Go West! Bernhard Hemetsberger, Andreas Oberdorf, 2025-03-31 The West is a central concept in public discourse but its meaning is often unclear and open to manifold interpretations and ascriptions of belonging and exclusion Who is part of the West When and where is it located How did its meaning change over space and time Who are the mediators of the West and what is their interest in terms of culture and education The West is often used without any critical questioning though This is also reflected in history of education research especially with focus on transnational or transatlantic issues Here the West is a sort of container term or fuzzy concept that can refer to a variety of historical entanglements and cultural transfers in school systems and education but also to conflicts and crises accordingly This book aims to stimulate a critical reflection and debate on ideas of the West in the history of education by gathering scholars from various fields of historical research With a reflexive historical distance to current political incidents in which ideas of the West are revived the contributions in this book are intended to enable readers to evaluate representations of the West in current academic or public discourses and debates alike Re-entering the Sign Ellen E. Berry, Anesa Miller-Pogacar, 1995 Re Entering the Sign brings together an array of perspectives from contemporary Russian scholars and artists on the radical cultural changes that have accompanied the collapse of familiar social political and economic structures in the former Soviet Union The essays and artistic manifestoes offer a variety of responses to the intense cultural questioning that resulted from a remarkable historical period as former Soviet society reentered both its own historical conversations as well as larger global discussions about culture The collection was conceived at an international conference on language and the arts Language Consciousness and Society whose organizers aimed to initiate dialogue within an international community of scholars and artists to open a public arena for the confluence of new voices including native voices long denied open access to the public sphere in their own country The concerns raised in these essays continue to provoke debate in contemporary Russian culture Russian luminaries include Mikhail Epstein and Arcady Dragomoshchenko on topics such as Russian postmodernism the state of contemporary artistic culture comparisons of Soviet literature with new Russian literature and underground cinema The book will appeal to students and scholars of comparative literature and film to cultural critics interested in cross and trans cultural approaches and to theorists of the contemporary avant garde Ellen E Berry is Associate Professor of English and Director of Women s Studies Bowling Green State University and author of Curved Thought and Textual Wandering Gertrude Stein s Postmodernism Anesa Miller Pogacar is Assistant Professor of Russian Bowling Green State University New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement ,1962-05
