Rushton's Rowboats and Canoes William Crowley, 1983 Rushtons Rowboats and Canoes William Crowley, 1993-05-01 Boats and Boating in the Adirondacks Hallie E. Bond, 1998-08-01 Adirondack history is a tale written on the water In the Adirondacks people have traveled conducted warfare hunted and fished gone to church proposed marriage and driven logs in on from or by water Without boats small and large Adirondack history social recreational commercial and environmental would be an affair entirely different from what we have come to know In this lavishly illustrated account Hallie E Bond presents a history of these boats canoes sailboats power launches outboards and the indigenous guideboat that figure prominently in the overall history of the Adirondacks The pre contact Indians paddled dugout and bark canoes in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries these craft were joined by skiffs and bateaux Between 1820 and World War II a distinctive tradition of boat building developed culminating in the famous Adirondack guideboat As the nineteenth century progressed a variety of small fresh water musclepowered boats was produced in the Adirondacks an assemblage matched by only a few places in the country There were the canoes and the men that made them famous John Henry Rushton and Nessmuk and the guideboats and their builders H Dwight Grant and Willard Hanmer In the early twentieth century the development of the internal combustion engine irrevocably changed not only boat use and design but life and leisure in the Adirondacks Bond skillfully captures the whole panorama of boats and boating in the Adirondacks from early dugouts and bateaux to the highpowered inboards that won Gold Cup races on Lake George and the Kevlar pack canoes of today Drawing on her experience as an historian and Curator of Collections and Boats at the Adirondack Museum Bond places events and trends of the region in the context of national and international history and describes the significant contribution of the Adirondacks in the early twentieth century development of recreation and travel in America Boats and Boating in the Adirondacks also includes a descriptive catalog of boats from the museum's own collection with nearly two hundred illustrations in addition to those in the narrative a list of boatbuilders active in the North Country before 1975 and a valuable glossary of terms The Whole Paddler's Catalog Zip Kellogg, 1997 For canoeists kayakers and rafters Types of paddling boats and gear voyaging health and safety conservation Canoe and Canvas Jessica Dunkin, 2019-08-22 Canoe and Canvas offers a detailed portrait of the summer encampments of the American Canoe Association between 1880 and 1910 The encampments were annual events that attracted canoeing enthusiasts from both sides of the Canada US border to socialize race canoes and sleep under canvas While the encampments were located away from cities they were still subjected to urban logic and ways of living The encampments thus offer a unique site for exploring cultures of sport and leisure in late Victorian society but also for considering the intersections between recreation and the politics of everyday life A social history of sport Canoe and Canvas is particularly concerned with how gender class and race shaped the social cultural and physical landscapes of the ACA encampments Although there was an ever expanding arena of opportunity for leisure and sport in the late nineteenth century as the example of the ACA makes clear not all were granted equal access Most of the members of the American Canoe Association and the majority of the campers at the annual encampments were white middle class men though white women were extended partial membership in 1882 and in 1883 they were permitted to camp on site Canoe and Canvas also reveals how Black Indigenous and working class people while obscured in the historical record were indispensable to the smooth functioning of these events through their labour The Log of Mystic Seaport ,2001

Adirondack Life ,1983 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1988 Atlantic Fisherman ,1984-05
