac encountered on late night strolls with his camera And he unexpectedly fell in love again with his friend and neighbor the writer and neurologist Oliver Sacks whose exuberance I don t so much fear death as I do wasting life he tells Hayes early on is captured in funny and touching vignettes throughout What emerges is a portrait of Sacks at his most personal and endearing from falling in love for the first time at age seventy five to facing illness and death Sacks died of cancer in August 2015 Insomniac City is both a meditation on grief and a celebration of life Filled with Hayes s distinctive street photos of everyday New Yorkers the book is a love song to the city and to all who have felt the particular magic and solace it offers Until We Have Faces Michael Nye,2020-07-07 The hope of love burns at the center of this remarkable collection Melissa Pritchard award winning author of A Solemn Pleasure In a style reminiscent of John Cheever and Alice Munro Michael Nye s second collection of stories Until We Have Faces contends with transfixing themes marital and familial estrangement ways of trespass the intractable mysteries and frights of modern life the uncertainty of knowledge and truth the gulfs between people and the technology we use the frailty of our economic lives Yet hope remains amongst these struggles With his consummate skill penetrating wit and unfailing emotional generosity on full display in this fine new collection award winning storyteller Michael Nye brings together nine indelible short stories to provide an intimate look into the flawed nature of humanity the universal questions of modern life and the unending persistence of love amidst it all
